PROPHECY OF SENIOR CLASS

Member of the Class Views Affairs Ten Years Hence. Read at Party Monday

The following prophecy, which was written by Althea Wise, was read at the party held last Monday night to commemorate the escape from the toils of liberty:

Charleston, Ill., Oct. 28, 1926
Dear old Mary:

You know I always did tell the truth, so when I said that I'd write you a volume of news mostly about the E. I. S. N. S. homecoming, I fully intended to do it. It's simply too bad that you and Andy couldn't come. Of course it is a long ways from Oklahoma but the old classmates poured in from all corners of the country. It was a grand home coming.

The assembly hall was packed. Mr. Lord was in his usual place. It did me good to be there once again. I used to think his talks were good but I never heard him give a better one than he gave this morning. Several of the old faculty are here as well as many new ones. Miss Booth looks as natural as ever. As I walked in at the west door she was in the hall tacking up library lists. You remember how we used to love to get our library science.

Don't tell me our class didn't have some stars even if Mr. Allen did have suspicions that we didn't work very hard. You remember Minnie Cassidy, well she is supervisor of the rural department here and twice a week gives dancing lessons to the Sophs. She and Gertrude Bolcum came to see me this evening. I guess you know she has taken Miss Coffman's place. I was surprised to see Ralph Zehner on the platform this morning. The students say that he fills Mr. Hankinson's position just fine.

I had an interesting talk with Floss Wiley. She said that after Miss Ragan told her that her voice was too high pitched for a school room, she decided to spare neither time nor money in having it trained, and now would you believe it, she is delivering lectures all over this part of the country on "The Kind of Voice One Should Have." Do you remember that Russel Anderson and Esther Bussard were particularly good friends when in school here? Well, Marie Keeran just told me that they were married last spring, and are now living in Arkansas, and his old friend Adams has risen, as we expected him to, and is now private secretary to the president—of his Sunday school class.

When I arrived in town last evening, to pass away the time, as well as to enjoy the movies, I went to the Majestic of which Ivan Goble is the manager. I happened to take a seat next to the D..... Opal said that Kate Burch and Leah Todd were missionaries to Africa. They have been gone a year and the last word from them was from the American consul. He had just been notified of their capture by a band of barbarous natives and he is now trying to rescue them.

I also talked to Alice, Mrs. S..... and she said that the only reason Ruth Peters is still single is that she thinks a teacher's pension will afford her a better living than the proceeds of Ivan's picture show.

You know how little good we thought library science would do us, but now we can see what influence it had on some of the members of our class. Myrtle Bolcum is now head librarian of a children's library in Chicago. Her chief work is making out lists of books for different grades. She just said that she never thought of having anything to do with a library until she took that last interesting course. Also Glenna Sprout is now in Miss Pletcher's place. Since the school is now so large Glenna conducts a part of the classes. She told me that Margaret Struif, you know how interested she was in the course, is now employed as library science teacher in the Southern State Normal School. I had a talk with our old friend Edgar Leach. After completing his law course in Chicago, he is now teacher of the third grade in Mt. Carmel. He said that Phil was unable to come because he was so busy. After graduating, Phil went to the U. of I. I wondered why he chose that place to finish his education, but it just now dawned upon me that Urbana is the home of Verna Short. After finishing his course in architecture, he is now cartoonist for the Chicago Tribune.

Cooper and Bails are settled here at their old trade. Don't you remember the sign, "Don't forget Cooper and Bails Transfer." However, they have made some progress for I saw a Ford dray go by with the very same old sign. I had a chat with Pernie and he said that he and Cooper tried teaching a year, but decidid they could live higher and yet be with home folks by carrying on their old trade. Indeed since Cooper lives on Third street with his father-in-law he saves a great deal by locating here. Do you ever hear from Marie? Pernie said that T..... lost his position as high school principal and is now principal of a country school in southern Kansas and Marie is raising chickens to eke out their meager income.

Last summer while Gail and Anne were spending their vacation in the mountains of Colorado they met our old matron of Pemberton Hall, now Mrs. V..... She and Mr. V..... were spending the summer in her cabin in the mountains. Now I know you are wondering who is matron of the hall. Well! Irene Couchman is making the 10:30 rounds now. The girls say she is very prompt. However, Irene tells me she grants some privileges which were unheard of when we were there. Such as, the first dip now comes at ten o'clock on Sunday night and not five or ten minutes before.

