Michals said, "I'm learning about the capitol, about people and agencies. To read about the agencies and actually see them in action is something else. Not only do you learn, you have a total understanding of political campaigns," Michelle added.

Campus rally to promote awareness

Everything students want to know about the presidential candidates will be available at a rally held on campus.

A national bus tour will stop at Eastern to hold the rally at 7 p.m. Wednesday on the South Quad.

The bus tour will stop at Eastern to promote student awareness during the November elections, said Student Senate member Tim Butler.

The rally will feature speakers and presentations on issues including education, he added.

Student Body President Mike Riordan said candidates for the state representative race, Mike Weaver and Alan Holderfield, are among the list of speakers the senate is hoping will appear.

In addition to student senate, the tour and rally are being sponsored by the United States Student Association (U.S.S.A.). I.S.A., its Illinois division, and Greyhound Buslines of Mattoon, which is donating the bus and driver for the tour, Butler said.

"I think we're pretty lucky they are coming to Eastern," Butler added.

Expulsions are under the same conditions as a suspension, but the student is permanently suspended from the university, Kohanzo said.

Kohanzo said the Judicial Board gets involved when a student's conduct affects the interest of the university or community.

Eastern Illinois University stu- The board also intervenes when students commit a felony and leave the misdemeanors to the courts. A misdemeanor is punishable by fees and a felony is punishiable by fees and prisonment.

"The Judicial Board chose not to get involved in all mismeadors, such as shoplifting," Kohanzo

But, when a student is involved with drug dealing, even though the charge may be a misdemeanor, the board gets involved. If the student is dealing drugs offcampus, he is probably dealing drugs on-campus too, Kohanzo

Suspensions and expulsions are not unusual, last year about 21 students were either expelled or suspended, Kohanzo said.

Last year there were 1,295 disciplinary referrals during the 1987-88 school year, but most of the referrals were trivial such as being noisy during morgue hours, he said.

Freshman students had the most referrals with 708; sophomores were next with 382; juniors received 126 referrals; seniors received 76. Referrals also were issued to one graduate student and two campus organizations.

Kohanzo said as the student's maturity level increases, their Money important for college

NEW YORK-Fewer than six out of 10 young people say they have saved for college and nearly 50 percent said tuition costs prevent many from seeking a higher education, according to a poll released Sunday.

In addition, more than one out of three teen-agers and young adults questioned in a survey commissioned by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education believe the most expensive colleges offer the best education.

The poll, aimed at measuring student awareness of college issues, was based on telephone interviews of 1,001 poeple age 13 to 21 from Aug. 24 to Sept. 7. It was released as part of National Higher Education Week, which began Sunday. The poll, conducted by the Gallup Organization, had a margin of sampling error of plus or minus 3 percentage points

Chicago River now an asset

CHICAGO-Once a dump that sent raw sewage poring into Lake Michigan, the Chicago River is becoming the hub of a major economic and recreational area, and city planners say tourists may soon be drawn to the waterway.

"There's no question that the Chicago River downtown right now is one of the hottest development corridors in the city," said Pamela Rose, managing director of Rose & Associates Inc., a corporate real estate firm that helps companies lease office space.

"Most of the major new buildings built here in the last couple of years are along the river," she said. "And the river will continue to be the focus of developers for years to come because it's the only place left within the (downtown) Loop where large tracts of developable land are still available."

Crime levels rise in 1987

WASHINGTON-Crime levels rose 1.8 percent last year, the government reported Sunday, ending a five-year decline the Reagan administration had attributed partly to vigorous law enfocement and tougher treatment of criminals.

People living in the West were the most likely to have been victims of crime last year, while residents in the Northeast were the least likely to be victimized, said the study by the Bureau of Justice Statistics.

Nationally, the number of personal and houshold crimes rose about 613,000 in 1987 to more than 34.7 million.

Thousands protest in Yugoslavia

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Tens of thousands of demonstrators took to the streets Sunday and students began a hunger strike to protest police violence and demand the ouster of communist leaders.

Residents reported a heavy police presence and roadblocks around Titograd, the capital of the southern republic of Montenegro, 280 miles southwest of Belgrade. Club-wielding riot police broke up an ovrnight rally there against local Communist leaders early Saturday.

