E. I. N. S. DEFEATS ILL. WESLEYAN

Friday Afternoon In First Conference Game of Season at Home

Normal 7, Ill. Wesleyan 6.

The best foot ball game of the season was played on the Normal school field last Friday, when the strong team from Illinois Wesleyan met the Blue and the Gray. The game was hard fought from start to finish, and was witnessed by a large crowd.

The game started with Wesleyan defending the south goal and kicking to Steve Turner who returned the ball to the 35 yard line.

Line plunges by Edgington and Hawkins failed to make the required number of yards. Normal punted to Hurst. The Methodists failing on line plunges, tried a forward pass but lost the ball when Moran intercepted the ball. Line plunges by Waible and Edgington gained considerable. A forward pass, Markle to Hawkins, netted a gain of twenty yards for the Teachers and placed the ball within striking distance of the visitor's goal. Within five minutes after the whistle blew, Waible carried the ball across for the only touchdown made by Lantz's men, and Hampton kicked goal.

Wesleyan kicked off, and misjudging Moran's capacity to grasp a flying situation, tried to kick over his head. Here Moran fooled the visitors, grasped the flying ball and wobbled down the field for a short gain. End runs by Hawkins and line plunges by Waible made small gains, it being left to Edgington to make the downs on off tackle plays. Everything seemed to be going fine when Normal received a number of fines setting them back until forced to kick. The first quarter ended with the ball on the half way line in possession of the Teachers.

Play during the second quarter showed that Wesleyan could fight and they held like a wall. Time and again the ball was kicked over the goal line and forward passes to Turner and Hawkins gained ground, but lack of team work was responsible for us not scoring in this quarter. The visitors did not gain much on the forward pass, losing the ball when the Normal backs intercepted the pass and making gains. The third quarter proved the best one for Wesleyan who scored on a long end run by Kumbler. Wesleyan failed to tie the score only because they failed to kick out.

The fourth quarter was hard fought neither side gaining much ground, the score to the end remaining 7 to 6.

Edgington, though only weighing 125 pounds, proved a literal bar of soap, sliding and edging his way between big huskies of the Wesleyan team. Waible and M. Turner played a good game, each proving his ability as a line plunger. Steve Turner as usual was in the thickest of the fight, tackling his man with precision and carrying the ball surely and swiftly. To quarter back Hampton is due a great deal of credit, who in spite of an injured shoulder, managed the team with good judgment and kicked goal as easily as a veteran. Captain Schahrer played a good game, tackling hard, and proved his worth in his new position at end until forced to retire from the game with an injured arm.

As always our line proved very strong, though Highsmith, Markle and Moran because of their weight and experience showed up well. Moran lived up to his reputation as a "bear."

Talbot, Jones, Hood, Fitch and Kelley also played well.

The lineups were as follows:

Normal	Wesleyan
Jones r g	Thomas
Hood l g	Best
Markle l t	Mills
Highsmith r t	Taylor
Moran c	Eagleston
S. Turner r h	Ward
Hawkins l h	Kumler
Waible f b	Prather
Schahrer r e	McFarland
Fitch l e	Whitesell
Hampton q	Hurst

HOME COMING NOVEMBER 11

Everybody is getting interested in the home coming this year. Besides the morning programme and the afternoon foot ball game and the evening party, we are going to have all kinds of entertaining affairs. An automobile parade at one o'clock will be particularly festive. It will terminate at the athletic field, and here during the foot ball game will be staged a variety of stunts. The model school is preparing some surprises, the boys of the normal school are arranging others, and the girls, under the direction of Miss Niles and Miss Estabrook will be ready with their share. We are going to show the visiting alumni that the E. I. S. N. S. is more alive than ever.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The next issue of The Normal School News will be an Alumni number.

ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

The five numbers of the entertainment course which has been arranged for is as follows:

November 1. Lilly Koenen, Contralto singer.

December. 11. Zoellner String Quartette.