O yes! And Goodie, I haven't told you anything about her. Well she and Fye are teaching in Uncle Sam's newly acquired territory. She is principal of a small high school of which she and Fye are the faculty. As the town is inhabited only by the native Mexicans and for want of suitable companions they have become particularly good friends.

I saw in the Kansas City paper last week an account of the foot ball game between the Oklahoma U. and Kansas U. The score pleased me and I'm sure that the victory was due to Andy's good good coaching. Well I could go on writing for hours about our old classmates but I'm sleepy and tired. Write and tell me all about yourself.

With much love,

Your old classmate,
Althea.

Note. The dashes are where the names have been deleted by censor. Can you supply them.

MINNEAPOLIS ORCHESTRA.

The Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, which has given several concerts in the assembly room in previous years, will give a concert in the assembly room on May 8. They are coming on their own hook and will give an afternoon concert, going to Terre Haute from here.

Next week we will be enjoying spring vacation.

SENIORS WIN TOURNAMENT.

The Senior basket ball teams are now the undisputed champions of the school. Not only the boys, but also their fair classmates have annexed victories and the fourth year students stand superior in body as well as in mind. The senior boys won the championship Saturday by defeating the freshman team by the score of 22 to 11. The older players had no difficulty in defeating the first year men through their superior team work and the goal shooting of Bails and Durbin. The sophs won from the juniors. On account of the inability of one of the junior girls to play, the game was called off and the senior girls were declared champions.

BASE BALL PRACTICE

Base ball has been progressing rapidly the last week and the boys are about well of their sore muscles and other aillings now, and are getting down to hard work. Practice was held on the Model school diamond owing to the bad condition of the regular field.

It is reported that William Houser, a former well known Normal School athlete and base ball man, with Stanley Glosser last years center fielder and heavy hitter and G. Hughes a prominent pitcher from the southern part of the state will all enter school after the spring vacation.

With these additions to the squad and the material already at hand Normal should have one of the best base ball teams it has had in years.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING

The regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in the music room last Tuesday evening. The programme of the evening was chiefly of a musical character. After the singing of two songs and the repeating of the Lord's prayer in concert, Palmer Giffin entertained those present with a piano solo. After this Andrew Phillips, Hugh Adams, and Emmett McGahey gave a trio with the piano and two cornets. The talk of the evening was given by Andrew Phillips on the subject of "The Work of the Y. M. C. A. on the Battlefields of Europe."

President Felmley of Central Normal University suspended nine students for one year for failure to carry at least one-half of their work. Eleven other students were allowed to register again only on probation.

School Needs

Forward: It is the desire of this paper to print in this column each week for the next eight or ten weeks things which the school really needs. The first of this series appears today on the subject announced below.

A NEW GYM

Last spring a committee from the state legislature visited this school and examined the needs of the institution. The board of trustees of the school had just made known their requests for the coming year and among the things requested was a new gymnasium. The next morning in chapel numerous ones from the committee spoke in chapel on the subject and all declared themselves in favor of the new building, especially a man from Chicago (we forget his name.) When the bill came up before the legislature, behold, the gym was voted down and we have heard nothing from it to date.

We wish to call to your attention the present need of the school for a new gym. The enrollment of the school is rapidly increasing each year until the Pemberton Hall gym is not sufficient to accommodate the boys and girls both. The suggestion, which has been made, that the girls take the old gym and that the boys should have a new one, seems a good one to us. Speak to any of your influential friends about this and boost for a new gym.

In answering an advertisement
state that you saw it in The Normal School News.

GRINS AND GROANS

Notice read in chapel Thursday morning: The girls' basket ball tournament will open tonight when the seniors and sophomores play.
ALL GIRLS of the school are invited to come and see the games.
Why pick on us men?

All those who were absent from hymn practice Thursday are shrinking from the gaze of curious onlookers. Note to the ignorant reader:
256 skipped the practice.

Mr. Phillips, will you please close that book?

Why does Serena always get there
on time?
Because she hears the Bell.

Another sign of spring which we wish to call your attention to is the spring shirt. Two new creations may be seen around school on the person of two prominent young men of the school. The colors are placed with all the delicacy of a Comanche Indian. This last phrase is not original.

Speaking of styles, have you
lamped the new bow tie?

Keep off the grass. Stay on your own front yard.

