Handicapped to gain from facility upgrading

by Laura Fraembs and Marcel Bright

Several Eastern facilities will undergo renovations totaling $600,000 to meet federal standards of accessibility to handicapped persons.

Wayne Owens, director of institutional research and studies said recently that Eastern is required to have all changes made by June 30, 1980, to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, an amendment prohibiting discrimination on the basis of physical handicaps in any program receiving federal financial aid.

Owens said that there are currently 78 students at Eastern who are classified as handicapped, but none of them are confined to wheel chairs.

Eastern could lose all federal assistance it now receives, "including student assistance," if it does not make changes allowing full participation by the handicapped by 1980, he said.

Owens said that almost all of the academic buildings and a few of the dorms will be remodeled for availability.

Changes will include "adding elevators or ramps, lowering telephone and drinking fountains, widening doors and lowering probably two lab tables in each lab," he said.

Construction should begin in the summer of 1979 if the 1978 budget is approved, Owens said, which would leave a year for completion of the remodeling.

A transition plan and self-evaluation describing the changes which must be made have been completed, Owens said.

Waiting for budget approval is the next step, Owens added.

In a detailed analysis of each campus building the transition plan lists the areas of renovation and the approximate cost.

In the Physical Science Building, exterior curb ramps will cost approximately $200, elevator renovations, $4,400 and lab station renovations, $1,600.

McAfee Gymnasium will require installation of an elevator at a cost of $30,000, exterior ramps costing $2,500, handrails, signs, and water fountains for $5,000 and renovation of restrooms, $2,400.

In the Life Science Building an elevator will be installed for $30,000, restroom renovations made for $2,400 and eight lab station changes installed for $1,600.

The Life Science annex would require an elevator for $30,000, restroom renovations for $2,400 and eight lab station renovations at $1,600.

Coleman Hall would require an elevator at a cost of $20,000, since an elevator shaft already exists, three exterior ramps costing $1,000 and restroom renovations costing $2,400.

Renovations in the Student Services Building include an elevator for $30,000, restrooms for $4,800 and $5,000 in miscellaneous renovations.

Clinical Services renovations include installing an elevator on the south side of the building and changing restrooms for $2,400.

Blair Hall renovations would also include installing an elevator at $40,000, changing restrooms, $4,800 and miscellaneous changes, $5,000.

University Union renovations include elevator rehabilitation at $6,400. The Union addition was listed as satisfactory and would require no renovations.

Lantz Building renovations would be minimal, unless the pool area requires the installation of a hoist to assist individuals into the water.

Residence hall renovations would be made in Taylor Hall for $12,800 and Ford Hall for $10,700.

Both included installation of visual and auditory fire alarm systems at a cost of $2,000 for each dorm.

Internships proposed for women, minorities

by Marcel Bright

A proposal requesting an on-campus internship program in administration for women and minorities was presented to President Daniel E. Marvin recently.

Robert Barger, Eastern's Affirmative Action director, said Friday the program is designed to provide knowledge and experience to strengthen qualifications of minorities and women so that they can meet the entry level expectations of administrative positions at Eastern or other universities.

Barger said that there would be several advantages to instituting this type of program at Eastern.

"This would create a ready pool of personnel prepared for both administration and for teaching," Barger said. "There are also few universities making this type of effort. Ours could be a model."

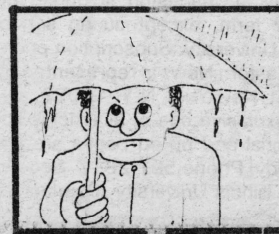

"Most of the reasons given for not hiring minorities at high level administrative posts is they don't have experience," he said. "This program provides that experience."

Barger said the program would be open to all women and minority faculty members on a voluntary basis with no special pay or recognition beyond letters of recommendation and statements of accomplishment.

The courses would include

Management 3310, Data Processing 2250, Educational Administration, 6660, and 6870, and Educational Psychology 4770.

Barger said that each intern would be given a chance to spend time each week in certain offices on campus. Seminars would cover topics such as government, and public relations.