Three people were reported hospitalized in Niksik, 15 miles northwest of Titograd, where police fired tear gas Saturday to break up a crowd.

The state news agency Tanjung quoted local at ties as saying the situation in Niksic was "extra serious" and said thousand of workers at a local mill put down their tools Sunday and march protest police actions.

NITRO, W. Va. (AP)—More than 3,000 people left their homes Sunday while a hazardous waste crew blew up a corroded tank believed to hold up to 30 pounds of deadly hydrogen cyanide.

The 4-foot-long cylinder was abandoned at the site of the defunct Artel Chemical Co. plant, now a federal Superfund cleanup site, with 3,400 other drums and barrels of hazardous materials, many of them unidentified and most of them rusting.

As little as 50 milligrams--a size less than onesixth the average aspirin--of the hydrogen cyanide can kill.

The explosion occurred at 1:54 p.m. and a fire started to burn off the tank's contents. Environmental Protection Agency spokesman Harold Yates said that at 2:01 p.m. "no air readings indicated any hydrogen cyanide down wind."

EPA officials had not been certain of the contents, so analysts will examine a videotape explosion to look for a telltale purplish coro indication of the presence of hydrogen cyanide rounding the main body of the flame, Yates said

He said the fire would have to be out an wreckage of the cylinder would have to be inspectore anyone would be allowed back into the uated area.

Report charges discrimination at O'Har

WASHINGTON (AP)-Blacks and women have been the victims of systematic job discrimination in the control tower at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport, according to a congressional report.

The House Government Operations Committee, citing testimony at a hearing into allegations of racism, said tower personnel at the nation's busiest airport have gone so far to discourage minority employment as to jeopardize airline passenger safety.

A Federal Aviation Administration spokesman acknowledged that few blacks and women are employed as air traffic controllers at O'Hare, but said the agency has no evidence that discrimination has endangered the flying public.

In a report being released Tuesday, a draft of which was obtained by The Associated Press, the committee said blacks either have been denied jobs at O'Hare or, if accepted, were terminated training.

It also said blacks and women hired at 0 systematically have been denied training advancement opportunities given to white male

"While the committee does not find cleadence of overt and insidious racism, there escaping the conclusion that blacks have beetimized by O'Hare management, supervisor trainers," the report said.

The panel recommended the FAA reviewentrance, recruiting, and training procedures, at make changes to ensure a greater number of mitties and women become controllers. It also mended the FAA in Washington investigate all aplaints of discrimination at O'Hare.

Student voice not being heard about increase

Once again, Eastern students are being hit up for money.

This in itself is hardly surprising considering the statewide trend toward increasing tuition. The tragedy in this case is that Eastern students-through the Student Senate – are supporting it.

In the face of an unavoidable mid-year tuition hike, the Athletic Department has proposed a $10 per Editorial semester fee increase-nearly one-half of the $24.55 fee students now pay for Eastern athletics. The department also receives nearly 80 percent of the $25.25 grant-in-aid portion of the activity fee for scholarships, Student Body President Mike Riordan said.

The question still remains as to why this increase is necessary. Athletic Director R.C. Johnson has yet to pinpoint a need for the fee hike other than the fact that the athletic fee hasn't received an increase since 1984. This kind of reasoning could get very costly for students if it is allowed to continue.

This mentality goes against everything the university has fought to achieve in the past. Eastern continues to be the most cost-efficient university in the state, thus, it would only make sense that it would have a lower athletic fee than other, more expensive, institutions.

Last week, the senate approved the department's request that the $10 hike be included on a referendum on the Nov. 8 ballot. By choosing that the referendum will propose a flat rate increase rather than Johnson's suggested index increase, the senate did manage to select the lesser of

However, by supporting this hike, the senate is failing to do one important thing - represent the best interests of the students. Eastern's student government is elected by the students to speak as the voice of the students. By blindly supporting tuition and fee increases year after year, the senate is only giving administrators the message that students are made of money and want nothing more than a chance to pay more money for the same amount of education. This, of course, is not the case.

Students are being given the chance to prove they are not made of money by voting against this ridiculous proposal in the fall election. This is not a time for student apathy, students should band together and make themselves heard-obviously, the "voice of the students" is not speaking loud enough.