February 2, Barrere Ensemble (Wood Wind orchestra.)

March 1. Leland T. Powers, Dramatic reader.

May - Coburn Players.

Tickets to the course are one dollar and a half and two dollars each. The course ticket of five reserved seat tickets will be placed on sale at the school and at Seaman's drug store, Wednesday October 18, at one o'clock.

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTION

The Juniors met Wednesday night and elected officers for the year. The following is the list: president, Berne Norton, vice-president, Lyman Ritter; secretary, Loel Zehner; treasurer, Glen Baker; poet, Marvel Baker; sergeant-at-arms, Hugh Hilsbeck; historians, Mary Crowe and Eugene Gordon. The class councilors, Miss Guest and Mr. Widger were chosen at a previous meeting.

VERY INDUSTRIOUS

A well known senior was seen last Saturday raking the leaves at the corner of Fourth and Buchanan streets. It is a known fact that this senior calls regularly on the young lady at this place. We won't mention this young gentleman's name; but any one anxious to know may find out by inquiring of Clarence Weger.

MASS MEETING THURSDAY

A mass meeting of students and faculty was held in the assembly hall last Thursday at recess. Short talks were made by Mr. Carey, Mr. Lantz and by Captain Schahrer. These meetings are held occasionally held for the purpose of arousing school spirits and practicing yells. Every student should attend these meetings and get into this very necessary side of school life, which develops good school spirit.

1,620 TEACHERS IN ATTENDANCE

E. I. Teacher's Association Held Friday and Saturday Well Attended

E. H. Taylor, of the Eastern Illinois State Normal school of this city was elected president of the Eastern Division of the Illinois State Teachers' association when the election of officers occurred this morning at the final session of the two days' meeting. Late Saturday it was announced officially that the total enrollment for the 1916 meeting was 1,620 as compared with 1,517 last year.

Treasurer C. L. Brewer of Toledo on Saturday reported that in 1915 there was a balance of $584.35 in the treasury and the balance at the present time is $773.98.

New officers elected Saturday morning by the association are as follows:

President, E. H. Taylor, Charleston, a member of the E. I. S. N. S. faculty.

Vice President, Edgar Jones, superintendent of the public schools of Taylorville.

Secretary, Miss Edith Ragan, Charleston, member of the E. I. S. N. S. faculty.

Members Executive Committee, O. L. Minter, Charleston, superintendent of Coles county schools.

The programs arranged for each session by the committee was unanimously praised and teachers who have attended previous meetings declared that the 1916 program was one of the best in the history of the association. The speakers and instructors were thoroughly familiar with their subjects and many things of interest were included in the program, which on the whole was unusually instructive.

The Normal school assembly hall was filled to capacity throughout Friday and Friday evening when a fine program was given at each session. The hundreds of teachers were attentive and few failed to take advantage of the addresses.

OLD TIMERS PRESENT

Many of the alumni were seen about the school during the meeting of the E. I. T. A. last Friday and Saturday. All were glad to be back and a common expression was "My its good to be here again."

Not all education comes from books. Class room exercises are not the only means of acquiring an education while at school, important as they may be. There are many things in and about a good school, not a part of the school curriculum, which make for refinement and culture in those who attend to them. Among these extra-curriculum activities
are listening to a great singer, hearing high class instrumental music, seeing and hearing a good play worthily represented, and studying beautiful pictures. If these things observed are of good quality, if they maintain a high standard of excellence, they become not merely factors in shaping the student's taste for that which is beautiful in music, art,
and drama but important factors.
Hence every opportunity offered to see and hear the great singer,
the fine music, the good play, or the beautiful paintings should be eagerly snatched at.

