ELSA DIEMER GIVES CONCERT

Varied Programme Presented

Miss Elsa Diemer concluded our week of music with her recital, Friday evening, April 30, in the college auditorium with her father, Mr. Frederick Koch, as accompanist. Since her appearance here in April as soloist with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra we have anticipated with pleasure this programme of songs by her alone.

Seldom do we have the satisfaction of hearing such excellent singing. The clarity of tone, the remarkably clear diction, the utmost ease of production, and the beauty of her interpretations were constant sources of delight.

Miss Diemer opened the programme with the Massenet Aria. It is done, it can be seen from Herodiade. This was followed by a well chosen group of French and German songs of which 'All' mein Gedanken' by Strauss was probably most enjoyed by the audience. The 'Bewein' was included in the last group of English songs. This has become such a favorite here that Miss Diemer was urged to repeat it. Mr. Koch, throughout the programme played, as usual, admirable accompaniments.

GIRL'S GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Very pretty to look at and very pretty to listen to—that's the Girl's Glee Club. The concert which they gave last Tuesday night made both these statements very apparent to the rather meager portion of the public that was fortunate enough to be on hand. The programme was delightfully varied, with vocal and piano solos, the Girl's Sextette, the College Trio, and the Glee Club making up the whole.

Solo Very Good

Irmah Towley's two solos and her leading part in the prize song of the evening, "Song of India," proved that her name as a very pleasing soprano deserves to stand. Hyla Ward, while assisting the Sextette in "An Old Melody," quite appreciably added to the quality of the selection. The most pleasing musical surprise of the evening was furnished by Miss Helen Green, a new student from Danville, Indiana, whose two solos, one of them in Italian, distinguished her at once as one of splendid voice

HIGH SCHOOL WINS TWO

Last Monday Gordon Cook's youngsters took a baseball game from Hindsboro High School to the tune of 12-7.

The high school lads are displaying some pretty good baseball. Moody worked on the mound for T. C. Hindsboro did not hit him very freely, but the runs were mostly the results of errors by his teammates.

Best Pick-up Team

On Thursday afternoon the high school booked up nine innings with a motley aggregation from the college and city players. The game was a rather close affair, the high school taking the contest by the count of something like 27-3.

NEW TEACHERS EMPLOYED

On account of the increase in the enrollment it has been necessary to employ four new faculty members.

Mrs. Ashby is teaching Manual Arts, Miss Noretta Callahan is teaching Arithmetic, Miss Mary B. O'Toole is assisting in the Geography department. The Psychology and Education department now has the services of Mr. Dale N. Roberts.

DRIVES BEING REPAIRED

The drives about the campus are being repaired this week. They were becoming very rough. The crushed rock is being plowed up and new rock added. Probably about two carloads of crushed stone will be used to put the driveways in good condition again.

MR. CROWE AWAY

Mr. Crowe went to Fort Wayne, Indiana, Monday, to be with his daughter during an operation for appendicitis. His daughter is in school at Ft. Wayne.

SATURDAY NIGHT DANCE

The new Pemberton Hall Victoria was used for the dance Saturday night because no one seemed to know where the key to the new piano was. Consequently, the dance was not well attended.

quality and much training. The piano solos by Dorothy Baird and Alice Wolters were quite difficult, and the way in which they were played demonstrated great skill.

Sextette Sings

The Girl's Sextette—a part of the Glee Club—sang three numbers, and the well-known College Trio played two. The club itself sang three numbers, two of which deserve special mention. "Song of India," already dear to the musical souls of many at E. I. because of Miss Major and the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, was pushed one notch higher in our estimation by the Girl's Glee Club. Suremly they will find it in their hearts to sing it again so the whole school may get the benefit before "graduation do us part." "Mamma Song," lighter in mood but charming in melody, also merits much commendation.

Such a programme should make the hearers think of the practice and directing behind it all that made it possible.