Showers likely

Monday will be variably cloudy with showers and thunderstorms likely with a high in the 70s. Monday night will be mostly cloudy and cool with showers likely with a low in the mid 40s.

Decision baffles Germans

BONN, West Germany (AP) - President Carter's decision to defer production of the neutron warhead spotlights West Germany's dilemma in dealing with a weapon many military planners see as the key to NATO's defense against a Soviet-bloc invasion.

West Germany would be the first battleground in a Soviet-led armored blitz, most military strategists agree. Bonn wants the neutron weapon to counter Communist military superiority, including the Warsaw Pact's 3 to 1 numerical advantage in tanks.

But domestic political considerations forced the government to muffle its support. U.S. officials said the lukewarm official reaction to the weapon in Western Europe was one reason Carter decided to delay production.

Treaty changes bad—Boyd

PANAMA CITY, Panama (AP) - Former Foreign Minister Aquilino Boyd said Sunday that U.S. Senate changes in a Panama Canal treaty are an insult to Panama and should be rejected.

The Senate on March 16 approved two treaties designed to eventually give the canal to Panama. Boyd said a clause in that treaty "authorizes intervention in our internal affairs . . . and as a consequence of which we reject the treaty."

Boyd, who had served as Panama's chief negotiator on the canal, said in a telephone interview that the treaty is "immoral because the strong once again are trying to wield excessive power against the weak, and illegal because it violates the U.N. Charter."

Three die from poisoning

CHICAGO (AP) - The recent fuel crisis and accompanying fuel-saving measures may be the cause of an increasing number of cases of carbon monoxide poisoning, two Baltimore physicians say.

Twelve persons suffered poisoning and three died in three instances of carbon monoxide poisoning during two winter seasons, the doctors report in the April 14 issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

The physicians, Drs. James S. Kelley and Gregory J. Sophocleus of the department of ophthalmology at the Greater Baltimore Medical Center, say the increasing number of cases of carbon monoxide poisoning "may be related to the recent fuel crisis and the change in heating and insulation methods."

Newspaper vigilance urged

WASHINGTON (AP) - Ralph Nader urged newspapers Sunday to pay more attention to public complaints and recommended that citizen groups give close scrutiny to their local newspapers.

"Newspapers are a privileged and lucrative industry," Nader said. "The only way to ensure that they become more accountable to the people they serve is through active appraisal by the public."

"No other industry has explicit constitutional protection against government regulation of their product. And no other industry has a local monopoly in 97 1/2 percent of the towns they operate in without any form of public review," Nader said.

Muriel: will not run again

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) - Muriel Humphrey, who stepped briefly from behind the shadow of her late husband into the U.S. Senate, says she'll return to the privacy of her family. But that does not mean the name Humphrey won't remain in Minnesota's political consciousness - or the nation's.

Mrs. Humphrey told fellow members of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party at a fund-raising dinner Saturday night that she would not run for the four years left in the Senate term of Hubert H. Humphrey.

Celebration '78: back by popular demand

by Pam Olson

Once again, students and the area residents will have an opportunity to revel in the arts as "Celebration '78-A Festival of the Arts" becomes a reality April 14 to 16.

The second annual festival will again be a showcase of all the fine arts, including visual arts, music, theatre, dance, poetry and crafts.

Dean of the School of Fine Arts Vaughn Jaenike, who is Celebration '78 general chairperson, said recently that the purpose of the festival "is to bring the arts to the people and the people to the arts."

He added that "all through history,

Celebration '78 A Festival of the Arts

people have celebrated life through the arts. What we really want is for people to come out and celebrate life with us at the festival."

Jaenike said the celebration festival got its start through a discussion between the chairpersons of the Art, Theatre and Music departments, and Phil Settle, Assistant Dean of Fine Arts, Rod Buffington, director of the Sargeant Art Gallery and Jaenike.

Jaenike said they decided on a festival format that would appeal to everyone and which would represent "all arts media; run the whole gamut."

Jaenike said last year's festival was successful enough to warrant planning for Celebration '78 one week after Celebration '77 ended.

Jaenike said Celebration '78 will be funded in part by The Illinois Arts Council, The National Endowment for the Arts, The Charles E. Merrill Trust, Kiwanis, Rotary, Trailmobile and other businesses and through admissions, concessions and donations.

