PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE STUDENTS OF THE EASTERN ILLINOIS STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

VOL. 6

CHARLESTON, ILLINOIS, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1920

NO. 3

TEACHERS ARE COMING

On Friday and Saturday of this week will be held the 23d annual meeting of the Eastern division of the Illinois Teachers Association at the E. I. Normal.

Last year the attendance was about 1600, but it is expected to be very much larger this year. Every one who can should attend these exercises for not only will they be instructive but very entertaining. Many prominent men in educational circles have been secured for addresses and some of these are of special importance to the students of this school.

Members of the delegation to the Des Moines conference last January in their reports stated that one of the two best speakers there was a Bishop McConnell of Denver. Bishop McConnell, who is an authority on the Mexican situation will be here to address the teachers on Friday evening. Mr. Richard Burton of the University of Minnesota is another prominent man. Some of his books may be secured from the school library.

Francis W. Shepardson, the director of Department of Education of the State of Illinois is one who should interest the Normal School students, for his position makes him the head of the Normal school board.

Francis G. Blair, the State Superintendent of public instruction who makes several addresses is another one of interest for he is a former member of our faculty. The program is as follows:

-ANOTHER WEINER ROAST

Last Monday evening, the Juniors enjoyed themselves at a weiner roast held south of town. Upon their return several boys of the other classes proceeded to pour the few remaining drops of water in the lake upon them, but all Juniors that have made statements claim they had a very pleasant evening.

The Senior boys implore Miss Major to supply song books for all Juniors, as several of the Junior boys were singing the words of the 25th hymn to an unknown tune.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

At a meeting of the Students Council in the reception room on Friday afternoon several matters of importance were discussed. At this meeting the council decided to give a lesson in parliamentary procedure in class meetings. This instruction will be given in Miss Skeffington's room at 3:10 on next Wednesday afternoon. All students who are discouraged as to how their class meetings are held should by all means attend this meeting.

The Council is also planning for some sort of entertainment which will come later in the year. The proceeds to go to the council fund.

At last we have discovered where the money from the minstrel show went. The Council has it $140. At this meeting $10 was appropriated to buy song books for the Boys' Glee Club. This ought to be quite an encouragement for the boys in the Glee Club.

Y. W. C. A. MEETS

The weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held Friday evening in the parlor of Pemberton Hall. Pauline Ashworth led the devotions, Catherine Lytle read an interesting article entitled "A Girl's Courage" and Virginia Goodman rendered a piano solo. Not only are the girl students and female members of the faculty urged to join the organization but are cordially invited to attend the meetings.

The girls who pass up the chance to join this organization are passing up a great thing. The weekly meetings are very interesting for not only does one have a chance to hear good readings and recitations but also some good musical selections. This club helps further your acquaintance with fellow students and develops a better friendship. If you haven't joined why not sign up at once?

Verne Barnes is the possessor of a baseball which any man, boy, or even some women, would be very proud to own. It is the one which "Babe" Ruth hit in Cleveland when he knocked his fiftieth home run. "Brick" Owens, an umpire who officiated the game, presented the ball to a Mr. McMorris, a former Charleston resident, who at present is employed at the Statler Hotel in Cleveland, and he in turn presented it to the Charleston chamber of commerce to be raffled off. Verne was the lucky bidder.

NORMAL SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT COURSE 1920-21

Instead of securing voluntary subscriptions to the entertainment course this year the recreation committee made it compulsory, and as a result the price of the season tickets was reduced and a better program was arranged. The following programs were arranged by the committee in charge:

First number—A trio from the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, consisting of a harpist, a flutist and a violinist. Probable date, Nov. 5, the Friday night before homecoming; if not on Nov. 5, on some date during the first term.

Second number—A travelogue in color on Alaska by Edgar C. Kaine, Thursday, Dec. 16.

Third number—Coffer-Miller players in Shakespeare's "As You Like It," Jan. 14, 1921.

Fourth and fifth numbers—Mr. Seumas MacManus, an Irish story teller. Mr. MacManus will give an afternoon and an evening entertainment, consisting of stories of Irish wit and humor, and of Irish fairy- and folk-tales.

Sixth number—Probably the Flonzaley Quartet of stringed instruments. Probable date, Mar. 30, 1921. This quartet alone will cost $500.

