SHURTLEFF 34 E. I. NORMAL 0

Although outplaying the visitors the inexperienced team of E. I. was handed a defeat by the scrappy Shurtleff team 34 to 0. E. I., though outweighed and lacking the experience of the visitors, made a fine showing for the first game of the season, but were unable to put the pigskin over the line. By the time of the next game the team will be in better shape and will be in a condition to put up a better game. All of the Shurtleff touch downs were made through intercepted passes. During the second quarter a Shurtleff man intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. In the first part of the third quarter Shurtleff stopped one of our passes and carried the ball close enough to goal to put it over with a few downs. Later on in this quarter a Shurtleff player caught a pass meant for Fawley, raced 80 yards for a score. Toward the end of this period the opponents took another pass and carried the ball to the 30 yard line; from this point they worked the ball over.

In the final period E. I. dropped a pass into Shurtleff's hands and the runner was downed on the five yard line. An off tackle play made possible the final touchdown.

Most of Shurtleff's gains were made on a play which resembled an end run but the man carrying the ball instead of following the interference cut in off tackle. This play is similar to the one used by Northwestern in defeating Knox College and is a very effective ground gainer.

E. I. was forced to punt five times while Shurtleff booted four. Shurtleff passed seven times, two of which were successful, while E. I. was successful in one out of seven attempts.

The plunging of Edgington and the tackling by Capt. Leathers and Ashby was of such a nature that the fans all agree the next game will be different.

First Quarter

Shurtleff kicked, McNeilly carried ball for 80 yards, E. I. forced to punt. Shurtleff made downs, S. C. man breaks loose but when tackled drops ball. E. I. man falls on it. E. I. is forced to punt, Crowe downs the Shurtleff man where he catches the punt. S. C. makes downs twice in succession, pass fails, passed but no gain, S. C. fails to make downs.

Second Quarter

E. I. punted, S. C. penalized for holding, S. C. punts, pass to Crowe fails, S. C. intercepts pass and runs 50 yards for a touchdown. Crum kicked goal. E. I. kicked, Shurtleff fumbled and E. I. got ball, S. C. penalized 5 yds. off side, Turner makes downs, drop kick by Fawley fails, Shurtleff's ball. Had to punt on fourth down, E. I. off side penalized 5 yards, E. I. forced to punt, S. C. makes downs.

Third Quarter

Freeland receives kick, S. C. intercepts a forward pass and carries ball to the 20 yard line, after making the required 10 yards twice S. C. pulled a fake end run and went over for a touchdown. Crum kicked goal, 14-0. Funkhouser replaced Osborne as guard. E. I. kicked, S. C. fumbled, E. I. man gets the ball. McNeilly received pass from Fawley and ran 15 yards before downed, Crum intercepts a pass and runs 80 yards for a touchdown, Crum kicks goal, 21-0. McNeilly received ball on kick off but was downed after a 20 yard run, E. I. pass falls in the hands of S. C., S. C. makes downs, Capt. Leathers breaks thru and smashes up a forward pass. At the end of the quarter the ball was 8 yards from the goal line and S. C. was in possession.

Fourth Quarter

A fake end run put the ball over, Crum kicked goal, score 28-0. E. I. kicked, S. C. after making the distance twice was forced to punt, Fawley received but was downed after a short run, E. I. forced to punt. S. C. twice failed to pass successfully but on the third attempt they gained enough ground to make their downs. On an off tackle play S. C. carried the ball over, no goal, 34-0. S. C. kicked off, E. I. twice fails to pass, forced to punt. Time called.

PHONOGRAPH WANTED

Late last year the girls of Pemberton Hall decided they wanted a phonograph for the parlors, so they started a fund for its purchase.

This year the idea has taken an early start, and at present there is about $100 in the fund. Various means are used to raise the money, chief among which are the selling of eats and dances.

The girls of the second and third floors have started a contest to see which is able to realize the most money, and this way the fund accumulates faster than a person would expect. On one night of the week, usually after ten o'clock, the third floor girls sell eats or introduce some kind of a stunt, and later on in the week the second floor girls receive their turn. Saturday night the boys made their debut in the contest.

