STRASBURG

WELCOME!

TO THE TWELFTH SEASON

Although Vivian Vance starring in The Marriage-Go-Round on May 25th marks the first show of the 1968 spring-summer-fall season at The Little Theatre-On The Square, this production will be the ninth opening for producer Guy S. Little, Jr. this year. Immediately after presenting Rosemary Prinz in A Girl Could Get Lucky in December-January in Sullivan, Mr. Little left for Phoenix, Arizona where he was engaged as producer for the 21st season at the famous Sombrero Playhouse. While in Phoenix, Mr. Little presented Howard Keel, Ray Walston, Kathryn Crosby, Mildred Natwick, Cornelia Otis Skinner and other greats of American show business in addition to Ann Sothern, Robert Cummings and Vivian Vance. . . all who will appear in Sullivan this season. Mr. Little returned to Sullivan in time to remodel the balcony of the theatre, removing the old projection booth and elevating the seats; and installing a new curved stage curtain—all to celebrate the opening of the 12th season in Sullivan.

Long before Mr. Little opened the Grand Theatre back in 1957, he hoped and planned that someday he would have a theatre where musicals and plays could be presented. He got his first job in professional theatre as an apprentice at the Keene, New Hampshire Summer Theatre in 1951 and worked the two following summers at the Gateway Musical Playhouse near Atlantic City.

After graduation from the University of Miami, Mr. Little took graduate courses at Columbia University and The American Theatre Wing before returning to central Illinois in the spring of 1957 to look for a theatre location.

Not having success locating a suitable theatre in any of the larger cities in downstate Illinois, Mr. Little decided to lease the movie house in his native Sullivan. Since the opening of Brigadoon on July 3, 1957, Mr. Little has presented 112 major productions—both plays and musicals—featuring many outstanding stars and supporting casts from Broadway, Hollywood, TV and Opera. The first season ran nine weeks and had an attendance of 8,000. The Little Theatre-On The Square was open for twenty-four weeks last year and had an attendance of 80,000. . . a most gratifying increase! The Little Theatre-On The Square also has a Children's Theatre which presents productions for young audiences on Saturdays during late June, July and August. Mr. Little strongly believes that stock should be a proving-ground and workshop for young talent to develop as actors-singers-dancers and technicians. Thirty outstanding apprentices are accepted each year from over 100 applicants; these young students who have come from most every state in the country, learn every phase of theatre operation while they are working towards membership in Equity, the actor's union. After experience in Sullivan, many have gone on to successful careers on Broadway and TV.

In addition to his productions in Sullivan, Mr. Little managed the Piccolo Playhouse in Joliet and has had touring productions that have played leading theatres in Michigan, Ohio, Colorado, Connecticut and New York. Mr. Little works year around booking outstanding stars such as June Allyson, Dennis Weaver, John Payne, Margaret O'Brien, Julia Meade, Linda Darnell, Marie Wilson, Eddie Bracken, Joe E. Brown, Margaret Truman, Cesar Romero, Mercedes McCambridge, Andy Devine, Gardner McKay, Alan Young and Carl Betz.

Mr. Little has directed many of the productions, designed and built the scenery, and has appeared in many of the shows. His favorite roles include Mr. Snow in Carousel, Lt. Cable in South Pacific and Kenneth in Call Me Madam.

Guy met his wife, Jerili, when they were both studying theatre at the University of Miami. Jerili has starred in many productions in Sullivan and on tour and has established a following wherever she has performed. The Littles have been married fourteen years and have two children, Vanessa, age twelve and Sean, age six. Both children have been active in the Sullivan productions.

The operation of a star theatre for twelve years in a town with a population of less than 4,000 has been called "the miracle of Sullivan" by theatre historians. Guy S. Little, Jr. gratefully salutes the faithful central Illinois audiences who have patronized The Little Theatre-On The Square since 1957.

When buying precious gems and fine jewelry, you must place yourself in the hands of a trusted jeweler, for few outside of the profession either know or understand the fine nuances of gemology or gem value. How to find him? Since 1934, membership in the American Gem Society has been symbolic of fine, trusted jewelers throughout the United States and Canada. This firm, like only some 900 others, is proud to claim this distinction. May we welcome you soon?

ANN SOTHERN (Maud Abbott) was born in North Dakota, daughter of Walter J. and Annette-Yde Lake, and comes from a talented musical family. Her mother was a concert soprano, her maternal grandfather, Hans Nilson, a famed Danish violinist. Miss Sothern has made such notable musical films as Panama Hattie, As Thousands Cheer and Lady Be Good. Then came the fabulous success of Maisie which turned into a hit film series. She left this characterization to star in several more pictures—A Letter To Three Wives, Cry Havoc and Blue Gardenia—before moving to television. Miss Sothern, famous for her comedy assignments, recently returned to pictures after an absence of seven years with a critically acclaimed portrayal of a greedy woman of the streets in Lady In A Cage. After that she completed a key role in The Best Man. In the Paramount picture, Sylvia, Miss Sothern portrays a blowsy cashier in a honkytonk penny arcade who becomes involved in an investigator's search into a beautiful woman's shadowy past. Commenting on the complete change of characterization, Miss Sothern observed, "People forget that I started my career in drama. After so many comedies, I'm enthusiastic about returning to it. I hope to continue in serious parts from time to time and do more pictures."

