ALUMNI DAY

Many of the alumni came back to old E. I. Saturday, which had been set aside as Alumni Day. The program was a good one and very suitable for the occasion. At 9:00, the usual parade of former classes took place. Mr. Lord led chapel exercises, making a short, but appropriate address. Then a motion picture was shown. It was an educational film, "Zooland," made by the Bray Studio. The picture was taken in the Zoological gardens of New York City.

Following the picture show, the alumni held a business meeting. The following officers were elected for next year: President, Mr. Earpat Freeman; Vice-President, Mr. Leonard Davis; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Fern Daringer; New members of the Standing Committee of Three, Charles Prather. The name of the association was changed to "The Alumni Association of the Eastern Illinois State Teachers College." The class of 1922 was taken into membership and the meeting was adjourned.

A cafeteria lunch was served on the campus at twelve o'clock to the alumni, faculty and seniors. This lunch was much superior to any of the previous affairs of its kind, due to the work of Miss Shortess and Miss Beth Olmstead.

At 2:30 the alumni, with the help of Mr. Lantz, defeated a patched up nine representing the school, by a score of 12-5. Greathouse, Duncan, and Hunter were at the state track meet, and their absence was a handicap to the E. I. nine.

At 4:30, "The Bonny Briar Bush" was shown in the assembly room. The play was adopted from the story, "By the Bonnie Briar Bush." It was a love story dealing with Scottish life. The pictures were well enjoyed and showed the alumni what a great asset our motion picture machine is.

At 7:30, by special request the junior class repeated the operetta, "Pinafore" to the alumni. The operetta was better given than before and enjoyed very much by everyone. This operetta was one of the most enjoyable ever given in our assembly room. More has been said about it in another article in these columns.

A reception and dance followed the operetta. Music was furnished by Flanagan's orchestra. The whole day, thanks to pleasant weather was a great success. As for the alumni that were not here, they will never know how much they missed.

BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS

Sunday evening, Mr. Lord gave the baccalaureate address to the three graduating classes. His subject was "Experiencing Religion." The address was one of the best of its kind ever given from the platform. Miss Major and the Senior Sextette sang.

SENIOR COLLEGE PICNIC

The Juniors of College entertained the Seniors with a picnic at River View Park Friday evening. In spite of the rain the affair was a success. Lunch was eaten on the porch of the club house. Part of the class amused themselves by swimming. All of them took a boat ride, displaying in many cases several remarkably good oarsmen (!). The weather was not the only abounding element present.

E. I. SCORES 7 POINTS

Thursday coach Moore took three of his best track men to the State meet at Monmouth. The preliminaries were run off Friday and the finals took place Saturday.

Knox easily won the meet with a total of 80 1/2 points, Monmouth second 25 1/2; Lombard 23; Illinois College 15 2-3; Eureka 12 2-3; Eastern Illinois 7; Naperville 7; Hedding 6 1/2; Illinois Wesleyan 5 1/2; Lincoln 5; Normal U. S.; Shurtlett 1-8.

Twelve new records were established. New marks were set in every event except the 120 yard high hurdles, the half mile run and the javelin throw. Swanson of Lombard was the individual star with 13 points.

E. I. placed in four events. Broad jump, Sward, Knox, first; Roberts, Normal second; Duncan, E. I. third; Carrier, Eureka; Driver, Eureka, distance 22 feet, 11 inches.

100 yard dash, Swanson, Lombard; Bridgford, Knox; Lamb, Lombard; Greathouse, E. I.; Rhind, Knox. Time 9 4-5 seconds.

Discus throw, Mellon, Illinois; Thompson, Lombard; Loucks, Monmouth; Hunter, Eastern Illinois; Sneedecker, Hedding. Distance 124 feet, 7 inches.

High jump, Alberts, Lincoln; Duncan, Eastern Illinois; Hyle, Wesleyan; Rankin, Knox; Blogett, Shurtlett. Height 5 feet, 10 inches.