A fee of 75 cents a term has been assessed on all students above the eighth grade to support the course. Members of the faculty will pay $2.25 for a season ticket as will all outsiders.

There will be no reserved seats this year.

AT LEAST IT HAPPENED

The Seniors went on a weiner roast last night, and as usual everyone enjoyed a very pleasant evening. It was rumored that a number of Juniors were planning on accompanying the Seniors, but the rumor was untrue. The Juniors preceded them. Better luck next time, Juniors.

MARINE BAND WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday afternoon the U. S. Marine Corps Band will give an excellent program in the auditorium under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion. One does not often have a chance to hear such a musical treat, and he should not pass this up.

SUPPORT YOUR TEAM

Our football team will be out at Schahrer field on Friday afternoon to defeat Lincoln—not merely to beat them, if we can, but to send them home humiliated. Every member of the squad had to fight to get his position, and he is not sure of it, for there are a number of the seconds waiting for the chance to be a regular. We have a good team, but it isn't the best we could put forth. Why? Because a number of husky fellows who could be used to a great advantage and are needed, prefer to "loaf," not having the proper spirit.

Recalling to mind our editorial of last week, we make a statement to the effect that if a student is enrolled in this school and does not enter into the school spirit, it would be better not only for himself but for the school also if he should depart.

Some of the squad have had some football experience, while others, though new to the game, are learning rapidly. These fellows are out every night, no matter what the weather may be, or what fun they may be missing, and are taking their injuries cheerfully. What does a sprained wrist or ankle, or a stiff joint, or a slight bruise or cut, mean to them, when it spells defeat to some rival school and increases the athletic rating of our school. These fellows have the proper spirit and should be given credit for it by fellow students and the faculty. Many a player goes out to practice when he knows he should stay in and study a lesson, and as a result goes to recitation with a half-prepared lesson.

Our team needs to scrimmage every night, and for this they need a strong team against them. The strength of this team can be increased if a few of the so-called slackers would only come out. Not only the varsity, but all members of the school who have the proper spirit, soon lose all respect for the slackers. Everyone will admit that those who are physically unable, or are working to help defray expenses, or are carrying extra school work, are exempted from donning a football suit. But how about these men who do not come under any of the above classifications named?

What should be done with them?

What is your estimation of a man who is healthy and large enough to make the varsity who gets exempted from physical education on account of physical disability, and yet every night is able to play tennis? Or of another who is carrying so many studies, and yet finds time to loaf around, either up town, in the assembly room, or on the campus, during the time football practice is going on? What do you think of such?

Football is not compulsory, but we endeavor to put forth a team every year. This year we have the makings of a good team, but they need practice and to give them that we need more material. A great many who are eligible are not out for the simple reason that they have never played before. That does not matter, for if a person is normally bright he can soon learn. Football is not a difficult game to understand today. It is a game of skill, science and speed. The team and the whole school are at present watching those who are not yet out and who have nothing to prevent their appearance.

E. I. wants a winning team, and needs your support. Do your bit.

Don't you forget that on Friday afternoon the Lincoln College team will be here to avenge its defeat of last year and is going to put up a hard fight. Our team the containing a number of crippled players is going to fight hard. Are the rest of the students going to stand back and let the team do it all? Come out and boost, and bring a visitor with you.

MYSTERY SOLVED

We have often wondered why it was that only a small part of the student body attended the football games, but it was not until a member of the faculty told us that we knew. It is because they don't understand the game. Is this true? Why? Perhaps the reason you don't attend? If it is, let us say that you never will learn by staying away from the game or keeping still. Go out to the game, watch each play, do a little reasoning, and ask questions about anything you do not understand.
Anyone who understands the game will be glad to answer any question you may ask him. Perhaps it could be arranged so that someone or several could have a class or address the students upon this subject. Anyway, attend the games and cheer on the boys.

LINCOLN VS. E. I.

On Friday afternoon at Schahr-er field the E. I. team will meet the strong Lincoln team. Lincoln has a strong team and intends to avenge its defeat, but members of the E. I. team claim that the victory will be E. I.'s.
A number of the team are on the injured list, but all will be back by Friday afternoon. The team needs the support of the student body, and wishes everyone to see the game.

CLASS MEETINGS

Thru the efforts of the student council the classes are permitted to hold business meetings every other Wednesday during the time usually devoted to chapel exercises.

Miss Miles delighted the school delightful solo.
