Basket Ball Fans Treated to a Real Thriller Last Friday Night

Many enthusiastic basket ball fans saw the game between our school team and a team representing Illinois Wesleyan last Friday night in the Normal school gymnasium.

The Wesleyan team had the advantage in weight and through their superior ability in hitting the basket were enabled to beat the Blue and Gray by the small score of 25 to 23.

The Lantz quintet took the lead at first, but held it only a short time, after this the game shifting first in favor of one then the other. Until the last, the game was disputed and might have gone to either team. Cobb made most of the points for the Blue and Gray, and Turner, though the Methodists were on him from start to finish, played a good game.

Millard, captain of the Wesleyan team, was the star for his team, and was very successful in making foul goals.

HAND IN CARDS

Seniors have been asked to hand their programme cards to Mr. Allen with the second term programme filled out. This enables the placing of student teachers for next quarter without conflicting with other subjects. Mr. Taylor will assist in making out these programmes, he being adviser of the Senior class.

SWEATERS ARRIVED

The sweaters that are to be given to the 1916 foot ball team have been received and they will probably be presented to the team at an early date. The sweaters are Yale blue and have the service stripe and letters in Gray.

LIBRARY NOTES

A new set of O. Henry, in twelve volumes, has been received and are now ready for circulation. O. Henry is delightful reading and can be enjoyed by any one that likes good literature.

A new Encyclopedia, entitled the "Encyclopedia of Foods and Beverages" has been added to the library. This is a work on foods and beverages and their relative values. This will prove a valuable supplement for other works in connection with Domestic Science.

The latest addition has been made to the International Encyclopedia which makes twenty-three volumes and is the most modern of all encyclopedias.

A collection of books is being made for the classes in Children's Literature, and a shelf will be reserved exclusively for the use of Seniors.

SCHOOL CALENDAR

Friday, January 26. School closes at noon.

January 26. Basket ball, Normal vs. Blackburn College at Carlinville.

January 27. Basket ball, Normal vs. St. Viator at Kankakee.

January 30. Junior - Senior prom.

Tuesday, January 30. Second term of school begins.

February 2. Third number of entertainment course.

February 3. Basket ball. Illinois College vs. Normal school at Charleston.

February 17. Athletic Carnival.

February 21. Girls' Washington Party.

February 23-24. H. S. basketball tournament.

CLASS PINS HERE

The Senior class pins are here and proud Seniors can be seen proudly sporting the emblems which signify to the world that the wearer belongs to that dignified body known to the underclassmen, for wisdom and executive ability, the Seniors.

NO NEWS

Since school closes next Friday noon and there will be no school until next Tuesday, there will be no issue of The Normal School News next week. We believe that the editorial staff of the News needs a rest in order to prepare for the strenuous work of the second term of school and so we ask that our readers and advertisers allow us the much needed rest.

PEACE PRIZE CONTEST

Two sets of prizes, to be known as the Seabury Prizes, are offered for the best essays on one of the following subjects:

1. What Education Can Do Toward the Maintenance of Permanent Peace. Open to Seniors in Normal Schools.

2. The Influence of the United States in the Adoption of a Plan for Permanent Peace. Open to Seniors in Secondary Schools.

Three prizes of seventy-five, fifty, and twenty-five dollars will be given for the best essays in both sets.

Contest closes March 1, 1917.

Conditions of the contest: Essays must not exceed 5,000 words (a length of 3,000 words is suggested as desirable), and must be written, preferably in type writing, on one side-only of paper, 8x10 inches, with a margin of at least 1-4 inches. Manuscripts not easily legible will not be considered.

The name of the writer must not appear on the essay, which should be accompanied by a letter giving the writer's name, school, and home address, and sent to Mrs. Fannie Fern Andrews, Secretary, American School Peace League, 405 Marlborough Street, Boston, Mass., not later than March 1, 1917. Essays should be mailed flat (not rolled).

The award of the prizes will be made at the Annual Meeting of the League in July, 1917.

Information concerning literature on the subject may be obtained from the Secretary.

DR. SPOTSWOOD DEAD

Dr. Edmund T. Spotswood well known as the "Father of the Indiana State Normal School" died in Terre Haute, January 5. Mr. Spotswood was ninety years old and by a strange coincidence, died on the forty-seventh anniversary of the founding of the Indiana State Normal School. He was well known for his work when in the Indiana State Legislature, in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League.

"PERNICE" WAS HERE

Ernest Bails, '17, teacher of Manual training in the Tuscola schools, visited home folks over Sunday. "Pernice" whose hobby is ice skating went to the river east of Tuscola and skated southward leaving the river near Oakland and catching the Clover Leaf home. All told he skated near thirty miles. Mr. Bails will be remembered as last year's business manager of the Normal School News.

ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

The fifth number on the Entertainment Course will be given Friday evening, February 2, by the Barrere Ensemble. This is a unique organization of wind instruments consisting of two oboes, two clarinets, two French horns, two bassoons and one silver flute, under the personal direction of George Barrere, a Frenchman and the master flutist of the day. Before Mr. Barrere came to America to become virtuoso flutist in Walter Danrosch's orchestra in New York City, he had formed a musical organization in Paris so good that the French government saw fit to endorse it and decorate Mr. Barrere.

