EIU Sessions to Aid Hearing Aid Users in Getting Maximum Benefits

Jan-07-2008

The Department of Communication Disorders and Sciences will again offer sessions for individuals who are considering hearing aids or for those who already own hearing aids and would like to maximize their benefit.

Sessions will focus on understanding and coping with hearing loss, and provide good communication skills and strategies.

Participants will attend a series of four sessions, with each session meeting from 11 a.m. to noon on consecutive Fridays on the second floor of Eastern's Human Services Center. Three series of sessions are planned: Jan. 18 and 25, Feb. 1 and 8; Feb. 22 and 29, March 7 and 28; and April 4, 11, 18 and 25.

The registration cost for each series is $20. Spouses, family members and friends are also invited to attend, at no additional charge.

To register, please call 217-581-2712 or email Linda Huddlestun at ldhuddlestun@eiu.edu. Detailed information regarding parking passes and a campus map will be sent after registration is finalized.