During her absence from the screen, Miss Sothern has been a topflight television actress in two hit series, Private Secretary and The Ann Sothern Show. Other current activities include her "Countess" role on seven Lucy Shows with Lucille Ball, My Mother, The Car, in which Miss Sothern was heard but not seen as Mother, and a most exciting and critically acclaimed dramatic performance on the Alfred Hitchcock Show. Miss Sothern's recent stage success have included Barefoot in The Park and Gypsy.

In addition to her acting career, Miss Sothern is a musician, composer, cattle breeder, and television producer. She is especially proud of her daughter, Tisha, recognized as one of the most beautiful debutantes in New York.

Miss Sothern has a home in Sun Valley, Idaho, where she spends the winter skiing.

DONALD SYMINGTON (Steve Whitney) was first seen by Broadway audiences in Caesar and Cleopatra with Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Lili Palmer. Subsequently, he was featured opposite Janet Blair in F. Hugh Herbert's A Girl Can Tell, in George Abbott's production of A Soft Touch, and in the New York City Center productions of Dream Girl and Lute Song. Off-Broadway he played Dr. Cucrowitz in Tennessee William's Suddenly Last Summer and Lord Windemere in the musical of Lady Windemere's Fan. On tour he played Arlene Francis' husband in Janus, opposite Marie Wilson in For Love or Money, and with Tallulah Bankhead in Here Today. For several years Mr. Symington played 'Jack Andrews' on the CBS serial Love of Life. He was featured with the Lunts in the Hallmark production of The Magnificent Yankee, opposite Jeanne Crane in the TV musical of Meet Me In St. Louis, with Vivian Blaine in Hallmark's Dream Girl and in the days of live TV, he appeared on shows such as Kraft, Studio One, Climax, Armstrong Circle Theatre and Playhouse 90.

JEANNETTE LEAHY (Ethel Nash), who played Rosemary in Picnic with Robert Horton, is the talented and versatile leading lady who has excelled in almost every facet of show business. On stage her versatility ranges from Gittle in Two For The Seesaw to the lead in Madwoman of Chaillot. She has been featured with such stars as Tom Ewell in Life With Father and Harvey, Marvin Miller and Robert

Q. Lewis in Catch Me If You Can, Gloria Swanson in The Inkwell and Reprise, Vivian Vance in Over 21, and Jane Russell in Skylark, among many others.

ART KASSUL (Gus Kennedy) with more than 200 stage credits, appeared at the Little Theatre-On the Square for the first time last season and immediately endeared himself to Central Illinois audiences. They will long remember his performances as Oscar in The Odd Couple, Paul in You Can't Take It With You, Father in Life With Father and Velasco in Barefoot In The Park.

Off-Broadway Mr. Kassul has appeared as Uncle Ben in the Equity Library production of A Trip To Chinatown. On national tours he has had major roles in Taming of the Shrew, Moby Dick, and in Claudia with Jeanne Crane. Stock theatres across the country have featured Art Kassul with Jeffry Hunter in The Rainmaker, Joan Caulfield in Roar Like a Dove, Peggy Cass in Everybody Loves Opal, John Payne in Calculated Risk, and Dwayne Hickman in Drink To Me Only.

Television dramatic roles include appearances on East Side, West Side, Decoy and Big Story. The Art Kassul face and voice often appear in TV commercials.

GERTRUDE BERMAN (Mrs. MacDonald) who delighted audiences in the Little Theatre-On the Square production of Picnic, will also be remembered for her outstanding performances in Happiest Years with David Nelson, Bye Bye Birdie with Jack Chaplin, and Oklahoma! with Peter Palmer. Miss Berman has made a career of playing the mother in Barefoot in the Park, having appeared in this play for over six months at Chicago's Candlelight Theatre and Country Club Theatre. Gertrude has been featured at Drury Lane Theatre in Lullaby with Peggy Cass, Light Up The Sky with Gypsy Rose Lee, and Goodbye, My Fancy with June Havoc.

ANNE ARCHER (Agnes Bell) appeared with Miss Sothern at Phoenix's Sombbrero Playhouse this winter, making her professional debut. However, Miss Archer has been active in theatre all of her life, having toured with her mother, Marjorie Lord, in productions of Blithe Spirit (which was presented in Sullivan in 1961), The Wayward Stork, with Hal March, Anniversary Waltz, and Mary, Mary. Miss Archer's other roles include Sabina in The Skin Of Our Teeth, Regina in The Little Foxes, Reina in Arms And the Man, and Helena in A Midsummer Night's Dream.

MARY JO ENOCH (Claire Abbott), a regular on The Mike Douglas Show, recently appeared as Corie in Barefoot in the Park with Ann Sothern at Mill Run Playhouse in Chicago. She was given the "Woman of the Year in the Arts" award in St. Louis where she worked at the Gateway Theatre starring in A View From the Bridge, Two For The Seesaw, Mary, Mary, I Am a Camera, among other productions. Miss Enoch has also played Honey in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? in Los Angeles and was featured in Rhinoceros, Jewish Wife, Hotel Paradiso, You Can't Take It With You, and Leave It To Jane.

GEORGE PAULSON (Terry Abbott) is a Chicago area juvenile actor with credits at many leading theatres including Pheasant Run Playhouse, Drury Lane Theatre, Candlelight Theatre and O'Hare Inn Theatre. He has had experience in radio and television, appearing on CBS television and radio and on The Hazel Show on NBC. Audiences will remember him for his many TV commercials including Sealtest Ice Cream, Purina Dog Chow, Clearasil and Sara Lee. Earlier this spring, he appeared with Fabian in Stalag 17.