Jaenike added that "approximately $10,000" has been budgeted for Celebration '78.

He said Celebration will probably break even but any money made "will be put in a special fund for next year's festival."

Celebration '78 will be heralded by "trumpeters on building tops" in the library quad each day of the festival.

The opening ceremonies at noon Friday will be highlighted by welcoming speeches by Eastern President Daniel E. Marvin and Jaenike, a performance by the United Campus Ministry's "Godspell" cast and a balloon send-off.

Opening ceremonies will also be held at 11 a.m. Saturday and noon Sunday.

UB to present BTO concert in Lantz Gym

The University Board will present Bachman Turner Overdrive on April 26 as the spring semester concert.

BTO will appear at 8 p.m. at the Lantz Building.

Ticket sales for BTO will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. beginning April 17 at the University Union Box Office, Bob Gear, UB chairperson, said Friday.

Eastern instructor Docter, two others elected to seats

by Ed Cobau

Eastern Life Science instructor Pat Docter, former board president Herman Briggerman and incumbent board member Alvin Coartney all won seats on the Charleston School Board in Saturday's Community Unit One election.

Docter tabbed 975 votes and landed the seat currently held by board member John K. Reed, who is retiring after 28 years of service.

Briggerman easily defeated incumbent board member and Eastern Placement Director Jay Knott and Margaret McGeever of the Home Economics Department for the seat currently held by Knott, gaining a total of 1,044 votes to Knott's 542 and McGeever's 594.

Coartney, a farmer who resides in rural Ashmore, was the biggest vote-getter with 1,142, and easily regained his seat. Coartney received most of his support from Precincts 6 and 7, which includes Charleston High School and Carl Sandburg Elementary School areas.

Losers in Saturday's election were area residents Eugene Simms, with 756 votes, Dave Winnett, with 649 votes, Harold Starwalt, with 614 votes and James Rankin, who totaled 142 votes.

Briggerman, whose resignation last year prompted Coartney's appointment, currently lives in Pleasant Grove township.

He resigned because he moved from his original district to the Township, thus eliminating his eligibility to serve.

Judicial story incorrect

Some information in a story printed Friday concerning a proposal to alter Eastern's judicial system was incorrect.

Throughout the story, reference to a Student-Faculty Commission is made. The correct name for the Board is the Student-Faculty Judicial Board, which will be the appellate court for each of the four Residence Hall Judicial Boards, and will also be the court of original jurisdiction in more serious cases, such as cheating or plagiarism.

The Student Supreme Court will interpret the Student Senate constitution, the Student Bill of Rights, and the constitution of any student activity if a court case is filed.

For the record

The story also was in error concerning the number of students on the North Campus Judicial Board. The board will have seven student members, with one member each representing Ford, Weller, McKinney, Lincoln, Stevenson, Douglas and Pemberton Halls.

According to the proposal, in minor cases, students will have the option of going through their peers, or going through an administrative route.

The News regrets the errors.

Merit awards ...

Editor,

The outrageous decision made by the merit committee to deny merit increases to any faculty member in such Coleman Hall Liberal Arts Departments as Economics, History, Political Science and Sociology is an abuse which should not be countenanced by the President.

As an inhabitant of Coleman Hall for over a decade, I know that many of my colleagues in these departments are intellectuals and concerned individuals who strive to promote the interests of the University in every possible way.

To say to them that they are meritless is an affront of the worst possible kind.

C. A. Hollister,
Prelaw Advisor
Professor, Political Science

...draws fire ...

Editor,

As one of the six students who attempted to take advantage of the opportunity to nominate a faculty member for a Merit Award, I would like to express my disgust for a system of nomination which is obviously designed to prevent any meaningful participation by students.

Despite the fanfare and propaganda espoused by the administration concerning its sincere interest in student input in the above activity, merely reading the form which described the process to be followed was nearly enough to discourage me from nominating the instructor.

Not only did I not have access to the technical data requested, i.e., exact dates of published works etc., but I also did not really want to ask my teacher for a comprehensive, sufficiently detailed list of his/her accomplishments.

