EIU Sessions to Help Hearing Aid Users Get Maximum Benefits

Jan-09-2009

The Department of Communication Disorders and Sciences at Eastern Illinois University will offer sessions for individuals who are considering hearing aids or for those who already own hearing aids and would like to maximize their benefit.

Sessions will focus on understanding and coping with hearing loss, and provide good communication skills and strategies.

Spouses, family members and friends are invited to attend, as well.

Participants will attend a series of four sessions, with each session meeting from 10 to 11 a.m. on consecutive Mondays on the second floor of Eastern's Human Services Center. Three series of sessions are planned: Jan. 26, Feb. 2, 9 and 16; Feb. 23, March 2, 9 and 23; and March 30, April 6, 13 and 20.

The registration cost for each series is $20.

To register, please call 217-581-2712 or e-mail Linda Huddlestun at ldhuddlestun@eiu.edu. Detailed information regarding parking passes and a campus map will be sent after registration is finalized.
