Financial crisis tops BOG agenda

CRAIG EDWARDS

Managing editor

Board of Governors is meeting on Eastern's campus today to discuss a matter everybody involved with education is concerned about:

They will discuss the ways our board will address the needs of students in light of the Fiscal Year 1989 budget appropriation," said BOG Chancellor Thomas Layzell.

BOG, the governing body for Western Illinois University, Northeastern Illinois University, Chicago State University, Governors State University and Eastern Illinois University, met at 9 a.m. Thursday in the Union Old Ballroom.

BOG's operating budget for FY89 is $184,032,600, a 5.7 percent increase from the appropriations. The Board of Higher Education recommended a budget for the five universities of $199,142,900, which would have allowed a 8.2 percent increase from the previous year.

Employees rally for salary increase

By CRAIG EDWARDS

Managing editor

Eastern employees hope to draw attention to their financial crisis by holding an informational rally after Thursday's Board of Governors meeting on Eastern's campus.

While the BOG meets at 9 a.m. Thursday in the Union Old Ballroom to discuss budget matters for the five universities it governs, civil service employees and faculty members will be in the parking lot outside the Union preparing to kickoff their demonstration.

"We're trying to demonstrate just how bad the pay situation at Eastern is this year," said Karin Burrus, president of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Local 1271. The union represents 250 clerical and technical employees at Eastern.

Figures from the Illinois Board of Higher Education show that clerical salaries at Eastern are the lowest of any state university and over 50 percent lower than state civil service salaries on average.

"No one has had a pay increase here in two years, while the state employees represented by our union have received increases over nine and one-half percent plus step increases," said Dan Cross, president of AFSCME Local 981, which represents 200 service employees at Eastern.

A $65 million allocation from the General Assembly allows for a 5.7 percent increase in faculty and staff salaries at all Illinois Universities. But Burrus says that isn't enough to make up for two years without any increases.

"The pay freeze has made a bad situation worse," she said, adding that salary negotiations will resume August 4 and could continue for months.

Pat Beaulieu, vice president for AFSCME Local 1271 helped organize Thursday's rally. "We just want to make the BOG aware of the financial crisis we are suffering from because of no increase in wages for two Pam Meyer, BOG spokesperson, said even with the increase, the chancellor has determined that $15 million is still required to meet the needs of the five universities.

"We've gotten all we are going to get from the state," Meyer said, adding that the challenge for the board Thursday is to address the remaining needs that haven't been met.

"While we are grateful for the increase the General Assembly and the Governor provided in our budget which allows for a modest salary increase for faculty and staff, the appropriation is not sufficient to meet our system's needs," Layzell said.

Therefore, the board will be discussing the possibility of a tuition increase which could take affect in January. "There is a high probability that a tuition increase at mid-year will be necessary," Layzell said.

Eastern President Stan Rives agrees with Layzell, but says the situation is an "unfortunate one."

"If we are to obtain additional funds to provide a more reasonable salary increase or provide for other unavoidable price increases, we are left with no alternative but to look at the possibility of further increases in tuition," Rives said.

Rives said he doesn't expect the board to take any action on a tuition increase at Thursday's meeting, but believes the discussion of the matter will be lengthy.

However, Rives does believe the board will take action on a tuition increase at the September or October meeting. "We'll probably see the same kind of increase as last year," he said.

If a mid-year tuition hike is approved, it will be the second increase for BOG students in less than a year. A mid-year (See FINANCIAL, p. 10)

Bush looks for running mate

WASHINGTON (AP)—George Bush stepped up his search for a presidential running mate Wednesday, inviting former rival Jack Kemp and other prominent Republicans to submit detailed background information. Democratic candidate Michael Dukakis burnished his second-order credentials. Several other Republicans who figure prominently in vice presidential speculation have not yet received questionnaires from Bush, according to their spokesmen.

Bush, who has about two weeks left to pick a running mate for the fall campaign, also disclosed plans to testify before the public platform committee when it meets a week before the party's convention in New Orleans early next month. Republican sources said a request for background information had gone out to Sen. Pete Domenici of New Mexico as well as to Rep. Dan Rostenkowski of Illinois. And New Hampshire Gov. John Sununu had received a questionnaire from Bush campaign officials.

Local delegate supports Dukakis

By CRAIG EDWARDS

Managing editor

Although the presidential election is more than three months away, one Charleston woman has already cast her vote for the nation's next president.

LeAnn Connolly of Charleston was one of the 1,400 Democratic delegates who congregated in Atlanta last week to nominate Gov. Michael S. Dukakis as their party's choice for president.

"It was just a tremendous feeling," Connolly said, adding that when they announced Dukakis as the winner, everybody in the convention hall went wild with cheering and clapping.

Connolly said the unity at this year's convention, which is unique because of the party's diverse background, was very real. "Everything went right. Even the Jackson supporters contributed to the enthusiasm," she said.

Now that the excitement of the convention is over, Connolly remains optimistic about Dukakis' chances of winning in November. "We all (Democrats) feel very, very good about it," she said.

And why shouldn't they feel good? The public opinion polls show Dukakis ahead of Vice President George Bush, the Republican party's unofficial candidate.

For Connolly, becoming a convention delegate was a childhood dream that started when she watched the convention on television in 1952. "There was nothing else on but the convention so I watched it," she said.

Democratic Delegate LeAnn Connolly

And even though she was only nine years old at the time, she decided then that she wanted to be a delegate when she grew up. Her dream came true in 1984 when she went to the San Francisco convention as a Democratic delegate.