There is no need for my efforts in compiling such a list, as only the instructor had this knowledge.

Perhaps the intent is for faculty members to nominate themselves (and their friends). Profit motive is never to be ignored.

First of all, I would like to know how many of the faculty who ultimately received awards were in fact nominated by the six students mentioned in the article by News?

This information was rather blatantly omitted.

Letters to the Editor

How convenient.

Secondly, if the student is incapable of providing the specific data which meets standards outlined by the form, how will he/she fine out and/or remedy the situation?

I was doubtful from the beginning that my letter-essay fulfilled the criteria, and even expressed these fears in the letter.

Perhaps my nominee was bypassed for perfectly good reasons. However, I am not assured that this is so, and before I ever again participate in such an activity, would like to know that my efforts will not be fruitless due to a typing error or an inept system which looks for picky detail rather than substance.

Perhaps only tenured faculty members are considered seriously for the awards, in which case I wasted my time.

Perhaps my sour grapes attitude will preclude my receiving any answers to the above questions, but it certainly reflects my contempt for a ridiculous policy.

If this small scrap of participation offered to students is any example of what to expect, I'll skip the main course, thank you.

Kathryn L. Ingle

Standing up

Editor,

I very seldom write letters of this nature, but in this case I would like to make an exception and offer some comment on the letter that was recently printed entitled "Stood enough."

This letter was a rebuttal against an earlier letter entitled "Minority Actions", both of which revolve around the issue of individuals standing during the National Anthem and the school song.

I find the arguments that were used in "Stood enough" weak and in my opinion unacceptable reasons for not displaying the proper respect that this country and university are due.

The first reason that was used in the letter was that no one should be expected to stand for a song that glorifies war. I disagree.

The Star Spangled Banner glorifies victory at war, not war itself. It glorifies victory, and those who died for it, so that the security of this nation would be preserved.

I realize that war is not a pleasant thing. It is probably one of the most horrible experiences that mankind is forced to endure. However, history has proved time and time again that war is sometimes necessary.

I submit to the writers of "Stood enough" that when they refuse to stand for about two minutes while the National Anthem is being played, they are showing the greatest disrespect to those who died so that myself, the writers of "Stood enough" themselves, and the rest of the people of this country, have freedom of action which includes writing letters to the Eastern News on whether minorities should stand up for the National Anthem.

Now I realize that minorities have had a tough time of it in this country, but that is still no excuse for standing during the National Anthem.

The writers of "Stood enough" are showing disrespect to the country that is in the process of changing itself so that the wrongs of the past are corrected.

Granted, it has taken long enough, but everyone must admit that the lot of the Blacks in America is an improvement over how things were 50 years ago.

I believe that the writers of "Stood enough", by refusing to stand during the National Anthem, are damaging their own cause by a senseless act of defiance.

"Stood enough" also charged that only about 2/3 of the audience stand during the two songs. So what. I know this is an old saying, but it fits, "Two wrongs don't make a right."

I cannot accept the reasons for not standing during our school song either. I believe that this is showing no respect whatsoever to our peers and comrades down on the basketball court.

They are down there representing the students of Eastern Illinois University and I feel that they should not be punished by a group of person who have a gripe with the crowd over in the senate offices over funding.

If the writers of "Stood enough" believe that the facilities for minorities like the Afro-Am. Cultural Center are falling into disrepair, then they should lead an effort to raise additional funds to solve the problems.

I know what it is like to work without funds. I belong to a fraternity that is engaged in a battle against the red ink.

Even though we get no financial aid from either the university or the National, we are still making it.

I feel the same case can apply to something like the Afro-Am. Center. Remember, "The Lord helps those who help themselves."

I would like to conclude with a few remarks concerning the closing statements in "Stood enough." These are the worst of all.

I can see no reason why the writers of "Stood enough" would not want their names to appear with their views.

Labeling the faculty and administration as racist, without offering any proof, and then retreating behind a statement like "name withheld by request", is the coward's way out, and this does not do justice to those cause that Blacks and others are fighting for.

