FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CUNNINGHAM INDUCTED INTO ALPHA SIGMA LAMBDA

CHARLESTON -- Jan Cunningham of Effingham, was recently inducted into Eastern Illinois University's chapter of Alpha Sigma Lambda adult student honorary at a special recognition ceremony.

Alpha Sigma Lambda is dedicated to the advancement of scholarship and recognizes high scholastic achievement in an adult student's academic career.

Through leadership born of effort, both scholastically and fraternally, Alpha Sigma Lambda inspires its candidates to give of their strengths to their fellow students and communities through their academic achievements.

A graduate of Effingham High School, Cunningham is a senior elementary education major at Eastern. She and her husband, Chuck, have four children: Christa, a 1992 Eastern graduate; Scott; Andrea; and Steven. She is the daughter of Arnold and Phyllis Miller of Effingham

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.
