HIGH SCHOOLS

You are planning to send athletes to the Field and Track Meet May 6, why not send singers May 4 - 5?

FACULTY ENTERTAIN

The Pedagogy Players (Faculty) entertained an enthusiastic audience, consisting of the student body and friends of the faculty, with three clever and well presented one-act plays. The students knew that Mr. Widger and Miss Rooke could act, having seen them in the faculty's carnival play; but the unusual abilities of the others (as actors) came as a pleasant surprise.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Two Crooks and a Lady
Miller, the Hawk
Howard DeF. Widger
Lucille, his Accomplice
Marguerite Rooke
Mrs. Simms-Vane
Isabel McKinney
Miss Jones, her Companion
Lena B. Ellington
Police Inspector
Lawrence F. Ashley
Garrity Charles P. Lantz
Scene—The library in the Fifth Avenue home of Mrs. Simms-Vane.

The Maker of Dreams
Pierrot Ruth E. Major
Pierrette Gertrude E. Woodfill
The Manufacturer
(Margaret A. Cant
Scene, a room in an old cottage
Suppressed Desires
Henrietta Brewster
Agnes Stewart
Stephen Brewster
Earl R. K. Daniels
Mabel Lois F. Shortess
Scene—The studio of the Brewsters in a Washington Square apartment.
Two weeks pass between Scene I and Scene II.

Our Enterprising Advertisers

Two of our advertisers, the corner confectionery and the college restaurant have lately installed new and larger fountains. This is a fair sample of the policy that our advertisers pursue, maintaining the best and newest in stock and an earnest desire to give satisfaction to all customers. We wish to call attention to the different ads, "the special clearance sales as well as the other ads. Only the best advertise with us. The advertising is worthy of your attention. ## Martha Washington Dance

The girls of the school gave their Martha Washington dance last Saturday evening from 8:00 until 12:00 o'clock. Boggs' orchestra of Champaign furnished the music for the evening. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Lantz, Mr. and Mrs. Spooner, Miss Molyneux and Mr. Brown. There were about seventy couples on the floor, many of them alumni and former students. A dropped ceiling of blue and gray streamers, and the use of lattice work and potted plants on the sides and in the corners of the floor transformed the "little gym". The decorations were remarkably well done, especially in the small details. The whole affair was well planned and executed.

Tonight at 7:00 the moving picture, "Julius Caesar," will be shown. Students of the college and high school departments admitted on entertainment course tickets, elementary school pupils on special tickets issued to them, people outside of the school, admission 25 cents, children 15 cents.

This should attract a large audience. This attraction will be given a short review next week.

If you have not joined the Music Festival Contest, why not? Do it now!

Ninth Grade Party

The girls of the ninth grade gave a party to the boys in room 6 Monday evening from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. The room was beautifully decorated with red and white, the class colors. The evening was spent in dancing and playing games. Homemade candies, ice cream and heart-shaped cookies were served as refreshments. Miss Ragan, Miss Talley and Miss Bussard were chaperones.

E. I. 15, Indiana Normal 32

E. I. was decisively beaten at Terre Haute Saturday afternoon by the Indiana Normal team. The score at half time was 14-7 in favor of Indiana. A total of four fouls was called during the game, one on E. I. and three on Indiana Normal. It was eleven minutes before either side made a point. Indiana used about three teams during the game. Fawley made 3 baskets. Wilson 2 and Crowe 2. The team felt the absence of Lynch and Black.

E. I. high plays Windsor at Windsor tomorrow night, and Neoga here Friday night. As both teams are tournament contestants, the results will furnish a basis for comparison. It will be remembered that the T. C. high team defeated Neoga on their floor about ten days ago, 28-24. Both games should be E. I. victories.

THE MUSIC FESTIVAL

The separation of the "goats" from the "sheep" is now taking place in the large Teachers College chorus, many of the pupils that cannot sing being dismissed. A noted improvement in the quality of the singing is the result. Without doubt the chorus will now improve very rapidly, and will be in excellent condition by the fourth of May, when it will be only a part of the large massed chorus.

It is hard to estimate the value of the music festival, both to the students of the college and of the different high schools that take part in it; and to the people that will be so fortunate as to have the pleasure of listening to the different numbers on the program.

Sullivan high school, winner of second place in 1920, and third in 1921, will have a chorus here this year. This high school is one of the most enthusiastic of all the schools entering the festival. Mr. T. H. Finley writes, "I believe that our girls will get a great benefit from listening to the E. I. chorus."