DANCE SATURDAY EVENING

On Saturday evening the boys who eat at the training table at Pemberton Hall entertained the school with a dance, the proceeds of which were turned over to the phonograph fund for Pemberton Hall. Sandwiches and punch were for sale in booths installed in the corners of the gymnasium. Music for the first part of the ball was furnished by a victrola, but an orchestra composed of Marjorie Lynch, Catherine More, Chas. Digby and Oliver McNeilly then entertained.

FACULTY ROASTS WEINERS

Last Monday evening about 30 members of the faculty met at Pemberton Hall, from whence they adjourned to the woods, where they soon dispatched the weiners. Those who attended reported plenty of eats and plenty of amusements.

Lydia Woliung, '14, was married at her home in Mattoon on Wednesday, Sept. 29, to Douglas Faulds of Oak Park. Lois Shortess was bridesmaid. Lydia taught in Oak Park for three years after graduating from our Normal School, and for the past three years has been teaching in the Lincoln School in New York City. They will live in Oak Park.

DRAMATIC CLUB REORGANIZED

Friday evening the Dramatic Club held its first meeting, which was attended by about fifty-five members. The following officers were elected:

Madge Connor, president; Sylvia Ashworth, vice president; Florence McDowell, Secretary. Program committee: Robt Mitchell, chairman; Mr. Widger, faculty member; Meredith Leathers; Lucile Dryden.

This club, directed by Mr. Daniels and Mr. Widger, is one of the foremost of the school. Its purpose is to study some of the best known authors and playwrights and study some of their plays also, presenting some, and encouraging those who have ambitions to become authors. Last year Mr. Daniels was the only one to blossom forth as an author, but this year it is reported that several students are planning to make their debut. At the meeting Friday night plans for the coming year were discussed to a slight extent, and these will be continued at the next meeting. Additional members are desired very much and anyone wishing to join, or to see how the club holds its gatherings, should attend the next meeting when it is announced from the platform.

FIRST APPEARANCE THIS YEAR

During the chapel exercises Saturday morning Mr. Koch and Miss Major favored us with a very delightful duet. Following this Mr. Koch rendered a very appreciative solo, and despite the prolonged applause would not respond with an encore. It is the hope of the student body that these entertainments will come more frequently.

HOME COMING NEXT MONTH

For the convenience of our readers who are in doubt as to when Homecoming is this year, we wish to state that it will be celebrated on the sixth of November. The committee plans to make this a real day and desires the co-operation of all the students. Let every student get behind this and boost. Make this a day never to be forgotten.

The students of the Charleston High School are enjoying a vacation, as the boilers are being repaired and there is no heat. How foresighted the E. I. engineers were, to have everything in readiness for this cold weather.

Mr. Allen has charge of Mr. Lord's classes in the latter's absence.

The Proper Spirit

No student can find any pleasure in school life or in this school unless he has the proper spirit.
If you are glum and grouchy this school is not the place for you and it will better the morale of the students if you pack up and go home. In most all cases it is the grouchy person who is the trouble maker, and trouble makers are not wanted here. This school is not the solemn, no-fun-at-all place that many try to picture it, but there is plenty of 'life' here, if one would only look around.

A good example of a student having the wrong spirit is demonstrated daily at the chapel exercises. A number of students enter the chapel of a morning, a large wad of chewing gum in mouth, pencils stuck in the back of their hair, shop girl fashion, and with a large supply of gossip which they want to unload.
During the religious part of the exercises there is some whispering and giggling and some students even try to prepare a lesson. During the rest of the exercises many are busy preparing lessons, naving social chats, gossiping and making remarks about certain statements the speaker made.

This is entirely the wrong spirit and to make these exercises all they should be, this must be stopped.

The class officers call a meeting of the class and something of importance to the whole class is taken up, discussed and voted upon. Immediately there is a commotion and a howl from some members of the class for they don't agree with the action the class has taken. In most cases these people who do the complaining never attended the meeting and expressed their ideas to the class.

