WELCOME!
To The Eleventh Season

Producer Guy S. Little, Jr.

With the opening on May 20th of Barefoot In The Park starring Tab Hunter, Producer Guy S. Little, Jr. is proud to begin his second decade of live theatre for central Illinois audiences. Long before Mr. Little opened the Grand Theatre back in 1957, he hoped and planned that someday he would have a theatre where musicals and plays could be presented. He got his first job in professional theatre as an apprentice at the Keene, New Hampshire Summer Theatre in 1951 and worked the two following summers at the Gateway Musical Playhouse near Atlantic City.

After graduation from the University of Miami, Mr. Little took graduate courses at Columbia University and The American Theatre Wing before returning to central Illinois in the spring of 1957 to look for a theatre location.

Not having success locating a suitable theatre in any of the larger cities in downstate Illinois, Mr. Little decided to lease the movie house in his native Sullivan. Since the opening of Brigadoon on July 3, 1957, Mr. Little has presented 100 major productions—both plays and musicals—featuring many outstanding stars and supporting casts from Broadway, Hollywood, TV and Opera. The first season ran nine weeks and had an attendance of 8,000. The Little Theatre-On The Square was open for twenty-five weeks last year and had an attendance of 80,000—a most gratifying increase! In addition to his productions in Sullivan, Mr. Little managed the Piccolo Playhouse in Joliet and has had touring productions that have played theatres in Michigan, Ohio and the Chicago area. Mr. Little is often asked to open and manage other theatres in the midwest, but his devotion is to The Little Theatre-On The Square and its loyal audiences. Mr. Little works year around booking outstanding stars such as June Allyson, John Carradine, Peter Palmer, Rosemary Prinz, Dennis Weaver, Robert Reed, John Payne, Margaret O'Brien, Julia Meade, Pat O'Brien, Linda Darnell, Marie Wilson, Eddie Bracken, Joe E. Brown, Marjorie Lord, Margaret Truman, Edward Everett Horton, Annmary Dickey, Jack Haskell, Margaret Hamilton and Cesare Romero.

Mr. Little has directed many of the productions, designed and built the scenery, and has appeared in many of the shows. Last season, in addition to supervising all the productions, he appeared as Mr. Snow in Carousel, Joe Taylor, Jr. in Allegro, Mr. Foley in Never Too Late and Michael O'Neill in The Moon Is Blue.

Guy met his wife, Jerili, when they were both studying theatre at the University of Miami. They have been married thirteen years and have two children, Vanessa, age eleven, and Sean, age five. Both children have been active in the Sullivan productions.

The operation of a star theatre for ten years in a town with a population of less than 4,000 has been called "the miracle of Sullivan" by theatre historians. Guy S. Little, Jr. gratefully salutes the faithful central Illinois audiences who have patronized The Little Theatre-On The Square since 1957.

SCENE

The living room of a typical middle class, midwest home. Father is seated in an overstuffed chair at stage left. He is hidden behind his evening newspaper. Mother can be heard preparing dinner in the kitchen through a door at stage left.

MOTHER: "Billy fell off his bicycle today and broke his elbow. Bennett & Shade said our Hospitalization policy would cover it."

"Oh, and I had a little accident with the car while I was driving him to the hospital. Bennett & Shade said our Automobile policy covers that too."

"Are you listening, Henry? The dog bit the postman today! Bennett & Shade said our Homeowner's policy covers it. I hope our monthly payment check for these policies reached them all right."