Mr. Koch, as director, and

Class Day To Be Held On Tuesday

Tuesday, May 4, has been set aside on the school calendar as class day. The freshmen and sophomore classes are bubbling over with pep for the oncoming fray.

The two classes will have charge of the chapel programme on Tuesday morning. After chapel the junior college classes will be dismissed. Probably other classes will be dismissed later in the day.

Time	Event	Score
10:00	Baseball game (boys)	20
11:00	Wheelbarrow race (girls)	15
11:15	Baseball throw (girls)	10
1:30	Tug of war (boys)	25
2:00	Sack race (girls)	15
2:30	Pennant rush (boys)	35
Total		120

7:00 Party given by losers.

The major event of the day is the pennant rush. Each class is determined to win. Already plans of strategic defense and offense have been formulated.

Competent judges will be on hand to see that there is fair play and to determine the winners.

In the baseball game varsity men are not eligible to play.

This is the first thing of its kind here at E. I., but if it is successful, it will be continued in following years.

MUCH TALENT SHOWN IN SPEAKING EVENT

GOOD TRAINING EXHIBITED

Preliminaries for the oratorical contest were held Saturday morning. From the groups of entries three were chosen from each group to go into the finals.

Those who passed the preliminary tryouts and their selections were as follows:

Division I—Speeches
The Call to Arms, George Taubeneck, Marshall.
The War of Righteousness, Nathalie Jenks, Paris.

The New South, Marvin Thompson.
Division II—Dramatic Readings
Arena Scene from Quo Vadis, Naomi Wingfield, Alorton.

The Last Word, Mary Elizabeth Schooley, Granite City.
The Piper, Cora Fredericks, Rankin.
Division III—Humorous Readings
Tommy Stearns Scrubs for Company, Esther Ewald, Arcola.
The Old, Old Story, Edna Lindsay, Granite City.

Penrod's Letter, Edna Vanderbosch, Alorton.

After the finals in the evening the judges awarded the prizes as follows:

Division I—Nathalie Jenks, Paris, first; Marvin Thompson, Granite City, second.
Division II—Naomi Wingfield, Alorton, first; Cora Fredericks, Rankin, second.

Division III—Edna Lindsay, Granite City, first; Esther Ewald, Arcola, second.

As a whole the contest was one of the best ever held here. Each division was excellent in its own way.

Hitherto, there have always been some who were but outstanding among the others, but this year the whole group was outstanding. It was really difficult for the judges to decide who merited first honors.

COLLEGE PRESS MEETING AT CARBONDALE

The annual convention of the Illinois College Press Association is to be held in Carbondale this year on May 8. The programme will begin at nine o'clock in the morning. It will end with a banquet in the evening.

The entire day will be filled with events of interest to the college newspaper heads. The main speaker of the day is to be from Northwestern University.

The Teachers College News will probably be represented by three delegates. This convention is very worthwhile to the college newspaper heads.

Hillsboro scored what was probably the most overwhelming victory ever won at the 17th annual interscholastic meet on Schahrer Field Saturday. With a great array of track men and two good field men, the car-makers ran up a total of 50 points.

The day was perfect and a number of good performances resulted although no track records were broken. The high jump record went into oblivion when Friesel of Hillsboro sailed over the bar at 5 feet 9 inches. The former record of 5 feet 8½ inches was made by Wieman of Atwood in 1920. The high jump event was a close and interesting event for all of the men who placed were jumpers of more than average ability. C. Kander of Sadorus hurt his chances of placing higher in the leaping event by running in the relay race just as the jumping was getting difficult.

On the track the 50 yard dash record was equalled twice. Harper of Casey stepped out from the competitors in his trial heat and was clicked in record time. Hill of T. C. High galloped down the stretch after getting a perfect start and equalled the record time of 5-5-5 seconds.