Critic says play is good laugh

By JEFF FROSCH

Those students who chose to spend another weekend in the bars missed a good laugh or two at the opening performances of 'Arsenic and Old Lace.'

The premise of this seemingly morbid comedy is the story of two elderly ladies and their strange hobby. Abby and Martha Brewster, played by Angela Snead and Ana Cooper, pass their time by selectively poisoning lonely gentlemen who come looking for a room and then burying them in the cellar.

For the first part of Act I the audience is introduced to the characters and allowed to get a general feel for them. But when the Brewster sisters' nephew Mortimer, played by Jerry Lunsford, unwittingly discovers their latest victim, the action really takes off.

Some of the other more active characters include Jonathan Brewster, portayed by Ken Barnett, and Dr. Einstein, played by Troy Mayfield. These two play the roles of a hired killer and his plastic surgeon looking for a place to hide from the law for a while. With the addition of these roles, and those of the police officers, things become increasingly hectic and increasingly funny.

Another character that must be mentioned is that of Teddy Brewster, who believes himself to be Teddy Roosevelt. In what director C.P. Blanchette calls the "fun" role of the play, Robert Poe provides sudden bursts of energy onstage. These range from charging up San Juan Hill (the stairs) to tending to the construction of the Panama Canal (the cellar).

As a group the cast appeared to work in harmony onstage. Blanchette said he also felt that everyone worked well together and turned in good performances.

All the roles were played effectively and a certain amount of credit should go to set designer Jack Smith and lighting designer Scott Blady for providing a very detailed and believeable atmosphere for the play to take place.

When asked if the cast was happy with their performances after the show Blanchette said, "Yes, I think they all felt pretty good afterwards.'

"Arsenic and Old Lace" will run through Wednesday with performances at 8 p.m. in the theatre of the Doudna Fine Arts Building. Applications sought by National Research Council

By LARA MARTIN Staff writer

The National Research Council is seeking applicants for senior and postdoctoral research associateships.

The council has a 1989 resident program and cooperative and postdoctoral research associateship programs for research in the sciences and engineering.

The associateships are conducted on behalf of 30 federal agencies or research institutions, whose 115 participating research laboratories are located throughout the United States.

The programs provide opportunities for Ph.D. scientists and engineers of unusual promise and ability to perform research on problems largely of their own choosing yet compatible with the research interests of the supporting laboratory.

The associateship programs, started in 1954, have contributed to the career development of over 5,500 scientists ranging from recent Ph.D. recipients to distinguished senior scientists.

Approximately 450 new fulltime associateships will be awarded on a competitive basis in 1989 for research in chemistry, earth and atomospheric sciences.

Other associateships include areas in engineering and applied sciences, biological, health, behavioral sciences and physics.

1985 Eastern graduate David Gaskill received tenure with the Naval Research Laboratory located in Washington, D.C.

The program allows young researchers and senior scientists access to equipment in government laboratories, said Jane Dellamore, supervisor of operations at the National Research Council.

Dellamore said not only do the researchers or scientists benefit from this program, the government benefits as well.

The new stream of people coming in provides the government with a flow of new ideas. It is a chance for the government to try out people in these positions before hiring them, she said.

The government has called people back if there are job openings in specific areas.

According to Dellamore, two of the larger programs are the Naval Research Laboratory and the NASA program.

Most of the programs are open to both U.S. and non-U.S. nationals, and to both recent Ph.D. degree recipients and senior investigators.

The awards are made for one or two years and are renewable to a maximum of three years, Dellamore said.

Senior applicants who have held the doctorate at least five years may request shorter tenure.

Annual salary for recent Ph.Ds for the 1989 program year will vary from $27,150 to $35,000, depending on the sponsoring laboratory. Salaries will be appropriately higher for senior associates, she said

Reimbursement is provided for allowable relocation costs and for limited professional travel during tenure.

Host laboratories provide the Associate with programmatic assistance. These include facilities, support services, necessary equipment and travel necessary for the conduct of approved research programs.

Deadline for applicants must be postmarked no later than January 15, 1989 and December 15, 1988 for NASA.

Initial awards will be announced in March and April (July and November for the two later competitions) followed by awards to alternates later.