E. I. won one second, one third and two fourths, giving us a total of seven points. Duncan took second in the high jump and third in the broad jump, scoring five points. Greathouse took fourth in the 100 yard dash, one point. Hunter scored fourth in the discus, one point.

SENIOR SEXTETTE

The Senior sextette, composed of Misses Marjorie Lynch, Dorothy Nehrling, Anne Laughlin, Marian Everett, Lillian Myers and Harriet Tate (which has delighted our school, neighboring high schools and other audiences), will not be with us next year. This sextette is the first one of its kind ever organized at E. I. Besides being an unusually good looking group (which is not to their discredit), the sextette is composed of some of the best voices that has ever received training in this school. Their popularity and success is due in a large measure to the skillful teaching of Mr. Koch.

Although the sextette will be missed next year, "The Pianore" showed that all good singers are not in the Senior class. Mr. Koch has some very good material out of which to produce a new Senior sextette.

The Seniors next year will also have the best male voices in school. Their quartette, composed of Roney, Anderson, Moore and Goble is the best in Charleston.

It is very true that the school will miss the Senior sextette next year, but we have great confidence in Mr. Koch and we are sure that he will give us another almost as good a sextette or glee club.

SENIOR CLASS PLAYS

We regret exceedingly that it will not be possible to review the Senior class plays. It is quite needless to say that they were well done and played to a good sized audience.

SENIOR CLASS PLAYS

The Sophomore college or Senior Normal School class presented three one act plays Monday evening. The first was a modern farce by Eden Phillpote, "A Pair of Knickerbockers". The story was centered about the troubles of a newly wedded couple over the wife's desire to appear in a "rational walking costume." The husband has not been sufficiently modernized to approve of a pair of knickerbockers just like his own on his bride. And she has not gone far enough in modernization to appreciate her husband in his red glaze silk. The cast is as follows:

Mr. Melrose .....Carroll Dunn
Mrs. Melrose ...Anne Laughlin
The second play was of a more serious nature. It dealt with the eternal clash between the new and the passing generation. It was, "Mansions" by Hildegard Flanner. The cast is as follows:

Harriet Wilde ....Lillian Myers
Lydia Wilde .....Harriet Tate
Joe Wilde .....Perry Rawland
The third play was entitled "Gringoire," by Arthur Shirley. Being in the days of Louis XI, it gave an excellent chance for effective costumes. It was a love story and ends happily with "Gringoire", a despised young poet, the happy husband of the king's daughter, Jeanette.

The cast was as follows:
Louis XI .....Richard Fawley
Simon .....John Whitesel
Gringoire .....Dorothy Nehrling
Oliver-le-Daim .....
McClelland Eversole
Jeanette .....Marian Everett
Nicole .....Joyce Traeger

DECORATION DAY TUESDAY

School will close Tuesday noon. As many students as possible should attend the special exercises to be held at the fair grounds (in our assembly room if it rains) Tuesday afternoon. Ex-Governor Fifer will give the address. A special meeting of the executive men of the school was held Saturday morning after chapel exercises. All of them were requested to take part in the parade that will precede the address at the fair grounds. After the address is over special seats will be reserved for them at the ball game. The Charleston ball club will meet the strong American Legion team from Urbana in what should be one of the best games of the season.

SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. Koch entertained the members of the Teachers College graduating class Friday evening at their home on Fourth and Lincoln streets. Refreshments were served. Miss Elsa Koch sang, Miss Harriet Tate gave a reading with Miss Marjorie Lynch at the piano, and the Senior Sextette sang. The evening was a very enjoyable one, and it will live for many years in the memories of the Seniors.