Freshie—How long can a person
live without brains?

Senior—I dunno, how old are you?

She—Why do they paint the inside of a chicken coop?

He—To keep the hens from picking the grain out of the wood.

How to get rich: Work like T.
A. Edison and spend like Mrs. Hetty
Green.

Nearly every one seems to have known some rich man when he didn't have a cent.

When you grab Opportunity with one hand tie a knot in its tail with the other.

Pride puffeth a man out like a toy balloon, so that he can be easily punctured.

The greatest fools are the greatest liars.

SOCIETY NEWS

By Pauline Shortess

LIBRARY SCIENCE JUBILEE

The senior class kept up the tradition established by the members of last year's graduation class and held a library science jubilee last Monday night. Everybody came to represent some book. The best dressed person was given the prize of a Jesse James book. Opal Bensley and Opal Wiley dressed to represent "Hansel and Gretel" took the prize. Gail Buzzard conducted a lesson in library science and officiated as Miss Booth. She asked many questions which were answered by the class. The class prophesy was read by Inez Dawson. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

JUNIOR DANCE

The juniors held their regular practice dance last Monday night. About thirty couple were present, besides some town people.

IN HONOR OF HER SISTER

Miss Gladys Smith entertained several of her friends in her room Saturday night with a spread in honor of her sister, Miss Cecile Marie Smith of Buffalo, Ill. The following were present:

Etia Wade, Iva Pile, Nell Sims, Ruth Gilbert, Ester VanPelt, Myrtle Fisher, Edna Hohn, Viola Wilson, Grace Reinenga, Janeth Vermass, Lula Frache, Mary Lyle, Lula Dale, Dorothy Fox, Beulah Smith, Mary Angela Edwards, Mary Bell, Dot Haworth, Margaret Bell, Marie Goodman.

"HAMLET" TO BE GIVEN.

The Coburn players who will present the fourth number of the course of entertainments to be given this year have notified the committee that they will present Shakespeare's well-known tragedy, "Hamlet," on that date. The choice of the plays to be given lay between "The Yellow Jacket" which they gave last year, "The Taming of the Shrew," which they also presented last year, "The Rivals," which the class of 1913 gave, and "Hamlet" which has not been given here.

It is the aim of the school to give as many Shakespearian plays as possible this year as this is the 300th anniversary of the death of that famous playwright. Three of his plays will be given here this year, "Hamlet" by the Coburn players on May 24, "As You Like It" by the senior class on graduation week, and "The Merchant of Venice" by the Coburn players during summer school on the night of July 12.

PERSONAL

Mr. Storer did not meet his classes Friday.

Homer Gordon, '14, was a chapel visitor Saturday.

Edward Hood spent Sunday with home folks in Arcola.

Ruth Peters spent Sunday with her sister, Mary, in Paris.

Harlan Etheridge spent Sunday with his parents in Windsor.

Rena White, who is teaching in Sullivan, visited friends in this city over Sunday.

Dale Coyle and Ford Fender spent Sunday with their parents near Ashmore.

Mary Wiseheart was absent from her school duty a last week on account of illness.

Some of the boys of the lower classes entertained the senior boys one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thompeon, both former members of the school, were Saturday visitors.

Lois Shortess, '14, who is teaching in Oak Park, is visiting her parents over vacation.

Ed Harris and John Rife are victims of boils which they report are very sore and bothersome.

Charles Allen returned to school last week after being away several weeks on account of illness.

Cecil Flaherty, a member of the base ball team two years ago, visited friends at school Saturday.

Bernice Corzine, who is teaching in the public schools of Oak Park, is visiting friends in Charleston this week.

Mr. Lord attended the meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges in Chicago last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Taylor was in Chicago last Thursday where he attended the meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges.

Misses Nellie Linder and Marie Ellington took the teacher's examination last week. Both are expecting to teach next year.

Pauline Shortess will leave for Toledo, O., Thursday to be the guest of Lorraine Dentuan. She will be the guest of honor at the coming out party of Miss Denman on Friday night.

Six hundred eighty-five flunk grades were given out at Kansas State Agricultural College last term. A questionnaire has been sent out asking the reason. All sorts of satisfactory answers like sickness and dissatisfaction in love have been received.

The regular weekly meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association was held in Pemberton Hall last Friday evening. Mary Lyle, the new president, led her first meeting. Mrs. Hankinson addressed the meeting.