If the writers of "Stood enough" are not willing to state their charges in public, stand behind them, and face the consequences of them, then seriously question their right to use this newspaper to state them at all.

Mark R. Hepner

Letter Policy

The Eastern News encourages letters to the editor so that we may provide a daily forum of opinion on campus. Letters should be typed (double-space) and must carry the author's signature, address and phone number for verification purposes. Author's names will be withheld upon request. Letters are subject to editing for length and libelous material and will be published as space permits.

...from all sides

Editor,

This is a letter in reference to Eastern Illinois University's Outstanding Faculty Merit Awards for the 1976-77 academic year.

As Political Science majors we have had the opportunity to experience many outstanding teachers in the fields of Political Science, History, Economics and Sociology.

Our major concern is the absence of the merit awards being granted to individuals in the above mentioned fields.

We feel public service to both the school and community were not given full consideration in the selection process.

We would like to know what the criteria (excluding the nomination process) is for receiving the merit award.

One candidate to vie for BOG, 28 for senate

by Tom Keefe

Only one student will vie for the Board of Governors student representative position in the April 19 student government elections, the first time the position has not been contested.

Student Senate Elections Co-Chairperson Mark Hudson said Sunday that 28 students filed for the 16 openings in the four senate districts, but only one of them filed for BOG representative.

Off-Campus Senator Julie Sullivan will be the only candidate for BOG student representative because another senator who had earlier filed for the position, Joe Dawson, withdrew his petition, Hudson said.

Dawson could not be reached for comment Sunday concerning his reason for dropping out of the BOG race.

In the At-Large District, 11 candidates will vie for six full-year seats, he said.

The candidates for the At-Large District, in the order that the names will appear on the ballots, are Residence Hall Senator Laura Funk, sophomore Becka Hines, freshman Kevin Busch, sophomore Kathy Dugal, junior John Konrad and freshman Todd R. Daniels.

Also running in the At-Large District will be freshman Boyd Kowalewski, freshman Theresia Perkinson, junior Thomas Murphy, freshman Pat Broderick and sophomore Chris Cooper.

Hudson said 10 candidates will run for four full-year seats in the Residence Hall District.

The candidates are sophomore Patricia Kozlowski, freshman Cindy Haiduck, freshman Bonnie Bijak, freshman Lynn Durante and incumbent Senator Jim Lamonica.

The other candidates in the Residence Hall District are freshman Bob

In the Off-Campus District, Hudson said, five candidates will vie for four full-year seats.

The candidates for the Off-Campus District are current At-Large Senator Missy Rodgers, Off-Campus Senator Kevin Sandefur, junior Joan Simmons, freshman Sandy Black and At-Large Senator Joe Dawson, Hudson said.

He said that only one candidate, Sophomore Ken Colwell, has filed a petition for the one full-year seat in the Organizational Housing District.

Party to begin Greek Week

A 1950's theme will highlight the combination Greek Week kickoff party and fund-raiser for the Muscular Dystrophy Association scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday at Ted's Warehouse.

A $1 admission will be charged, with all proceeds to go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association, senior Deanna Donnelly, co-chairperson for the Greek Week Activities Committee, said recently.

The party will feature a 50's dance contest and bubble gum blowing contest.

Prizes will also be given to those attired in the best 50's costume, Donnelly said.

Hulick to lead graduate recital

Graduate student Brad Hulick will conduct the Chamber Ensemble in a graduate recital at 8 p.m. Monday in Dvorak Concert Hall.

The recital will include selections "Ceremonial March" by Louis Calabro, "Concert Piece" by Samuel H. Adler, and selections from Vincent Persichetti's "Serenade No. 1" and from "Sinfonietta" by Ralph Dale Miller, Hulick said.

The recital is open to the public and free of charge.

Senate abolishes Holden's salary

by Rich Bauer

The Student Senate voted Thursday to eliminate the student body president's salary and tabled a revised proposal to the Bond Revenue Committee and Union Board.

The senate voted 23-3 in favor of eliminating President Tom Holden's salary, which was $20 per week.

Two previous attempts made by the senate to reduce or eliminate the presidential salary were defeated by a close margin.

Senate members stated that since the president already receives tuition and fees, he should not be granted an additional weekly salary.