WEEK'S PROGRAM

Tuesday afternoon — Decoration Day.
Wednesday evening—Junior-Senior picnic.
Thursday evening—Mr. Lord's reception to the graduating class.
Friday morning—Graduation exercises.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The greatest event of the school year came to pass last Tuesday night. After a short wait, after the operetta, "Pinafore", the Juniors, Seniors, former students and friends of the school assembled in the dining room and living room which had been converted into a dining room on account of the lack of space. Here the guests were served with ice cream and cake, and coffee. The ice cream and cake were opportunely decorated, the former with a lavender border and in the center the numerals '22 for the graduating class. The cake had a pink border and as a centerpiece, a pink and green apple blossom for the Juniors. Towards the close of the refreshments Albert Crowe, Junior class president, made a speech and then introduced the speaker of the evening, Perry Rawland, president of the graduating class. Mr. Rawland's speech was as good as the few we have been privileged to hear. The next speaker of the evening was Miss Ellen Ford. Miss Ford carried us back to the year 1904, when the first Junior-Senior banquet was held under the leadership of Miss Weller and Miss Wetmore. Miss Ford's talk was filled with humorous remarks that did much to enliven the evening. The next speaker, Miss McKinney, one whom we are not always given the privilege of hearing, talked on the meaning of youth. It was a very inspiring and encouraging address to the listeners. The closing address of the evening was given by Mr. Lord, one who always is welcome to talk to us. Mr. Lord paid some fine tributes to the handiwork of the Junior class. Altogether the banquet was a remarkably successful one, due greatly to the fine spirit of co-operation of the Juniors.

BASEBALL

The baseball season at E. I. has brought out two sterling players. Greathouse, the best batter E. I. baseball has ever had, percentage now .672, and Duncan, the pitcher, catcher and all around baseball player. Both are also excellent track men. Fawley, Lynch Coyle and Wilson were up to a good standard in batting but unable to field the ball. Black, Sefton and Hunter performed very creditably in the outfield but batted only fairly. Prather was good and poor by turns. "Stub" Haddock is the best man for his size that has ever had an E. I. baseball suit on.

HIGH SCHOOL PICNIC

The Juniors gave the Seniors of the high school a picnic Thursday afternoon. After being rained out at the Rocks, the party was finished in the gym. A regular picnic dinner, not light refreshments, was served. Certain members entertained with stunts not on the program. Dancing took up the rest of the afternoon.

HIGH SCHOOL

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The former graduates of the E. I. high school held a meeting Saturday morning and organized the E. I. High School Alumni Association. The following officers were elected: Robert Shoemaker, president; Harold Kerr, vice-president; Marjorie Love, secretary and treasurer.

Published weekly by the students of the Eastern Illinois State Teachers' College on each Tuesday during the school year at The Court House, Charleston, Ill.

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 8, 1915 at the Post Office at Charleston, Ill., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Every E. I. student, no matter where he may be this summer should take every opportunity to get new students. Send in the names and addresses of prospective ones to the office. Bulletins will be sent to the individual or individuals who are likely candidates for E. I. diplomas.

To many a Freshman in college,
the question, shall I teach next year or go to school, is a very perplexing one. Some will be compelled to teach because of financial embarrassments, but the great majority have the means to go on. We are beseech-ing you to return to E. I. Its advantages have been dwelt upon enough.
You are able to decide. The advantages of more training have been hammered home time after time. You realize that advantage. It will pay you to borrow the money and come to school. It is an investment which will have good returns in several years. This idea of more schooling applies to students of any class. We regret to say that several members of this year's high school graduating class are not coming back. The department that every E. I. booster must give attention to is the Senior college. It must be said repeatedly that athletics will never gain a great deal here until we have a four year college. Coach Lantz takes a green man in his Freshman year and teaches him football. In his Sophomore year he begins to be a good man.

Probably by the last of the season he has a good football knowledge and is for the first time valuable to the team. That year he graduates and is lost. His next two years would be the fruit of the first two of training but he is out probably forever.
This same thing applies to the other sports. In fact baseball is harder hit by this system than football. A four year course will help to give the school a real college atmosphere.