F. I. won her first ball game on Schahrer Field last Friday afternoon at the expense of Normal U. The count was 4-2. The whole team deserves credit, not excluding Honn, who pitched a good game. He was just a bit shaky in the third inning and some faulty support in the sixth let in two runs. Otherwise the E. I. outpaw was in great form and returned the Normal batters in convincing style.

E. I. showed that she was on the road to her initial victory by scoring a run in the second inning. Rhiney doubled to right field and stole third. Honn scored him with a one base knock through the infield. Further Blue and Gray disturbance was quelled when the Normal team executed a fast double play.

Normal threatened in the third as mentioned before. Myers singled and was sacrificed to second. Honn missed an infield fly although the high wind made it a hard chance. In this crisis, Allen drove a low liner to right center for what looked like a hit, but Gilmore raced over and snagged the ball for the third out.

E. I. Hits 'em Hard

In the home half of the fourth Gilmore opened with a home run clout over the track in left field. Adams promptly lined a three bagger to right center. Rhiney singled over third and Adams sauntered home.

Normal scored two in the sixth. Barr was safe on Rhiney's error. Young singled and when Gilmore let the ball seep through his paws, Barr pulled up at third. Barr spiked the counting pan on a selder's choice. Strange executed a monosack and Young galloped home. The rally ended when Patton forced Strange at second.

In the half-mile event, Savage of Hillsboro breasted Miller of T. C. to the tape and tied the track record of 2:07. In the 220 yard dash McCarty of St. Joseph came in in 28 flat which lacked 1-5 of a second of tying the track record for the furlong.

The mile relay race was a dual between Hillsboro and T. C. The Hillsboro team won by a few yards in 3 min. 45.3 sec.

The meet was conducted on schedule and no complaints were registered by any of the coaches.

A summary of the events follows:

1-15—Hammer Throw
Wilson, Chrisman, first; Loop, Chrisman, second; Corbin, Charleston, third; Summers, Charleston, fourth. Distance, 129 ft. 7 in. The record established in '17, is 159 ft.

First 400-Yard Dash
Bradley, Charleston, first; Seward, Hillsboro, second; Stewart, Marshall, third; Henderson, Emingham, fourth. Time 54 1-5 sec.

Second 400-Yard Dash
Dike, Hillsboro, first; Rush, St. Joseph, second; Iknyan, T. C., third; Johnson, Marshall, fourth. Time, 65 1-5 sec.

Half-Mile Run
Savage, Hillsboro, first; Miller, T. C., second; Smith, Hillsboro, third; Marz, Shelbyville, fourth. Time 2 min 7 sec. The record set by Grant-ham of Hillsboro in 1923 was equalled by Savage of the same town today when Miller of Teachers College made a desperate attempt to win.

1-15—50-Yard Dash
Harper, Casey, first; McCarty, St. Joseph, second; Rawlings, Sadorus, third; Ewing, Casey, fourth. Time, 7-10 sec.

Javelin Throw
Rider, Westfield, first; Orves, Hillsboro, second; Ray, Teachers College, third; Wilson, Chrisman, fourth. Distance, 151 ft. 8 in.

Varsity Wins From Normal U.

Honn Pitches Good Game

E. I. scored a run in the seventh when Smith singled and scored on Harrison's single coupled with the third baseman's error.

The rest of the game went to the satisfaction of the E. I. fans for Normal did not threaten any more. Smith and Rhiney were the consistent hitters for E. I., each alarming out 2 hits. Despite the total of nine errors the game only took one hour and forty minutes which is good for a college team.

SAVE A LIFE

This last week so many new students have enrolled that seating the student body for chapel has become a rather serious problem. Practical every seat is taken even though some of the children are never permitted to attend the exercises. Visitors, too, find it rather hard to get a seat at chapel time.

This sudden increase in chapel attendance brings to the front the serious nature of one or two practices hardly noticeable before. The first of these is the habit of attempting to get seats in the back of the room. However, this seems not to bother so much as another practice; namely, that of saving seats for friends. It is this system of seat saving that we wish to discuss.