Another reason for the salary elimination was that the president's duties should not require a salary for compensation.

The senate also voted to table the Bond Revenue revisions, proposed by Residence Hall Senator Jim Lamonica, to give senate members a week to review the proposal.

The revision proposal is an attempt to place more student control over the University Union and dorm budgets, and was formed with Financial Vice President Tom Dersch.

The proposal includes dividing the recently formed Union Board and the Bond Revenue Committee into two separate bond revenue committees, one for the University Union and the other for the residence halls and married housing.

The senate also voted to approve an Apportionment Board decision to appropriate funds for a transmitter for campus radio station WELH and to the Vehicle

Charleston flag vote slated

by John Plevka

Charleston area residents will have an opportunity to vote next week on their favorite entry for the official Charleston city flag.

Brian Daum, the 15-year-old coordinator of the flag contest, explained Thursday that he and members of a special flag committee have narrowed the nine flag design entries down to five.

These five will be displayed next week at six locations around Charleston, including Eastern, for the public to vote on its favorite, Daum said.

The city has never had an official flag, so in February, Daum organized an effort to change that status as part of his Eagle Scout project.

The five finalist designs were submitted by Bob Ritz, John Dallas, Frank Fraembs and Annette Lynch, all of Charleston. Mrs. Lynch submitted two of the five finalist designs.

The public vote will narrow the field down to two, and the city council will make the final decision within a month, Daum said.

All five designs will be on display at the Central Illinois Public Service office, Charleston City Hall, the Charleston National Bank, the Coles County Bank, the Bank of Charleston and either Old Main or the University Union, Daum said.

Fund reaches $1,500

by Mark Cully

The Richard Enochs Memorial Fund has collected enough donation money to gain official status as a regular scholarship fund, Mary Smith of the Housing Office said Thursday.

Smith, speaking to a meeting of the Residence Hall Association, said the memorial fund has collected about $1,500 so far.

Since the EIU Foundation, which channels donations to the university, requires that at least $1,000 be donated to start a scholarship fund, it is now possible to "switch the fund from a memorial fund to a scholarship fund," Smith said.

Four residence halls donated an additional $275 to the fund at the RHA meeting.

Andrews and Carman Halls each gave $100, Stevenson Tower donated $50 and Lincoln Hall submitted $25.

Enochs, formerly director of married housing, died recently of an apparent heart attack.

Artists to exhibit watercolor skills Celebration '78 to feature dancing

Artists to exhibit watercolor skills

A watercolor conference featuring three of the country's top watercolor artists will be held all day Tuesday in the Union addition Grand Ballroom, Bill Heyduck, chairperson of the Art Board, said Sunday.

The featured artists, Yar Chomick, Win Jones and Dong Kingman, will demonstrate their techniques in the conference, which is open to the public.

Jones will open the conference at 10 a.m. and Chomick, will speak at 2 p.m.

Kingman, who will also have an exhibit at the Sargent Art Gallery, through April 26, will lecture at 7:30 p.m.

by Sue Leibforth

Celebration '78's dance festivities will feature a variety of dances from disco lessons to square dancing, Marge Ann Ciarvino, festival dance coordinator, said Thursday.

A free performance by dance artist Marcus Schulkind will begin the week-end's dance celebration at 8 p.m. Thursday in Dvorak Concert Hall.

In addition, disco lessons are scheduled from 10:30 p.m. to midnight Friday in the Union addition Grand Ballroom. A 50 cent admission will be charged for the lessons, which will be taught by Dance Club members Theresa Tapp, junior, and Brian McMillian.

Ciarvino said participants are invited to bring their own steps to show

Celebration '78

A Festival of the Arts

the dancers.

A performance by the American Heritage Dancers from Illinois State University in Normal will highlight Saturday's events. There will be no charge for the 1:30 p.m. performance in McAfee Gymnasium.

"Heritage implies exactly the kind of dances they perform. It is primarily a folk dance," Ciarvino said.

Talent from Eastern's Modern Dance Club will be displayed at 1 p.m. Sunday, when the EIU Dancers will be in concert in McAfee Gymnasium.