We are looking forward to a big increase in enrollment in the next few years. Starting with 800 next fall, by 1927 the school should have 1500 students. That means many more buildings, possibly a larger campus.

The News staff for 1921-22 wishes to express its thanks to all contributors, subscribers and advertisers for their large share in making the paper a success. Mr. Thomas has been a good friend and contributor to us. The faculty committee has been the greatest boon to the financial management of the paper since its start.

Certain of the students have been of great help to us. However, we urge that more contributions from students be given to next year's staff.
The alumni and faculty have been most loyal in their subscriptions. The advertisers, those who make possible the publication of the paper, are especially to be commended for their contributions.

Our policy has been to give the news of the school as completely as possible. We were forced to discontinue the incubator to keep it from dying a slow and painful death. No one in school hopes for its return any more than the retiring staff. But the Inc. is strictly a column of student contributions and must be up to a high standard.

It is now the plan to make next year's paper bigger and to increase the size of the staff. The first is not possible without the second. We wish the staff of '22-'23 the best of luck with their bigger paper. A school of 800 students needs a newspaper sized Teachers College News and we have great faith in the ability of Coyle and Hall to put it over.

A. Y. M. C. A. AT E. I.

Mr. Ponce spoke to all the boys of the school and men of the faculty Tuesday at the chapel period. During the 9:30 period a meeting of boys of the school, interested in a Y. M.
C. A., was held in room 16. At that meeting a committee of eleven was nominated to decide on whether we should have a Y., and if so, to take care of the organization of one next fall. That committee met Friday at one o'clock and decided unanimously that there would be a Y. M. C. A.
here. Mr. Arthur Forster, B. Ed., 1923 was elected chairman. The members of the committee coming back next fall will meet September 9, two days before school opens. Some action towards helping new students find rooms and board, getting acquainted with the ways of the school, etc., will be taken by the committee.
A regular organization will take place next fall.

Another meeting this week will determine whether anyone shall be sent to Geneva for the summer conference.

WARBLER 1922

The Warbler 1922 was placed on sale in the reception room last Saturday. The Warbler is the biggest and probably the best that has ever been printed. It contains one hundred fifty six pages of pictures, snapshots, "write-ups" and jokes. The staff composed of John Whitesel, editor in chief; Joyce Traeger, society editor; Helen Barker, art editor;
Arthur McCall, advertising editor;
Irma Williamson, literary editor and Elsie Sloan, athletic editor are largely responsible for its success. The expenses on the Warbler were almost doubled. It is necessary for the staff to sell over four hundred copies in order to break even.

The Warbler is more than just the year book of the Normal School graduating class. It is the annual for the Senior class of college and of the E.
I. high school. It is also the year book for the school year. Everyone who has not bought a Warbler should do so. Of course there will be a year book for next year, but there can be only one 1922 Warbler. Be sure that you own one before you go home for summer vacation.

THE OLD BOYS (1917)

Who is the one with the empty sleeve?
Some sport who was in the swim.
And the one with the ribbon who's home on leave?
Good Lord! I remember him!
A hulking fool, low down in the school,
And no good at games was he—
All fingers and thumbs—and very few chums.
(I wish he'd shake hands with me!)

Who is the one with the heavy stick.
Who seems to walk from the shoulder?

Why, many's the goal you have watched him kick!
He's looking a lifetime older.
Who is the one that's so full of fun—
I never beheld a blither—
Yet his eyes are fixt as the furrow betwixt?
He cannot see out of either.

Who are the ones that we cannot see,
Though we feel them as near as near?

In chapel one felt them bend the knees,

At the match one felt them cheer.
In the deep still shade of the Colonnade,

In the ringing quad's full light,
They are laughing here, they are chaffing there,
Yet never in sound or sight.

Oh, those are the ones who never shall leave,
As they once were afraid they would!

They marched away from the school at eve,

But at dawn came back for good.
With deathless blooms from un-coffin'd tombs

To lay at our Founder's shrine.
As many are they as ourselves today,
And their place is yours and mine.