To receive more information and application materials, applicants may write to the Associateship Programs (GR430A-D1), Office of Scientific and Engineering Personnel, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C., 20418, (202) 334-2760.

Conference discusses reading inspiration

By TONY CAMPBELL
Staff writer

Inspiring children to read was one of the topics discussed Friday at the 24th Annual Reading Conference.

The conference was held in the Martin Luther King Jr. University Union with the keynote speaker being J. David Cooper, professor of education at Ball State University, Indiana.

Cooper has worked with teachers in the classroom for many years in nearly fifty states and four different countries. He is also a well known writer and is coordinating author for the 1986 and 1989 editions of Houghton-Mifflin Reader, a children's reader. This was his first appearance on Eastern's camnus

Also appearing at the conference was Eastern President Stanle Rives, Rose Mary Sheppard, the regional superintendent of school and many other professors and teachers from the area.

Other topics included "Getting Students to Read at Home-Hor Schools can help, Creating Word Wise Wonders, Why Young Children Don't Read: What to deabout it and Humorous Picture Books."

Individual conferences were hin separate rooms of the union.

Along with the 18 different conferences that were held throughout the union, there were seven representatives of major publisting companies including Houghton Mifflin Companies and Macmilland on hand to display their various products.

The duo have recorded about four record albums together.

Mark Maegdlin, a graduate assistant in jazz-piano, said the concert was "excellent".

Maegdlin said "that it is a pleasure at Eastern to get world class performers."

Melissa Buchel, a sophomore music education major, said, "This is a great blend of classical and jazz and to bring bass and guitar together is very pleasurable to listen to.'

Buchel also said "that she really enjoyed it (the concert) and students should be aware of this series."

Choral music professor Robert Snyder said he "thought it was a super concert and a differnt type of concert."

"It was meshed in a unique fashion by combining jazz and classical music," Physics professor John Gardner said.

"It was a rare and superlative experience," Gardner said. "I hope to see a small jazz ensemble coming to the Tarble Arts Center. every year.'

The series co-sponsored by Eastern's Music Department.

Howell nets 3 game suspension over pine tar

NEW YORK (AP)-Jay Howell, the Los Angeles Dodgers' relief ace who pleaded guilty to using pine tar on his glove, was suspended for three days, National League president A. Bartlett Giamatti announced Sunday.

Howell was ejected in the eighth inning of Saturday's NL playoff game against the New York Mets for having the substance on his glove.

The suspension began Sunday and will continue through Tuesday. It means that Howell would be available only for Wednesday's seventh and final game of the playoffs, if the series goes that long.

"While there must be no doubt as to my view of the seriousness of this infraction in the course of the League Championship Series, I have attempted to balance all the elements of the decision," Giamatti said in a press release.

"I do not want to see a championship ultimately decided for fans and teammates--if the LCS goes seven games--by the accident of one man's mistake. Therefore,

Mr. Howell would be eligible to pitch should there be a seventh game."

"I don't think it's a good rule," Howell said Saturday of the infraction that caused his ejection. "I think it's a bad rule. I think it's technical to a degree. I broke the rule. I'm admitting that."

When Howell was tossed out of the game, the Dodgers were leading 4-3. In his absence, Alejandro Pena, Jesse Orosco and Rickey Horton couldn't stop the Mets, who rallied for five runs and beat Los Angeles 8-4, taking a 2-1 lead in the series.

Howell's suspension had no precedent in postseason play.

But Giamatti suspended pitcher Kevin Gross of the Philadelphia Phillies for 10 days last year after umpires found sandpaper in his glove during a regular-season game.

American League president Bobby Brown suspended pitcher Joe Niekro of the Minnesota Twins for 10 days last season after umpires detected an emery board in his uniform pocket while he was pitching, also during the regular season.

A major postseason incidentnot similar to Howell's problemoccurred in 1972, when Bert Campaneris of the Oakland Athletics threw his bat at Detroit Tigers' pitcher Larrin LaGrow in Game 2 of the American League playoffs. AL president Joe Cronin fined Campaneris $500 and suspended him for the rest of the playoffs. Campaneris was allowed to play in the World Series.

Howell stood in Los Angeles manager Tommy Lasorda's office for 30 minutes Saturday and answered a series of questions. He admitted what he did was wrong, but protested the ejection.

