ALUMNI BASKETBALL GAME

Two teams of former basketball stars, composed of Steve Turner, Leslie Cook, Hubert McKenzie, Ralph Adams, McKinley Turner and McIntyre (Blues, "Chick" Endsley, Paul Anderson, "Booth" May, Herb Anderson and Marion McMullen (Greys), played an interesting and exciting game Saturday night, the blues coming out on top, 34-22. Every man played in his old-time form. McKenzie racked up 8 baskets while Steve made 4 and Cooky 2. Adams and Turner at guards brought back some remembrances, with their close guarding. Of the other team only "Booth" was able to find the basket consistently. His teammates, particularly "Chick" Endsley and Paul Anderson, were up to old-time guarding. Endsley, former running mate of Earl Anderson, showed flashes of that form which won him such praise several years ago at E. I. Herb Anderson and Marion McMullen had a bad night on shooting and only made one basket apiece.

The school wishes to thank all the players who gave their services toward making the whole affair a decided success.

Practicing for Tournament

The girls' class basketball teams are practicing for the inter-class tournament, which will be held the last week in February, or the first week in March. This year there will be five, possibly six, teams to compete. The games are always very interesting to the student body, and they promise to be even more so this year. For the Freshmen and Sophomores of college, and the Seniors and Juniors of high school, will have remarkably good teams. Miss Stewart is giving all the time that she can to these teams. Practice has started in earnest, competition being unusually keen for the different positions.

A Senior sextette, consisting of Misses Nehrling, Myers, Everett, Lynch, Tate and Laughlin, sang two songs, "Snowflakes," and a dance song, in chapel Saturday morning. It is needless to say that the music was very much enjoyed by everyone.

Thursday our first and second teams will meet the Sparks first and second teams on their floor at Shelbyville.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY

The dramatic society came to life again last Wednesday morning. There were about forty people present at the meeting in room 38. The following officers were elected: president, Alfred Iknayan; secretary, Harriet Tate; Treasurer, Louise Means. Arrangements for a meeting tomorrow (Wednesday) were made. Regular meetings will be held each week on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the reading room. It is hoped that the society will give a play at an early date. For any student who is interested in this kind of thing, the dramatic society will serve as a source of entertainment and instruction. That big element of success, enterprise, is not lacking yet, and must not be allowed to ever disappear, if the students wish this society to be made another permanent school organization. The club, to prosper and grow must have a large membership. Forty members is a good start.

Balcony Lumber Bill Unpaid

The balcony is completed but not entirely paid for. All the bills except for lumber have been paid. This is the largest bill that has been presented to the student council, $374, and they are having some trouble in raising the necessary funds to meet it. Do not desert them. Buy a ticket to the Faculty-Senior college basketball game Tuesday evening. Tickets on sale in the reception room from 1:00 to 1:30 Tuesday.

Student Friendship Campaign

Pledges amounting to two hundred thirty one dollars and forty five cents have been received for Student Relief in Europe.

Faculty pledge	$138.00
Senior College	3.50
Sophomore College	31.00
Freshman College	31.35
Twelfth Year	6.75
Eleventh Year	10.85
Tenth Year	6.40
Ninth Year	2.75
Total	$231.45

The week after our team was defeated by St. Viators at Bourbonnais, 33-22, Normal U. took a trouncing from the same team on the same floor, 51-18. Normal U. defeated us in football, 42-3. Well, what do you say?

Coach Lantz is planning to give the annual athletic show to the chamber of commerce next week.

Music Festival

A new feature of the music festival will be a children's chorus consisting of 800 to 1000 children from the public schools of Charleston and our grade school. This number will add much to the May festival, which already contained the following numbers: Mass chorus of glee clubs from neighboring high schools and our large chorus; operatta by model school; contest between glee clubs of different high schools; between boy soloists and between girlsoloists. To help in making this festival a success, the following talent has been secured: Miss Elsa Diemer, soprano; Miss Frieda Iklinc, contralto; Mr. Eugene F. Dressler, tenor; and Mr. Leo deHierapolis, baritone.

Musical Director Sings

Mr. Moon, who is the musical director of the evangelistic services at the Methodist church, favored the school at chapel Tuesday morning with four songs. The excellence and range of his voice, together with the choice of his selections, secured him generous applause and praise from the students and faculty.

E. I.'s Atchinson Colony

E. I. has reason to be proud of her colony in Atchinson, Kansas. This is one of the most loyal of any of the groups of alumni that we have. The five members, Miss Alice Pittman, Miss Ruth Hedden, Miss Virginia Edman and Mr. Merrill McCabe, sent a check for $17 to help pay for the balcony. Four of the five members are subscribers of the Teachers College News.