There will be no admission charge,

Ciarvino said. "It will be the same concert that will be performed April 28 and 29," she added.

Also Sunday, square dancers can participate in a square dance that Bob Hussey of the Physical Education Department will call, Ciarvino said.

Admission is $2.50 per couple and will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Union addition Grand Ballroom.

As part of the dance celebration, two dance lectures by Schulkind will be given over the week-end, Ciarvino said.

"How to get started in dance" will be discussed at 4 p.m. Friday in the Union addition Charleston-Mattoon Room.

Also, a lecture-demonstration in dance will be given at 4:30 p.m. Saturday in the McAfee North Gym.

Chicago Circle deals 6-3 defeat to netters

by Bob Nasenbeny

A strong fleet of Chicago Circle tennis players soundly defeated Eastern's men's tennis team 6-3 Saturday and delayed the Panther's bid to top the .500 mark.

The Panther netters, now 3-4, had to settle for two singles victories and one doubles win, with sophomore Brad Patterson the only double winner.

The first two singles positions were routed by Chicago Circle in straight sets, but the Panthers controlled the five and six singles spots.

The third and fourth spots were tightly contested, with Eastern dropping both contests.

Number one singles player Glen Kommer said he was "just out-classed" in his loss to Dean Schuly.

Schuly, a two-time Chicago public school city champion, "didn't miss any shots. He was very consistent and he just outplayed me," Kommer said.

Kommer noted, "I played well but he made me look bad. I played my game but I didn't come out on top."

Second singles player Brad Siler was also defeated in straight sets.

Steve Calderone defeated Siler 6-0, 7-5, in a fine baseline dual.

Siler was winning the second set 5-3 and needed only two more points to win the second set.

Siler said, "I don't know what happened. I missed a couple of shots when I needed them and before I knew it I was losing."

Third singles player Rich Hayden dropped his decision to Dave Stefan 2-6, 7-6, 6-3, in a tightly contested match, and fourth singles Pete Manuel lost to Paul Stubitsch 7-5, 6-4.

Both Hayden and Manuel were within one game of turning their loss into a win.

Patterson, winner of two matches against the Chikas, defeated his fifth singles opponent Don Johnson 6-4, 6-2 in an easy win.

Senior Mike Pence kept the Panthers in the meet with his sixth singles victory over Chuck Fritz with a score of 6-1, 6-4.

Trailing 4-2 after the singles competition, Eastern needed to sweep the doubles in order to win the match.

Doubles action pitted freshmen Brad Hatfield and Brian McDonald against Calderone and Stubitsch at the top spot.

The Chika duo tipped the freshmen netters 6-2, 7-5.

The second doubles team of Siler-Manuel dropped a three set decision to Schuly-Stefan 2-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Third doubles Patterson-Hayden gave Eastern its final win of the day by beating Johnson-Fritz 7-6, 5-7, 6-2.

DOONESBURY

Tracksters easily win invitational

by Kathy Klisares

Eastern's trackster: bombarded their seven competitors, whose team totals ranged from 21 to 15 points, as the Panthers chalked up 245 points in Saturday's EIU Invitational.

"I was very pleased with the performance of the team," head track coach Neil Moore said. "We had some good close races and the times were outstanding."

The times were not only outstanding as far as the coach's standards, but also according to NCAA standards as 14 Panthers qualified for Division II nationals at the invitational meet.

Jocko Bell qualified with a 10.35 in the 100 meter dash, John Callozzo made the 400 meter hurdles with a 53:29 mark and Feggie Johnson qualified for the 800 meter dash in 1:51.77.

Distance runners also fared well with Casey Reinking making the time for the 5000 meter run with 14:31.03, despite interference from the Eastern football team who was preparing for a scrimmage, and crossed the track while the race was in progress.

Joe Sheeran (30:33.45) qualifying for the 10,000 meter run, and in the 1500 meter run both Bob Feller (3:50.73) and John McInerney (3:51.49) met the national standards.

Larry Schudt (9:15.05) not only qualified for national competition in the steeple chase, but also set a new freshman record in the event, surpassing the previous 9:18.9 mark set in 1971.