"I don't think it was warranted," he said. "It's not sandpaper. It's not nails. It's not anything of that nature."

The rule he broke is 8.02 (b). which states: "The pitcher shall not have on his person, or in his possession, any foreign substance. For such infraction of this section, the penalty shall be immediate ejection from the game"

Bears motor over Detroit 24-7

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—Jim McMahon guided Chicago to its first score before leaving the game with a slight concussion Sunday as the Bears beat the downtrodden Detroit Lions 24-7.

The Bears remained in first place at 5-1 in the NFC Central Division while the Lions, who lost quarterback Chuck Long with a sprained knee fell to 1-5.

McMahon completed 8 of 11 passes for 78 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown toss to Dennis McKinnon before going out with 10:12 remaining in the second quarter, about two minutes after Long was hurt.

Mike Tomczak replaced McMahon and completed 12 of 22 for 158 yards, including a 31yard TD strike to Ron Morris. Jim Harbaugh finished up for the Bears.

Chicago's Neal Anderson rushed for 70 yards on 14 carries, including a 1-yard TD burst, and Kevin Butler kicked a 37-yard field goal for the Bears.

Rusty Hilger, who was signed Monday as a free agent after Detroit backup Eric Hipple suffered a broken ankle, replaced Long and threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Pete Mandley for the Lions' only score.

Hilger, who played three years with the Los Angeles Raiders who cut him in camp this season, completed 12 of 43 passes for 186

The game drew a crowd of 64,526, many of them Bears fans who have a difficult time getting tickets in Chicago. It was the largest football crowd in the Silverdome since week 15 of the 1986 season when 75,602 were on hand for a Bears-Lions Monday night game.

The Bears defense, first against the rush and first overall in the NFL, allowed the Lions 42 yards on the ground and 262 overall. Chicago, which has won its last eight games against Detroit, rolled up 101 of its 323 yards on the ground-well below its average of 177 rushing yards per game.

On their first possession, the Bears employed a skillful mix of runs and passes to drive 90 yards in 12 plays for their first score. Anderson ran 13 yards on a draw play and McMahon completed 6 of 7 passes in the drive.

On the scoring play, McKinnon caught a short pass from McMahon at the nine, got outside safety Bennie Blades, and raced untouched into the end zone for a 7-0 lead with 3:40 remaining in the first quarter.

Long went down after a hit by a host of Bears, including Mike Singletary, while throwing an incomplete pass from a third-and-20 situation at the Bears 20.

The Panthers finished the night with 439 yards in total offense while holding Southern, 3-2 overall and 1-2 in the league, to a total of 288 yards total offense.

Although coach Bob Spoo wasn't surprised about the win, he was surprised that the Panther defense kept the Salukis, who scored 45 points the previous week, out of the end zone.

"They played as hard as I've ever seen a team play," Spoo said. "I didn't think it was possible to keep them out of the end zone."

Eastern tailback James Marable tries to escape the grasp of a Saluki tackler in the Panthers 34-3 win Saturday.

By MIKE FITZGERALD Sports editor

Eastern's defense, despite injuries to key personnel, stuffed Southern Illinois' wishbone offense and sent the Salukis on their way out of the Gateway Conference race with a 34-3 win at O'Brien Stadium Saturday.

The Panthers, 4-2 overall and 2-1 and tied for second in the league, received a fine performance from the defensive line in holding Southern to 170 yards rushing on the night. The Salukis entered the contest averaging 226 yards per game rushing.

"They played tremendous," said defensive coordinator John Smith. "We told our two tackles 'if you stop the dive, we'll win this game'. I can't say enough about those guys."

Smith introduced a new defensive package specifically designed to stop the wishbone, and the results spoke for themselves.

"We put in new defensive package where the wide side corners blitz on the pitch," said cornerback R.L. Reynolds who was in on 12 tackles for the night.

Reynolds said he thought the tone for the night was set by fellow defensive back Dale Lloyd who made the first big hit of the night.

The defense played without the services of linebacker George Boykin who sat out after having

Stewart turns in All-American performance in wir

By DAVID LINDQUIST Staff writer

Averaging 2.8 receptions for 39.0 yards per game isn't the most convincing follow-up to an Honorable Mention All-American season, but wide receiver Ralph Stewart turned in a persuasive performance in Saturday's victory against Southern Illnois.