But who are ones they can help or harm?

Each small boy, never so new,
Has an elder brother to take his arm,
And show him the thing to do—
And the thing to resist with a doubled fist,

If he'd be nor knave nor fool—
And the game to play if he'd tread the way

Of the school behind the school.
By E. W. Hornung.

SUMMER SCHOOL

The first six weeks summer school will start June 12th. The attendance this year is expected to reach over one thousand. The capacities of the school will be extended in order to accommodate them. All high school students below this year's eleventh year class that do not expect to teach next year will not be allowed to attend school. This action is necessary because of the large number of teachers that will be here this summer.

Immediately following the first summer school, there will be a second summer school. All the summer students are urged to arrange their courses so that the credits that they will make will count towards graduation.

After graduation from a four year high school, a student may earn a diploma by attending three twelve weeks summer school, and one year of regular school work.

PINAFORE

It is our great pleasure to have the opportunity to review the Junior class play, Pinafore. Following is the dramatic personnel:

St. Hon. Sir Joseph Pouter, K. C. B.
First Lord of the Admiralty, Samner
Anderson.

Captain Corcoran, Captain R. M. B.
Pinafore, Glen Moore.

Ralph Rackstraw, able seaman,
Kenneth Roney.

Dick Dead Eye, able seaman, Myrie
Shaffer.

Bill Bobstay, boatswain, LeRoy Goble.

Bob Becket, boatswain mate, William Prewitt.

Josephine, the captain's daughter,
Louise Means.

Hebe, Sir Joseph's Cousin, Lillian Mercer.

Little Buttercup, Portsmouth bum boat woman, Helen Holdoway.

First Lord's sisters, cousins and aunts, Mona Ferguson, J. Frances Tiffin, Margaret Mercer, Sylvia Taylor, Olive Buchanan, Flora Becker, Olive Mapes, Dorothy Jordan.

It is impossible to pick a star for all were stars. The chorus work was remarkably good, the solos and duets uncovered some surprisingly fine E.
I. talent. Every actor fitted his part.
Sumner Anderson was the typical "stage" English snob. He carried his part very well. Glen Moore's, "hardly ever" captured the audience. Kenneth Roney was an excellent lover and in his solos showed the result of careful training. Myrie Shafer, Le-Roy Goble, Paul Hall, Alfred Iknayan and William Prewitt completed the boys chorus. Shafer was a "hard boiled" Dick Dead Eye and Goble an amusing counter. In Louise Means, Lillian Mercer and Helen Holdoway the Juniors may boast of three very pretty and talented actresses. Sir Joseph's sisters, cousins and aunts formed the girls chorus and were on a par with the "sailors."

This writer believes the recitative
and chorus, "Oh, bias, oh, rapture, unforseen" at the end of the last act was the best feature of all the entirely excellent program.

The credit for direction goes to Miss Major and Miss Daringer. Mr.
Arthur Folk gave great assistance as an accompanist.

It was said by an observer who has seen many E. I. class plays that "Pinafore" has been equaled by only one class, the one which presented
"The Mikado."

THE NEWS, 1922-23

The News staff is planning to make the paper larger and better next year.
Of course this will greatly increase the expenses above what they were for the last year. Part of this new expense, but only a small part, can be secured from increased advertisement.

The bulk of the new funds mu-come from a larger circulation among the alumni. Every year the number of this group becomes larger. Next year the News staff will have eighty new alumni to sell the News to.

For some reason the alumni do not support the school paper as they should. Part of this is due to the staff, but the main fault lies with the alumni. They should be and usually are interested in E. I. school affairs.

However, in the fall of the year they are so interested in opening up their schools that they forget to subscribe for the "News". All the Seniors and students that will not be back next year should subscribe for the paper before they leave this spring. Give your name and next year's address or home address to Mr.
Paul Hall or Mr. Robert Shoemaker.