The track was not the limit for record breaking however, as pole vaulter Dan Larson jumped 15 feet 7 1/2 inches and triple jumper Charles Hollis leaped 50 feet 8 inches, both of whom qualified for nationals and set new meet records.

The mile relay team composed of Callozzo, Johnson, Steve Jones and Ed Hatch, made the qualifying time, too, with a 3:13.04 race although the football team interfered with their warm ups.

Three of the mile relay runners also placed in other events: Callozzo finished first in the 400 meter hurdles, Hatch took the top spot in the 400 meter dash and Reggie Johnson beat the pack in the 800 meter dash. Augustine Oruwari took first in the 110 meter high hurdles and the long jump to give Eastern four double winners.

"We've got the potential," Moore said, "And if we stay healthy, I can't see any reason why we wouldn't be a strong contender for the NCAA II championship."

Gridders interrupt track meet

During the final two events of the EIU Invitational track meet Saturday afternoon the Eastern football team walked across the track to prepare for its intersquad scrimmage.

The incident happened while the 5000 meter race was in progress and also interfered with the mile relay team warmups.

"The football team's intrusion in the middle of the 5000 meter run and mile relay was unbelievable," head track coach Neil Moore commented concerning the incident.

"I considered it a real insult to the track team, the coaching staff, visiting teams and loyal track fans," Moore continued.

Athletic director, Mike Muller said, "I believe that some of the football players thought that was the last event, so they crossed the track. It's unfortunate that it happened, but there is no need to make a constitutional issue out of it."

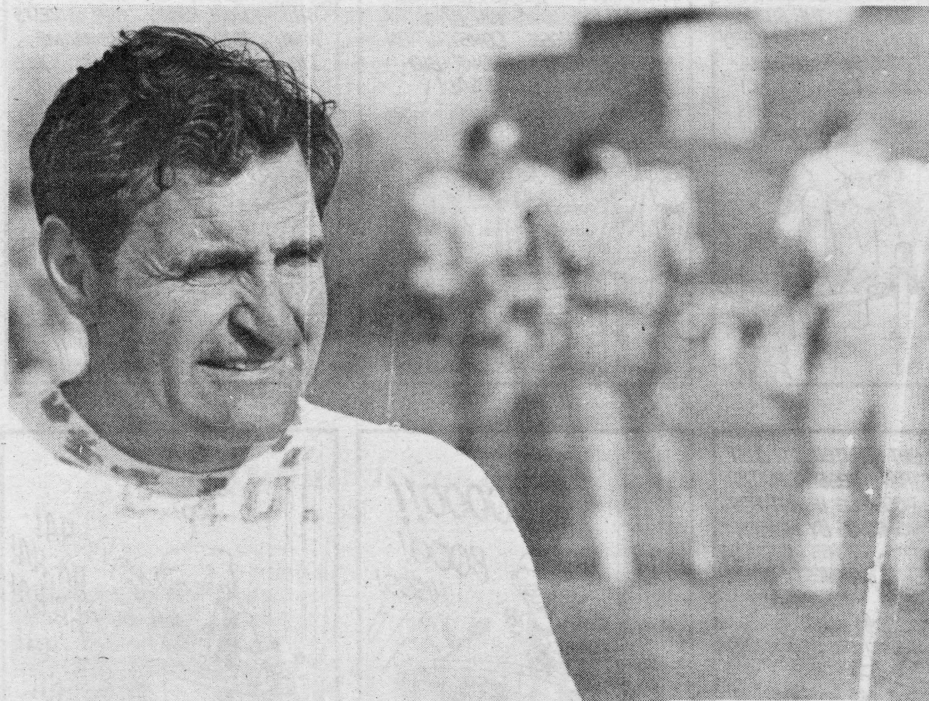

Head football coach Darrell Mudra explained, "We just wanted to get there and get warmed up as soon as possible, but we probably should have waited. I felt I was wrong and apologized to coach Moore. I plan to talk to my squad and be sure to recognize our responsibility to other teams."

Moore verified Mudra's apology and added, "I have no reason to doubt Darrell's word and the matter is settled as far as I'm concerned."