According to competent musical critics Mr. Barrere, with his silver flute and his group of wind instruments can create music of wonderful sweetness of tone. It is said to have all the softness and witchery of the nature chorus and yet to be beyond that in being great art. A newspaper says that one with any imagination seem to hear the bird calls, the water voices, the wind in the trees, the croon and hum of the forest and field. "It almost seems as if the sound must come from the deft and dexterous little hob-goblins and elves instead of the nine correct gentlemen in evening dress."

This is to be a great treat, and notice of this concert should be widely extended by the students. Owing to the fact that the company plays in St. Louis in the morning, the players will not arrive until 8:13 p. m., so the concert will not begin until 8:30 o'clock.

HUGHES WILL ENTER

It is practically certain that Hughes, the base ball pitcher of Lerna, will enter school at the beginning of next term. Captain Hampton received a letter from Hughes one day last week in which he declared his intentions of entering next Tuesday for the term's work. Hughes is well known over this section of the country for his high class twirling. He will probably enter the Junior class as he has had high school work.

SUPERINTENDENTS TO MEET

On Monday and Tuesday of next week the county superintendents of this part of Illinois will meet at this school with Mr. Blair and other members of the state department of public instruction to discuss the various problems involved in their work.

Wake up! Scratch your head. clear up all little matters that should be settled before the end of this term. There are less than two weeks to make ready for a brand new start. If we were within two weeks of the end of the school year, all of us long ago should have been making preparations for the final wind up. We should be just as anxious about our preparations for the close of this term as we would be for the end of next term. There is no doubt that any of us will fail to make ample preparations on our studies for the next week, but there are plenty of other matters that should be taken care of also. Would it not be a fine feeling to begin next term with no obligations whatever? We could then feel perfectly free in the glorious thought that no one had any strings to us. Now we can begin next term with just such a feeling if we will see to all little matters before the end of this term. When we think of the things that should be taken care of, I think, about the thing that we would think of would be money matters. We are very fortunate indeed that such an institution is at our doors where as little money is needed when compared with other schools. We are more fortunate than most of us realize.
Here no tuition is required. We do not have to buy our books unless—, you know the rest. Those that hold scholarships do not even have to pay book rent. For the reasonable sum of $1.50, which makes us members of the Athletic Association, we can see all the games of the term. Yes, we know that board is going up, and a theme pad costs eleven cents, but probably in other places we would have to pay more.

Just hustle around and get things fixed up, and, we think, you will be thankful for these little suggestions. If you are a Senior or a Junior, remember it will not cost any more and would be a mighty fine thing to have this terms class dues paid. Also The News would be thankful if any one who has not already paid, would pay his subscription.—F.
B. N.

Each one of us like to receive letters but many of us do not like to write them. Sometimes it is a difficult task but let us try hard because they are always welcomed at the other end. Sometimes we are disappointed in the letters we receive, because the details are not gone into far enough.
Let us profit by this example and make our letters interesting by telling the little things.

The kind of news that we tell must depend largely upon the person to whom we write. To some we should write about our work in school, and to others about our social activities. Some of these may seem common place to us, but remember we even like to hear about the dog, at home.
To many people we should be cautious about what we write.

SOCIETY NEWS

By Ed Phillips

Arrangements for the Junior Senior prom have been completed. The Danville Trio will furnish music for the occasion, and the music consisting of sixteen numbers has been chosen by the committee. This promises to be a very enjoyable affair. The faculty will be guests of the classes and several other invitations are out. This party will be held in the parlors of Pemberton Hall January 30, from 7:30 until 11:00 p. m.

Dorothy Robertson entertained a few of her junior classmates at her home in Mattoon last Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Irah Sel-lars, who spent the week end with Miss Bernice Rapp. The afternoon was spent in music, conversation, games, and a general good time.
At six o'clock, a three course dinner was served the hostess and her guests. Those present were Irah Sellars, Bernice Rapp, Grace Powell, Florence Schilling, Hazel Henderson, Nellie Chamberlain, and Dorothy Robertson.

M. Koch gave a party to the men of the faculty last Saturday evening between the hours of 7:30 and 10:30.
Refreshments were served and all present voted Mr. Koch a royal entertainer.

The regular meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association was held Friday evening at Miss Morse's home on Ninth street.

Mildred Gray led the meeting and the subject discussed was "The Red Cross Societies." Dorothy Davis told how the Red Cross societies happened to be founded and when they were begun in the different countries, how many countries have such organizations, and something of the way they are organized. Lucy Gray told of the work the Red Cross people do other than war relief, such as helping in times of floods, famines, fires, visiting and helping the poor, helping tuberculosis, sufferers, etc. She told of how the American Red Cross was organized, where their headquarters in the different states are,
and how they actually carry on their relief work when there is such a disaster as the Dayton, Ohio flood.
Josephine Berry told what the Red Cross Societies do in time of war.
She told of the many things that are done for the soldiers and just exactly how they go about helping

Every one present enjoyed very much having the meeting around Miss Morse's fire place, and it was very interesting indeed to find out how broad the Red Cross work is and how many countries have such organizations.

There will be no meeting this Friday night because so many people will be at home between terms, but there will be a meeting the first Friday of the new term.