A student, coming late from a detention, arrives in chapel to find the room full. He, believing the faculty and the non-sympathetic crowd, walks to the back of the room, and sees a vacant seat in the middle of the third row. He heaves a huge sigh of relief and stumbles through the row just as the last chord of Mr. Koch's prelude dies away. The student reaches the seat only to see a dainty girl stretched across it and a sweet voice says, "I'm saving this for Mary." Then comes the long march down the front with everything quiet as a mouse and a thousand eyes centered on one place, the most terrible place for the lonely one traveling toward the front. "To one who has a weak heart, this situation would undoubtedly prove fatal."

Well, a lot of us know just how that sort of thing "feels" so let us allow Mary to find her seat and let the early bird catch the worm.

CLASS SPIRIT

There is always some sort of competition between any two rival classes. It is only human nature that one should seek to surpass the other in knowledge, skills, money, or some other thing which is desirable to each of the contenders.

So it is with college classes. The members of one class are continually striving to surpass the other class in any way that is possible. Under such circumstances it would seem that at times the strife would be so great that the whole body (the college) would suffer. Rivalry has been carried to such an extent in former years that the entire school has suffered. Classes are dull and dreary and everyone is sleepy after a night's adventure against the opposing classmen.

This year a new plan has been adopted through which the keen spirit of rivalry may be shown. As everyone knows, a day has been set aside for class contests. These events will be tests of skill, strength, and speed.

Music week is past, but it has left something with us that is very lasting.

There are memories—memories of things that we would not forget.

The big field meet, too, is over. Yet, it has been very thrilling. Many students have become acquainted with our school who probably never have known us had it not been for the meet.

Let us hope that we, have made some lasting friends among the visitors.

Our baseball team proved its real worth Friday afternoon. The men showed that they could play ball after a poor season's start.

As is always the case with any change, there have been a few who objected to the new plan. It has been said that no true class spirit can be developed in such an affair. Can it? If both classes set their hearts and minds on winning, there will be a spirit present which could not be surpassed. If conducted properly, the enthusiasm of the rivals will practically know no bounds.

Then after the battle there is always the outburst of pent-up joy from the victors. This takes the form of decorating the assembly room after the contest. This privilege, conceded to the victors, is thought by those who decorate to be the peak of the events. So it is. But without competition the decorations can be made more beautiful and everything will be better enjoyed by all.

By such an arrangement all is fair and above-board and there is no malice in the hearts of anyone. It is up to the present freshman and sophomore classes to put the thing across. Let's Make it go, classmen!

MUSIC FOR DANCES

Last Saturday night when it came time for the dance, there was no music to be had. Yes, there was an orchestra—at least, a part of one. But the piano was missing.

A new piano has been purchased for the gymnasium. This was a much needed piece of equipment, and its arrival was gladly welcomed. Not only was a new piano put into the gym, but also a nice case was built in against the west wall under the stairway, in which the new instrument should be placed. Furthermore, this case was equipped with a lock.

The orchestra tuned up and got ready to play—but where was the piano? In the case, of course, and the case was locked. No one could be found who had a key.

The players tried one or two pieces without the piano, but gave up. Couples stood about, anxiously waiting. After about an hour of waiting most of them left. Then the new Orthophonic Victrola was brought out of Pemberton Hall. But who could dance to that music? With about fifteen couples on the floor no music could be heard. All in all, the dance was one grand failure.

Would it not be possible to avert any such difficulties? At least it seems that the key should be made available if any use is to be made of the new piano. To make the matter still worse there was a number of E. I. graduates present, who had come to enjoy themselves. They were doomed to disappointment.

If the dances at school are to keep the students at school, there must be music. Otherwise, the students will go to up-town dances, as many did Saturday night.

The fellows are worthy of our support, and we should give it to them.

Class day will bring out all the spirit and pep that is available from the student body.

The freshmen are very confident that they will carry off the honors Tuesday.