Mr. C. Coopier Groves of the Neoga Township High School writes: "We enjoyed the meeting last year, and want our high school represented again this year. . . . We hope to take part in the mass chorus, as that is quite an inspiration to our young folks."

These are only two examples of how the different high schools feel towards the Music Festival. Many similar quotations could be given from the different high schools, and from people that have attended one or both of the two festivals that have been held here. Probably the one to be held this year, is being looked forward to with more interest than either of the two preceding ones.

The festival proved a great success in 1920, but each year the committee in charge is improving it by adding some new feature, the one this year being a mass chorus of eight hundred to one thousand children from the grade schools of Charleston.

The Music Festival on May fourth and fifth, followed by the annual field and track meet on the sixth, will be three great days in the school year.

Tickets for the tournament are now on sale.

Charles Prather, Editor. Robert Shoemaker, Business Manager.

Lillian Myers, Associate Editor. Harold Kerr, Society Editor.

Gage Carman, Alumni Editor.

A. E. Thomas, Faculty Adviser

Published weekly by the students of the Eastern Illinois State Teachers' College on each Tuesday during the school year at 611 Jackson St., Charleston, Ill.

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 8, 1915 at the Post Office at Charleston, Ill., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Relating to the Tournament
Tickets were put on sale yesterday. The first reservation was Kansas with 125 seats. Others will immediately follow.

The ground men are busy constructing two rows of bleacher seats in the balcony. Back of these bleachers will be a raised floor for standing room. Downstairs some bleachers will be arranged on the sides and others built on the ends. A total of 616 seats will be reserved. A reserved seat for the entire tournament will cost $2.50. Single admission will be fifty cents, final games 75 cents. The number of seats not reserved will amount to less than a hundred. Standing room will take care of about 150 more basketball fans.

Drawings for the tournament and the officials will be forwarded by the by the state high school A. A. to Coach Lantz this week.

There will be a total of seven-teen games, four Thursday night, three Friday morning, three Friday afternoon, three Friday night, two Saturday afternoon and two Saturday night.

All the equipment in the gym, including that overhead will be removed this week, and the windows covered. New hoops and new leather baskets will be used.

Registration days for the spring term will be Feb. 28, 24 and 25, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The middle of next term always sees a large enrollment of new students who intend to take summer school work.

Mr. Koch played a selection on the zither in chapel Saturday morning, much to the enjoyment of the school and several visitors.

PROGRESS OF DRAMATIC CLUB

The dramatic club met at 7:30 in the reading room last Thursday evening. The meeting was opened by the adoption of the statement of the aim of the club. The report of the program committee then was read. The club is to be divided into four groups, each group to have charge of one of the four meetings. The following plays will be presented in the order of their presentation at the next four meetings: "The Bank Account," "Helena's Husband," "Aria da Copa" and "Ruby Red." March 1 is the date of the next meeting, at which will be presented 'The Bank Account.' The society voted to hold the regular meetings every two weeks. By the time of the next meeting, a number of suggestions for a name for the club should be ready. The cast and a short synopsis of the play for the next meeting will be published in our next issue.

After the business part of the meeting was over, the president read an amusing one-act farce, "Eugenically speaking," in which Bernard Shaw had a little fun poked at him. The meeting adjourned after some discussion over a name for the society.

E. I. HIGH 14, CHARLESTON HIGH 34

Inability to stand the full four quarters of the game was the chief cause of E. I.'s being defeated by a twenty point margin by Charleston High last Wednesday night. The half ended 16-12 in favor of last year's district champions. In the last quarter, Charleston High was able to run up their score from 19 to 34, while their opponents could only make one basket. While the T. C. high school team made only 4 out of 14 free throws, Charleston hit 10 out of 14. Muchmore was the star of the game, caging 7 field goals and 4 free throws. His teammate, Brainard, made 4 goals and 4 free throws. Hall for E. I. easily topped his teammates in shooting and floor work. Charleston had the better team, but the game should have been much closer, and would have been if the E. I. team had all been in condition.

The gym had the biggest crowd of the season. The game was refereed in "Rocky's" usual excellent way.

Referee, Hampton, M. H. S. Timer, Nehrling. Scorer, Coyle.

Charles Allen was decorated by General Pershing at the University of Illinois last week. "Chad" was on the championship rifle squad at Fort Sheridan last summer, and received this medal for expert marksmanship.

Both games with Shurdick have been canceled. The only conference game left is with Lincoln at Lincoln, Mar. 8.

Warbler 1922

The Warbler staff are busy on the Annual for 1922. They want the co-operation of the faculty and student body in making it a success. This may cause a little inconvenience to some members of the school, but everyone should be willing to give a little of his time to help the staff. Prompt attention to any suggestion or request that the editor-in-chief makes should be attended to at once.