Moving Picture Show

On Feb. 21 a moving picture show, entitled "Julius Caesar," will be given at our school. This is a six-reel film, depicting the life of Julius Caesar. The scenes are taken in and around Rome. The picture is a remarkable production, including some magnificent scenery and mob scenes. Admission to students, by entertainment course tickets. Outsiders will be charged a small fee. Another notice will be published later.

Mr. Taylor did not meet his classes the latter part of last week because of the serious illness of his mother.

The strong Mattoon high school team will meet our high school team on our floor Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

FACULTY AND SENIORS TO PLAY

The faculty are going to display their athletic abilities by meeting the Senior college basketball team in a basketball game Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the gymnasium. Anyone that has ever seen Mr. Lantz play is aware of the fact that he is a real basketball player. Mr. Spooner, a member of the basketball squad at Cornell, will be seen in action for the first time on our floor. Mr. Moore, more famous on the track, will appear in a suit. The dark horse of the team is Mr. Marvin. Little is known of his athletic abilities except that he plays tennis and marbles. Rumor says that the Juniors are going to attend the game "en masse" (with bells, tin horns and pans) to see him play. Who the fifth member of the team will be is not known. Mr. Ashley got enough basketball two years ago in the faculty-post-graduate game to last him for the rest of his life. Mr. Crowe says, "I would if I could." However, the faculty still have Mr. Daniels, Mr. Hall and Mr. Allen to choose from, not to say anything of Mr. Modesitt and Mr. Nehrling.

To meet this group of stars, the Senior College class has only Wilson, Prather and Barnes of the varsity squad, and Forester, Stanberry and Hackett. Forester will make a good opponent for Mr. Allen at center. It is a question whether it would be good policy to play him against Mr. Marvin. However, the Senior college class still has Hackett, who can play anything—piano, cards, etc.

The game will be called promptly at 7:30. Admission 25 cents. The proceeds goes to the balcony fund. The faculty are making unusual preparations for this game, and will have a large crowd of rooters who will be ably led by "Laddie" Allen.

Miss Molyneaux celebrated her birthday Sunday by entertaining the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Harryman, Mr. and Mrs. Koch, Miss Baird and Miss Goldman, in honor of Mrs. Koch's sister, Mrs. Louis Viellon, of Astnostry, England.

One coat of paint has been applied to the balcony and banking boards. Several more are to follow, which will brighten up the old gym considerably.

Published weekly by the students of the Eastern Illinois State Teachers' College on each Tuesday during the school year at 511 Jackson St., Charleston, Ill.

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 8, 1916 at the Post Office at Charleston, Ill., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The present school year is rapidly drawing to an end, and we should be looking forward to 1922-23 as being the best year in the history of our school. We want more students, and the only way to get them is to get out and work. There is nothing which puts more life into a school than clean athletics. We want good teams. To have them we need more material. It is true that we have more boys in school this year than we had last year. We have between 50 and 60 men in college, but this is not enough to compete with schools having several times our number. Let us make our mark 100 men in college next fall. Our high school will in a few years help the situation somewhat, as these students should make good material on all our teams.

When speaking to prospective students mention our campus, the prettiest in the middle west; our athletic field, one of the best in the state; Pemberton Hall, an ideal home for girls; our faculty, which compares favorably with those of the larger universities; the spirit of the student body. If these students are thinking of entering school next fall, see that they get the necessary catalogues; and mention the fact that their expenses are small here compared with most schools.

What has become of our school band which we heard so much about in the fall? A school band would add pep and enthusiasm and help the school a lot. Now let's all get together and watch our school grow.

A basketball tournament will be played in this section of the state Mar. 2, 3, 4. We are making an effort to have this tournament played in our gymnasium. If we should be fortunate enough to get the tournament here, it would be a great opportunity for advertising the school. From 20 to 25 high schools will be represented at this tournament, each having about 10 players. In addition to these players, there will be several hundred people here to witness the games. Think it over and see if you cannot help in some way. C. P. LANTZ.

Probably a very few people in school cannot sing. The festival chorus should have at least four hundred voices in it. You owe it to the school to give some time and effort toward making this chorus the best we have had. The student who is unable to get any pleasure from these chorus rehearsals and who finds them nothing but a bore and a waste of time, certainly deserves to be dismissed. However, there are few students who have that attitude.

The rehearsal program is the best yet devised, and with a few exceptions, no student is sacrificing any time or a study hour to attend chorus practice. It is an honor to belong to the chorus. It is an opportunity to have a good deal of pleasure, as well as an opportunity to learn something.

Mr. Widger led chapel Friday and Saturday mornings during the absence of Mr. Lord. Friday he read a selection from Booth Tarkington's book, "The Court of Boyville." Saturday he told the story of Epaminondas and read the poem, "The Cremation of Sam McGee."

It is the plan of the Seniors of the high school to have their commencement exercises with the Seniors of Senior and Junior college. A petition to that effect will probably go before the faculty meeting tonight. The high school Seniors are planning to have a class play also.