The sophs are equally certain that they will vanquish the underclassmen.

With such determination in heart the affair will certainly be successful.

Let's establish something that will go down in E. I.'s history!

BOOKS & THINGS

The last number of American Speech contains an article "Movie Jargon" by Terry Ramsay. This article gives a hint as to how much the "movies" affect our speech. The author tells how many of the terms relating to the "movies" have originated, and gives a suggestion in regard to the somewhat pernicious effect these may have upon speech. An interesting discussion!

Highly amusing, as well as helpful is another discussion in American Speech. This one is "Our Agile American Accents." The author has illustrated his points by a number of words whose accent is commonly misplaced, and later has suggested a solution of the knotty problem of accents.

"The Rising of the Moon" by Lady Gregory is a delightful comedy. The plot centers around an outlaw, a good one, who makes his escape from under the very noses of the stupid police. This outlaw is represented by a very ragged man, who is a happy vagabond.

The characters are well differentiated. Their dialogue is suited to each, and is effective.

The atmosphere is one of mystery—delightfully added by the moonlight, the lapping of the waves, and the haunting charm of the ragged man.

This little play needs no recommendation or advertisement. It speaks for itself. Let it charm you for a magic half-hour.

MANUAL ARTS NOTES

The garage that is being built by the carpentry class for Mr. Allen is rapidly assuming the appearance of a car house. At present it is being shingled. Before being applied, the shingles were dipped in creosote. This preparation gives the roof a color and makes it much more lasting.

Project Nearing Completion
The projects of the class in Manual Arts 37, machine woodwork, are being completed. A few pieces of furniture are almost done. Others will require until the end of school to finish.

Class in Machine Room

Because of a new mid-spring class in manual arts conducted by Mrs. Ashley, it was necessary for the class in methods, Manual Arts 23, to be held in the machine room. This crowded condition further illustrates the need for a new building.

SOCIAL NOTES

ATTEND SCIENCE MEETING

Mr. Stover and Mr. Haefner attended the annual meeting of the Illinois Academy of Science, which was held on Friday and Saturday of last week at Harrisburg. Dr. Stuart Weller of the University of Chicago, president of the Academy, delivered a scholarly paper on the geology of southern Illinois. Dr. Weller is a brother of Miss Annie Weller of our Geography department.

MR. WIDGER SPEAKS

Mr. Widger delivered a commencement address at Flat Rock on Thursday evening. On Friday he presented a paper before one of the sectional meetings of the Illinois Academy of Science at Harrisburg.

Mr. Robert Allen of Evanston spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fiske Allen.

Miss Jo Frances Tiffin was the guest of honor at a dinner party given at Pemberton Hall, Saturday evening. The guests were: Miss Molyneux, Miss Case, Mr. Hughes, Kathryn Sellers, Hyla Ward, Sareta Brown, Irma Townley, and Elsie Kirsten. After dinner Miss Tiffin sang.

COMMENCEMENT PLAY

The uproarious comedy, "A Full House" which is to be a feature of Commencement week swings into full rehearsal this month. A galaxy of star performers composes the cast of fourteen, which will tread the boards the night of June 1, the presentation date. The director has refused to divulge any news of importance, but a special reporter of The News has been assigned to cover the rehearsals, which are secret. He has risked life and limb, scaling the steep walls of the building to peep through the windows of the music room; concealing a microphone under the desk in the agriculture room, and lying prone on the great roof beams of the gymnasium to see and overhear.

It is with pride in the consciousness of its service to its many readers, then that The News announce at this time that "A Full House" offers among other spectacles, that of a thug, a second story man who has stolen a ruby necklace, and exchanged it, and the suit case containing it, for the travelling bag of a lawyer. The exchange was not intentional, needless to say, but was due to a train wreck. Our thug is not daunted by the mishap, but pursues the necklace to the lawyer's apartment. There he meets Susie the maid, and trouble. The trouble has arrived before him, and it increases.