Just such an opportunity has been given us in the series of five entertainments of the course which has been arranged by the School Entertainment Committee.
The committee had three rather definite ideas which guided them
in the making of the course.
First, they wanted entertainments that would entertain. This accounts for the range of entertainment. One singer of repute was selected, Tilly Koenen a Dutch contralto; one string quartette capable of playing the most delightful music, was chosen; a dramatic reader whose ability to entertain was known was secured;
a little symphony of wood wind instruments consisting of one flute, two clarinets, two obves,

two bassoons, and two French horns was engaged; and a company of actors were contracted for whose ability to please is beyond question. The second controlling idea was to get entertainments that were not only entertaining but worthy and of a high standard of excellence in the particular field from which they came. That is why Mr. Powers is the dramatic reader instead of some one whom the committee could have secured for half the cost of Mr. Powers. That is also the reason why it is the Zoellners and the Coburn Players who are on the program in place of other companies. They are all the best entertainments of their kind which the committee could buy with the amount of money it had to spend. The third guiding principle was to furnish a high class course at a reasonable cost to each purchaser of a course ticket. The fact that the average cost of each of these five admirable entertainments is only thirty cents or forty cents shows how well this purpose has been achieved.

The News believes that every Normal school student should buy a ticket for the entire course

Dorothy and Marjorie Fox entertained at a spread in their room Monday evening. The following girls were present: Beulah Smith, Fern Hostettler, Angela Struiff, Josephine Phillips, Helen Couch, Myrtle Black, Leona Bell, Mary Lyle, Margurite Edwards, and Zula Phillippe

Hazel Gumm entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Mitchell of Paris.

Mabel Snyder and Cecil Yanna- way gave a slumber party and spread in their room Thursday evening in honor of their guest, Elizabeth James.

Leona Bell entertained at a spread in her room Thursday evening in honor of her sister Ruth, and Kathryn Jordan of Paris. Those present were Dorothy Fox, Beulah Smith, Hazel Gumm, Gladys Smith, Grace Reininga, Jeanette Vermass, Cora Lockwood, Ruth Jones, Mildred Gray, Audra Foreman, and Zula Phillippe.

The Seniors held a wiener and marshmallow roast in Wilson's woods last Thursday evening from 5:30 until 8:00 o'clock. The party consisted of about sixty seniors and the chaperones, Mr. Wilson and Miss Guest. After a considerable number of wieners and marshmallows had been consumed, games were engaged in. Then the class divided up into groups to discuss their joys as student teachers.

The regular Saturday evening dance was held in the gymnasium. Although a large number of the students were out of town, their places were filled by former students so that about the same number were in attendance. Music was furnished by Flannigan's orchestra of Mattoon. The party was chaperoned by Miss Weller, Miss Johnson, Miss Gifford, Miss Guest, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Carey.

The regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held Tuesday evening. Mr. Hubbard spoke of the necessity of organization in the life of man. He brought out the idea that every boy of eighteen should begin to make plans for the kind of life he is going to follow. Mr. Minter will speak tonight. Every boy in school is cordially invited to hear him.

because it is to his personal advantage to do so and because he owes it to this school to make such a worthy course a complete success. None of us is so rich in culture that this course would not add something. Many of us students need this very kind of thing, and we need it now while we are young and in school. Let every student, then, buy a ticket, and speak a good word for our course whenever it is needed. We are for it because it is needed, because it is good, because it is ours, and because we are here to get the most out of the opportunities which this school offers.

ROOM FOR MORE

At a mass meeting of the students held in the assembly room last Tuesday, Mr. Lantz spoke to the student body urging them to be loyal in their support of the foot ball team. Though there are some fifty odd suits out there are seldom more than thirty men out for practice. We should have at least sixty men on the squad. Let us work together to make our team a good one.

SENIORS ELECT OFFICERS

The Senior class election was held in Mr. Wilson's room last Thursday and the following officers were chosen: President, Martin Schahrer; Vice President, Grace Long; Treasurer, Frank Harris; Secretary, Weger Allison; Historian, Mary Lyle; Sergeant at Arms, Russel Martin; Photographer, Otto Schmalzle.