Robert Allen, Joe Connelly, Gage Carman (alumni editor of the News), and Zelda Pape, were alumni visitors last week. The mid-term vacation of the University of Illinois gave an opportunity for several E. I. Alumni to visit the old school.

Miss Beulah Tittle, a member of the Junior class of high school, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is now improving and will soon be back in school.

Irl Gobert, who has been ill with a severe attack of pneumonia, is rapidly improving at his home in Oakland. Gobert is expected to be back in school next term. Whether he will be able to play baseball is not yet known.

A dance which about 40 couples attended was held after the basketball game Saturday evening. Many alumni were present. Marjorie Lynch's orchestra furnished the music.

The total receipts from the alumni game were $81.50. Of this amount, $17.50 must be deducted for expenses incurred by the players. Net profits of the game toward the balcony fund were $64.

Paul Osborn, who was ill the first of last week, was able to be back in school the latter part of the week.

District Tournament

The locations of the district tournaments were to have been decided Saturday of last week, but the News staff were unable to obtain any news about where the tournament for this district is to go. All the students are waiting with interest to see if it will be held here. Our H. S. team will compete in this tournament, and this will make it of greater interest to the student body.

Mr. Crowe led chapel Thursday morning during the absence of Mr. Lord. He read some of Theodore Roosevelt's letters to his children.

Coach Lantz has obtained two new basketball games, one with Shurtleff and a double header with Sparks.

E. I. 20, I. N. 33

In a game again marred by the poor shooting of the home team, E. I. was decisively outscored by Indiana Normal, 20-33. While Indiana Normal made 5 out of 8 free throws E. I. made 4 out of 18. The first half was an excellent display of basketball. The score seasawed back and forth, neither team being over 3 points in the lead. Score at half time was 15-13 in favor of the visitors. After the first minute or two of the second half, the Hoosiers were never in danger. The last six or seven minutes, the E. I. outfit missed more than a score of shots, many short ones in a vain attempt to cut down their opponents' lead. Wilson starred for E. I., making 11 out of 20 points. Bratton made the same score for his team, while his teammate Hermling made a total of 12 points. There were several substitutions made during the whole game by both coaches.

Both teams displayed flashes of excellent floor work. While the Indiana team was composed of big rangy, fellows, Dunn and Snyder held their own against their larger opponents. E. I. plays a return game Feb. 18.

E. I. HIGH 39, BROCTON 11

Outplaying their opponents in every phase of the game, E. I. High easily defeated Brocton High Saturday night, 39-11. The first half, Brocton was held to one field goal and one free throw, while Normal High was making 20 points. The third quarter, E. I. used several substitutes. The fourth quarter, the regulars went back in, and ran up the score to 39. Brocton was able to make 8 points the last half. Osborne, Wilson and Hall each made 6 baskets apiece.

The close guarding of Kerr and Haddock combined with Brocton's poor handling of the ball, kept the visitors from making many shots. Coon starred for the visitors, getting three baskets. Brocton made 5 baskets out of 37 shots. E. I. made 18 out of 68.
G. Lynch, first string forward of the home team, was unable to play on account of a recent attack of influenza. James Lynch, star forward of the varsity, refereed the contest in a very satisfactory fashion.

A Discussion on Bobbed Hair

PBO

Believe me, bobbed hair's the thing. That's the third time N—'s taken her hair down. There's more blood in her eye every time. Wow, I'm glad I wasn't in the way of that brush. Poor G—, she sure has my sympathy. No wonder she's got such a temper. Each time she takes down that mop of hair, she sighs; and the worst of it is her sighs are followed by something not quite so mild. That's just one poor, little, pitiful illustration of a perfectly good moral career ruined on the account of long hair. How can she expect to go to heaven when she raves as she does? And it's all the fault of her hair. People won't understand it when some day she's driven to the deepest part of the watery deep. But we "bobbies" will.

ANTI

When one contemplates bobbing her hair, the mental picture is very pleasing. She sees that hair in a fluffy mass, caught with sparkling barettes that gleam most attractively. It is becoming to the last degree,—in fact, one cannot arrange it unbecomingly. But hold one moment. Just how is it that this "crowning glory" is transformed into the "fluffy mass?" You hadn't thought of that, had you? Don't go for information to one who has thus far escaped these trials and tribulations. Go to one that has had the bitter experience. She will tell you the truth—that girl with straight bobbed hair. She will tell you that the public doesn't appreciate her efforts. She curls that hair to transform it, and just ask them if it doesn't transform it? Then as she is at the height of her merriment and has been complimented many times, some one calls, "rain!" The sinking sensation, she experiences is somewhat akin to that one feels at the cry of "fire!" Soon she will be transformed, without the slightest effort on her part.

How oblivious to these things we are before it is cut—but not afterwards.