Girls' Athletics

The annual girls' basketball tournament will be held the first week in the new term, Mar. 6-11. Only four teams will compete, representing the following classes: Sophomore college, Freshman college, 11th and 12th year, and 10th year.

Charleston High '33, Paris 17, Saturday. Brainard and Muchmore starred, the same two players who performed in such stellar roles at E. I. last Wednesday night.

THE GIRL'S DREAM

As I dream, I seemed to stand
Within the realm of fairyland.

The air was heavy with perfume
Of roses bursting into bloom,
And music from an unseen hand
Rippled softly thru the land.

Light, like moonbeams piercing thru
Silver-crested clouds of blue,
Fell upon this Eden bower,
In a soft, illum'ning shower.

Drifting light, as fallen leaves
Driven by an autumn breeze,
A happy, care-free pageant throng,
Of fairy dancers passed along.

Their charming beauty o'er me fell,
As a tender binding spell,
Holding me, spell-bound, to gaze
In growing wonder and amaze.

Till I began to wonder why
Such a common thing as I
Should ever be allowed to look
On this enchanted fairy nook.

And then there came a great surprise,
For I began to realize
It was not fairyland at all.

But the "gym" at old Pen Hall

Changed by beautiful disguise
Into an elin paradise,

And those fairy dancers there
Were our E. I. girls so fair.

L. Crouse.

Tournament Arrangements

Officials of the tournament are Clarno of Champaign and Hamilton of Bridgeport. The eligibility lists of the different high schools are coming in every day. Many schools are bringing 12 players, although only 10 from each school can take part in the games.

There will be school on Feb. 22, Washington's birthday. This will allow school to be dismissed on Thursday, Mar. 2, instead of Friday. The students, by this announcement, will get to see all of the high school tournament games. The tournament starts Thursday night.

Four Reels Shown

Four reels of moving pictures were shown last Friday evening in the assembly room. One was a Pathe Review. The other three were "Quaint Rouen," "Apple Blossom Time in Normandy, and a red cross film, "Amid Archangel Snows."

The' Dansant

The girls of Pemberton Hall and Miss Molyneux displayed abilities as hostesses and entertained the students and faculty with a the' dansant in the Hall parlors Friday afternoon from four o'clock to five-thirty.

The parent-teachers association of the elementary school will hold their regular meeting at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon in the first grade room. From the beginning of classes until 3:30 will be visiting afternoon for the parents.

Sketch of Washing- ton's Life

George Washington was born Feb. 22, 1732, at Bridges Creek, Va. At the age of three years he was placed under the charge of a teacher to learn his alphabet. In 1738, he was sent to live with his his half-brother, Augustine, and obtain the benefits of a school kept by a Mr. Williams. There he received what would now be called a fair common school education, with some mathematical training. He was a tall, active and muscular boy. He could outwalk, outrun and out-ride any of his companions. We know further that he was honest and true, and a lad of unusual promise, not because of the goody-goody anecdotes of the myth-maker, but because he was liked and trusted by such men as Lord Fairfax.

Washington studied under Mr. Williams till he fitted himself for a surveyor. In the spring of 1748 Lord Fairfax sent him to survey the vast Fairfax estates beyond the Blue Ridge Mountains. After this was done, Washington was appointed public surveyor. While holding this office he had a chance at a library, and soon was able to improve his mind, and also to refine his manners. When the French began trespassing on the English wilderness, Washington was chosen by Governor Dinwiddie to carry a message to the French commanders warning them not to do so. At this time Washington was not yet twenty-two. He was daring and adventurous, but yet sober-minded and responsible. He delivered the message and soon the Great French War began, in which he took an active part.

On Jan. 6, 1759, he was married to Martha Danbridge. Three months after his marriage, he took his seat in the House of Burgesses. When he took his seat, Mr. Robinson, the speaker, thanked him in eloquent words for his services to the country during the French War. Washington rose to reply, but he was so utterly unable to talk about himself that he stood before the house stammering and blushing until the speaker said, "Mr. Washington, your modesty equals your valor, and that surpasses any language I possess."

In June, 1775, Washington took command of the colonial army and was a great and successful leader during the entire Revolutionary War. After the war he set himself to develop public opinion in favor of a better government, and he worked at this difficult task without ceasing from the day he resigned the army until he was called to the Presidency of the United States. After the constitution of the United States had been formed and ratified by the states, Washington was put at the head of the new government by being unanimously elected as first President of the United States.
