Absences

As a college student you will be expected to attend every class. I will allow three absences, for any reason, without hurting your grade (other than in-class assignments you will have missed). Absences beyond three will affect your grade. I do not need or want excuses for these three absences. If you know in advance that you will be missing class, and that these three absences will not be enough, you should see me during office hours. Every absence after three will reduce your overall grade by 5 percent.

I take attendance at the beginning of class. If you come in late and I have already taken attendance, you will be marked absent.

If you miss class, do not E-mail or call me to ask what you missed. Get in contact with one of your classmates to find out what you missed.

Attendance means more than simply showing up for class. Your participation and attendance points account for a full ten percent of your grade. In earning this ten percent, I expect that you will come prepared for class, and ready to participate.

I do not, however, want students showing up to class if they are ill. Use your own judgment. We are still dealing with Covid. If you are quarantined, let me know so that we can work out alternatives for attendance.

Plagiarism

The English Department Statement on Plagiarism: Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's own original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignments of a grade of F for the assigned essay and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Office of Student Standards. Respect for the work of others should encompass all formats, including print, electronic, and oral sources.

I will not tolerate copying or cheating in this class. If I catch you plagiarizing, I am obligated to report you to the Office of Student Standards. It will certainly result in a failing grade in this class. We will be discussing plagiarism in depth during this class. Each of you will have a thorough understanding of what plagiarism is and how to avoid doing it.

Academic integrity

Students are expected to maintain principles of academic integrity and conduct as defined in EIU's Code of Conduct (<http://www.eiu.edu/judicial/studentconductcode.php>). Violations will be reported to the Office of Student Standards.

Students with disabilities

If you are a student with a documented disability in need of accommodations to fully participate in this class, please contact the Office of Student Disability Services (OSDS). All accommodations must be approved through OSDS. Please call 217-581-6583 to make an appointment.

The Student Success Center

Students who are having difficulty achieving their academic goals are encouraged to contact the Student Success Center (www.eiu.edu/~success) for assistance with time management, test taking, note taking, avoiding procrastination, setting goals, and other skills to support academic achievement. The Student Success Center provides individualized consultations. To make an appointment, call 217-581-6696, or go to McAfee, Room 1301.

Early Alert System

EIU has an early alert system. This means that if I notice you struggling in this course, I will try to contact you personally. If I don't hear back from you, I will use this early alert system. This system will try to contact you through your RA or through someone from the Academic Success Center. This system is designed to help you and is not intended to be punishment.

Grades

Percentage break down:

Participation/attendance= 10%
Quizzes in class assignments = 10%
1st Essay = 20%
2nd Essay = 20%
Research paper = 30%
Final Exam = 10%

Late Assignments

Assignments will be accepted late, but at a penalty to your grade. All assignments have due dates. All assignments that show up after the due date will be graded as late. Late assignments will lose 10% of the grade value. You will lose an additional 10% for every class period the assignment is late until the grade is a zero.

Assignments

All written assignments will be turned in to D2L, in the appropriate drop box. This is the only place I will grade them, and they need to be in Word format. (Pdf, and other word processing files should be converted to Word before uploading). I do not accept papers through email. All assignments should meet the minimum requirements. Do not submit assignments that are not full length or do not include the required sources. I will not grade incomplete assignments.

I will be using D2L for this class, and all assignments and readings will be posted there. It is possible to set up D2L so that it reminds you of assignments but failing to do this is not an excuse for not getting the assignments done. Make sure that you check into D2L at least once or twice a week to see if anything has changed there.

Conferences

Paper writing is stressful. I prefer to talk about issues with paper writing in person, but that may not be an easy option this semester. If you have concerns, questions, or just want to vent about a paper assignment, you will have to contact me through email.

Questions

I check my email several times a day, and I will be checking D2L regularly. If I do not reply to your questions immediately, please be patient. I do have obligations outside of this class, and sometimes I simply need more time. Allow time for me to reply and ask questions early rather than at the last minute. If my reply arrives so late that it keeps you from completing an assignment on time, you are welcome to ask for an extension.

If for some reason you think that I missed seeing your email, email me again. I will not be offended by the reminder if you have not heard from me in a normal amount of time.

Please use Panthermail for emails and not D2L. I check my email often but can only reply to emails in Panthermail using my phone. Emails through D2L require me to be at my desk and get much slower replies.

Electronic Writing Portfolio (EWP)

Submissions from 1001 and 1002 are encouraged. Any of the three essays you will write for this class should meet the EWP requirements. I would recommend submitting the final essay, but the portfolio is yours and you must decide what to submit. If you have questions about your essays and submitting to EWP, please let me know.

Covid-19 Information

COVID-19 Practices & Expectations on EIU's Campus.

The University is asking all of us to take precautions to prevent the spread of COVID-19. EIU's policy is intended to protect all of us on campus, as well as the community, your roommates, and loved ones at home. All students, regardless of vaccination status, are required to wear face coverings during class. Students may sit in any classroom seat where they are most comfortable. All reasonable efforts will be made to provide modifications to classroom seating arrangements if needed; however, this may not be possible in all situations. Students should not attend class if they are ill and should consult the student health clinic if they have any COVID-19-like symptoms. EIU's COVID-19 campus practices including face coverings, when and where required, avoiding campus if sick, sanitizing surfaces, social distancing, and hand washing all of which are based on the best available public health guidance. Everyone in the campus community is responsible for following practices that reduce risk. If you have a health condition that may require a potential classroom accommodation or variation from current EIU COVID-19 policy, please contact Student Disability Services (studentdisability@eiu.edu or 581-6583) to determine what options may be available based on current CDC guidance. If you are unable to follow EIU's COVID-19 guidelines, you may be asked to leave class or office hours as compliance with public health guidance is essential. Accommodations for instruction and make-up work will be made for students with documented medical absences according to IGP #43 [<https://castle.eiu.edu/auditing/043.php>]. To view the latest EIU COVID-19 related information and any policy updates, please visit <https://www.eiu.edu/covid/>.
