FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Kimberly Swanson, a freshman at Eastern Illinois University, was recently elected as the student body's executive vice president for the upcoming academic year.

The Wheaton native received 1,161 of the 2,551 votes cast by Eastern's students in the election. Swanson, a speech communications major, was the incumbent for the position after winning in a special election this spring.

"I'm happy that I won and I hope that I'll do a great deal for Eastern," said Swanson after her victory. Swanson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Swanson, 1111 East Lowden, Wheaton.