Stewart caught eight passes, including two touchdown receptions, for 201 yards in a dazzling exorcism of a sophomore jinx that has followed the East Chicago Heights native all season.

"I felt like I've been in a slump," Stewart said. "When I'm in a slump, I get down on myself.'

Stewart's non-productive efforts this season coincided with Eastern's two-game losing streak, as he caught just five passes for 76 yards in losses to Youngstown State and Indiana State.

Eastern quarterback Eric Arnold said the play of Stewart, who wears the number of former Eastern receiver and Indianapolis Colt Roy Banks, is an accurate barometer for the Panthers offense.

"If I had to point a finger at the biggest difference from last week to this, I'd point to No. 2," Amold said. "Ralph came out with his head screwed on tight and corrected his mistakes."

Stewart, 6-1, 190 pounds, had the heads of Southern's defensive backs spinning, though, when he hauled in a 70-yard touchdown pass with 24 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

While Stewart is not the primary target on the designed play that yielded Eastern's second score, he said he was able to take advantage of Southern's zone coverage.

"I'm the clear-out man on that play," Stewart said. "But I told Eric to watch for me because I had been getting behind their zone all night."

The first quarter strike was the longest reception of Stewart's career, and he answered the effort with a spectacular 39-yard TD catch with 11 seconds left first half.

"I was surprised I caught it will hand, but I had it all the way," Stewa of the reception on which he kept of the ball as he fell and slipped in end zone.

Eastern coach Bob Spoo concurre statistics that indicated Stewart had performance as a Panther.

"Ralph played his best football Spoo said. "He made key catches that he wasn't making before."

Men finish 3rd, women harriers 10th

By PHIL CHAPARRO Staff writer

Eastern's men's cross country team travelled to St. Louis Saturday and took third place in the Washington University Army-ROTC Invite, while the women went to Chicago and finished 10th in the Loyola Lakefront Invitational.

The men were paced by junior Shannon Hough. Hough finished 14th overall at a clip of 26:34, and got some support from his teammates.

Freshman Eric Baron placed 29th at 26:51, junior Mike Young finished 22nd overall at 26:59, senior Al Oaks placed 23rd at 26:59 and freshman Mike Stier finished 24th at 27:01.

With the men's solid team showing Saturday, assistant track and cross country coach Tom Akers was pleased with the effert his team. However, he known are Panthers will have to Mizener returned from the injured ranks, and placed seventh overall at 18:47.

"She ran a lot better than that seventh place indicated," head coach John Craft said. "After about a mile and a half she was in first place, but had a bad headcold and dropped off."

Freshman Stefanie Stump finished 43rd overall at 19:53, senior Ann Body placed 77th at 20:43, junior Connie Bierman took 83rd at 20:53 and freshman Kathy Glynn finished 89th at 21:00.

For the first time all season the Lady Panthers gave Mizener some support, and their efforts pleased Craft.

"We ran better as a team," Craft said. "Our times were not as good, but I thought we competed well and did some good things."

Panther soccer team the host Texas Christian

AL LAGATTOLLA Staff writer

Following an entire week of inactivity, Eastern's soccer team will be back alive and kicking when the Panthers host Texas Christian Monday at 2 p.m. at Lakeside Field.

The Panthers, 6-1-3 on the season and No. 3 in the Midwest Region, will face a Texas Christian team that also comes from the Midwest Region, making it an important game for the Panthers.

The Panthers will be playing for the first time since last weekend's Governor's Cup Tournament, where Eastern placed third, emerging with a 1-0-1 tournament record.

The Panthers have not played at home since Sept. 25, when they shut out the Hawks of Quincy 1-0. Eastern has been defeated at home in consecutive contests, and been very stubborn at Law field, not allowing a got three home games this season.

Eastern also has not le game this season since drop their opening contest agains Force 4-2, giving them a game unbeaten streak.

The Panthers will enter game with four of the top scorers in the AMCU corence. Junior forward G Laidlaw leads the AMCU 21 points, followed by team Mark Noffert, who is sewith 18 points.

Sophomore midfie LeBaron Hollimon is tied fourth with 14 points and is junior midfielder D. Kompare with 10 points.