In a future issue the play will be described at greater length, and our special reporter has been given an unlimited expense account with which to secure interviews with some of the players themselves.

500 ATHLETES ENTER MATTOON TRACK MEET

The first Annual Track and Field Meet held under the auspices of the Illinois High School Athletic Association for Eastern Illinois is to be held at Mattoon on May 8th.

This district embraces ten counties, Moultrie, Douglas, Edgar, Clark, Cumberland, Shelby, Elmhurst, Fayette, Jasper and Coles. Over half of the sixty high schools in this district have already sent their entries in to Mattoon and indications are that at least 500 athletes will take part in the events.

Beautiful Peterson Park at Mattoon, due to its excellent facilities in the way of a track and its seating capacity for several thousand spectators, has been chosen for the contests.

Mattoon is making preparations to entertain about 5000 visitors on that day and competent committees have the program in charge. Every effort is being made to put over the biggest Track Meet in this section of Illinois. Winners of First and Second places will be eligible for the State High School Meet. Individual prizes are to be awarded the contestants, there being prizes for five places in each event.

MID-SPRING ENROLLMENT 152

The mid-spring term students registered at Mattoy April 26. The total enrollment on Tuesday was 152 which is five more than last year at the corresponding time. The increase has been apparent everywhere about the building. The corridors, the stairways, and the auditorium are crowded. The seating difficulties has been somewhat alleviated by excusing the children in the first four grades from chapel exercises. Next week, however, will bring better conditions in the auditorium as the members of the faculty will be allowed to return to their accustomed places. Preparations for the mass choruses made it necessary that the faculty be seated among the students.

Ernest Stevenson was chosen as captain for the tug-of-war team. The class elected Harry Jackson captain of the sophomores for the flag rush. A notice was read concerning the ordering of caps and gowns.

SCHOOL MUSICIANS SHOW TALENT

all in the club as directed, deserve the thanks of the school. Altogether it was a very fitting opener for "Music Week."

CHILDREN'S CONCERT

The concert given by the pupils of the public schools and those of the Training School on Wednesday evening was as enjoyable as any performance of the week. In an array of colors hardly rivaled by the college girls, the five hundred children, seated on the platform, presented a brilliant spectacle.
The programme was varied with mass choruses, groups of songs by the public school chorus, a group by the training school chorus, and a delightful duet by Jean Widger and James Heinlein.
The entire assembly room was packed with a crowd that enjoyed and heartily cheered every number. Miss Cheney, public school music teacher, and Miss Major are certainly to be congratulated upon the success of the concert which was due almost wholly to their efforts.

The college chorus gave its annual concert on Thursday evening, April 29. The numbers on the programme were songs that most of the audience were acquainted with, and which really made them more pleasing. The combined chorus was composed of about 250 students and they showed the results of the fine leadership of Mr. Koch and Miss Ruth Major.
Negro Songs Please
The chorus did very well in all the numbers, but the "Negro Spirituals" and "Dixie" received more applause than any other parts. The last number, "Unfold Ye Portals," was also very well done. The first group "My Native Land" and "Night" were excellent but did not receive as much applause as the others.
The men's chorus and glee club were very well received. The glee club did exceptionally well in their part of the programme. The numbers which they sang were "O Lord Most Holy" and "The Builder."
The girls' chorus sang "Welcome Sweet Spring." The girls' glee club then sang "Omnipotence" by Schubert and the "Mammy Song." The "Mammy Song" was very much better than the first and was well received.
The orchestra assisted through the whole concert, and toward the last of the concert gave three selections. The first "Overture Mireille" by Gounod and the "Ballet Music from Rossini" by Schubert were very good.

Miss Jo Frances Tiffin was the guest of Miss Kathryn Sellers over the week end. Miss Tiffin graduated from a four-year course at E. I. in 1925. She is teaching English in the Hillsboro High School this year.