Complaining this way is not showing the proper spirit to your class and to the school and if you wish to have a good opinion of your class and the school, attend all the class exercises and express your opinions. If the majority of the class have a different opinion than you and you can't prove your ideas are better than theirs accept theirs. That's showing the proper spirit.

Only about one-third of the students and faculty showed the proper spirit on Saturday afternoon, by attending the football game. All the students expect a winning team but only about one third of them show up to cheer on the team. It takes more than a team on the field to play a good game and a large and important thing is the cheering. Even if you don't understand the game you can soon learn by watching and asking questions. Come out and let the team know you are backing them. That's the proper spirit.

If in any contest the decision handed down by the official happens to be against E. I. do not threaten the official. That's the wrong spirit.

Instead start encouraging the team and we can assure you the team will do all the fighting that is needed.

A great many cannot appreciate good music, literature and lectures and try to prevent their neighbors from appreciating them by talking, laughing, etc. That's showing the wrong spirit. If you can't appreciate the program appear as if interested, applaud when the entertainer is finished, but most of all don't bother your neighbor. That's showing the proper spirit.

The recreation committee sees that there is something in the way of pastimes every Saturday evening. In most cases it is a dance but for the benefit of those who don't dance a party or entertainment of some kind is given.
These are given for the entertainment of the students and if they don't attend and then complain of life being "dead" they are showing the wrong spirit.

Everybody brace up and show the proper spirit.

POPULARITY INCREASES
"Life" has lost its place as the most sought magazine in the library, and the Atlantic Monthly has taken its place. No, it isn't because the students are getting more serious minded, but because of the humorous articles found. As C. D. says, the writers of those articles must live in a place where they want to know when the prohibition amendment goes into effect.

IS JAZZ MUSIC, OR JUST JAZZ?
In a recent number of Musical America there is an account of a lawsuit between a hotel proprietor and an orchestra director. The hotel man states that he hired the musician to furnish music including jazz, but the director failed to furnish the jazz. The musician claims that he has played for twenty years and that jazz isn't music.

FIRST PEP MEETING A SUCCESS

With school songs led by Miss Major, the first pep meeting of the term was held Friday night before the game. Our cheer leaders next took the platform and fully demonstrated not only their agility, but also their ability, to lead the yells. Mr. Vial was the first member of the faculty to be "picked on," and he responded with a very enthusiastic speech. Upon a little encouragement by the students the following members of the faculty were heard from: Mr. Widger, Mr. Daniels, Miss Molyneaux, Miss Goldman, Miss Heiberg, Miss Stewart and Miss Birdseye. McKinley Turner, a halfback on the team expressed the feelings of the team when backed by an enthusiastic student body.

Miss Madge Connor gave a very interesting address, stating that as the girls were in the majority it was their duty to make the majority of the noise.

Speeches were desired of a number of the football men, but when the time came they were not to be found.

CHEER LEADERS SELECTED

At a mass meeting held Friday morning during the recess period the cheer leaders for the following year were chosen. Sumner Anderson, a veteran of the past year, was reappointed by general consent. Charles Dirby, a former Charleston High School student, and Lee "Knife" Lynch, were elected to fill the vacancies. It is the duty of the cheer leaders to keep the cheering organized, and by doing so, not only prevent sore throats to our enthusiastic fans, but also encourage the team on the field. It is the duty of the students to always cheer fully and willingly respond to any request the leaders may make, for these requests when fulfilled with the proper spirit mean so much to the boys on the field.

GLEE CLUB MEETING

There will be a meeting of all last year's members of the Boys' Glee Club in the music room tonight for the purpose of reorganizing the club. The club was rather late in getting started last year, but it accomplished great things, including the presentation of the much talked of minstre show. This year much more will be accomplished, and the aim set by the director, Miss Major, is very much higher.

U. S. MARINE BAND COMING

The students of the school and the citizens of the community will have the pleasure of listening to one of the best bands in existence today, the United States Marine Corps Band on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 13.

The concert will be held in our auditorium and is given under the auspices of the American Legion. Further information will be published in the next issue.