Connolly explained that convention delegates are chosen from congressional districts with each district allowed a specific number of delegates according to population and size. She represents the 19th congressional district along with five other delegates.

Unlike the Republican party, Connolly said each Democratic delegation must be made up of half men and half women.

After the primaries, which were won by Sen. Paul Simon in Illinois, the delegates are assigned to the winning candidate. Connolly said since Dukakis won a majority of the primaries in other states, Simon endorsed Dukakis and released his delegates to vote for their choice.

One of the obvious requirements for becoming a delegate is active involvement with the party. That came easy for Connolly since she is married to Joe Connolly, a political science professor at Eastern and longtime member of the Democratic party in (See LOCAL, p. 10)

Arson fire kills five in suburb

CHICAGO (AP)—Two mothers and three children were found dead early Wednesday at the scene of an arson fire set to disguise at least one of the victims' murder, police said.

"Because it was arson, we consider all five deaths homicides. But the medical examiner has determined at least one of the women was dead (before the fire) and possibly all five victims," said police Commander Jon Burge.

Burge said the results of a preliminary autopsy indicate that Rosa Rodriguez, age unknown, a live-in baby-sitter, had been murdered before the fire began in the brick bungalow, situated in a tidy residential neighborhood on Chicago's Southwest Side.

"We won't reveal the cause of death on the one because we don't want to let the cat out of the bag," he continued. "We don't have any suspects right now and the only person who knows (the cause of death) is the murderer."

Reagan praises Hungarian Premier

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Reagan, encouraging a reform-minded Eastern European Communist Party leader, praised Hungarian Premier Karoly Grosz Wednesday for "your openness to new ideas."

At the conclusion of the first-ever official White House visit by a Hungarian Communist Party leader, Reagan and Grosz agreed that economic reform in Hungary will necessitate a freer political climate.

"Hungary has to face enormous tasks today," Grosz said through an interpreter during a departure statement on the South Lawn of the White House. "This can only be done, we are aware, if the people, if the citizens enjoy more rights, more freedoms."

A million dollar idea pays $5,000

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A million-dollar idea paid a $5,000 dividend Wednesday for a state employee who devised a way to cut the state's cost for handling pension-fund money.

Gerri Polley, a fiscal officer in the state treasurer's Springfield office, received the $5,000 award under an Illinois program that rewards employees for cost-saving suggestions.

She suggested a technical adjustment that shortens the time certain pension funds are held by the treasurer's office, reducing the amount of interest the state must pay on the money by an estimated $950,000 this year.

"I think this kind of shows that state employees do work," Ms. Polley said at a luncheon honoring her and other award winners.

How will she spend the money?

"I've got three children. I'm sure they'll find a way," Ms. Polley said after receiving the $5,000 check.

Nearly 900 ideas have been submitted to the State Employees Suggestion Award Board, established two years ago, but Ms. Polley is the first employee to receive the maximum award of $5,000, officials said.

Sen. John Davidson, R-Springfield, the board chairman, said in a statement that the ideas have saved the state $1.2 million and have resulted in $16,000 in awards to state workers.

Iraqi planes bomb Iranian capital

BAGHDAD (AP)—Iranian rebels said Wednesday they held two cities well inside Iran and had killed or wounded thousands of Iranian soldiers. Iran claimed Iraqi planes dropped chemical bombs on a provincial capital.

Ali Riza Jafer Zada, spokesman for the Mugehdeen Khalg rebels based in Iraq, also claimed its fighters shot down two Iranian warplanes and a helicopter gunship in the central sector of the 730 mile border warfront.

Foreign Minister Tarig Aziz of Iraq met in New York with Javier Perez de Cuellar, the U.N. secretary-general, still insisting on direct negotiations with Iran for a cease-fire in the 8-year-old war.

Perez de Cuellar also favors direct talks, but Iran has refused since announcing July 18 that it would accept a year-old U.N. peace resolution.

Aziz said before the meeting with Perez de Cuellar that Iraq, which accepted the resolution soon after it was passed, "shall not be stampeded into making a hasty step."

The secretary-general met Tuesday with Ali Akbar Velavati, foreign minister of Iran. After talking with Aziz, he said the sessions had been useful and both countries "are interested in putting an end to conflict."

Tehran's media said Tuesday that Iranian soldiers had regained Eslamabad and killed 1,000 rebels, but did not mention the Mujahedeen Khalg Wednesday.

Dispatches reported events on the southern front; however, they said Iranian forces killed 100 enemy soldiers in driving them back across the border near Khorramshahr.

On the central front, the rebels claimed to have "crushed" Iranian offensive and recaptured Eslamabad, 60 miles inside

Justice morale not bad says Keating

WASHINGTON (AP)—Acting Associate Attorney General Frank Keating said today that morale at the Justice Department is not as bad as former top department officials have portrayed it.

At his confirmation hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee, Keating said, "the morale is not on the floor."

On Tuesday, former Deputy Attorney General Arnold Burns testified that when he resigned March 29 a "deep malaise" had set in at the department in the face of Attorney General Edwin Meese III's ongoing legal problems.

Keating, however, testified that he doesn't think the morale problem is as serious as Burns and former criminal division chief William Weld portrayed it "at least not today."

Keating said that when he came to the Justice Department in May after serving as an assistant treasury secretary, "I was under the impression" that it was "a black hole over there" in terms of morale.

"I found that was not the case," Keating said.

"I think the department is functioning well and I look forward to serving under" the man chosen by President Reagan to be Meese's successor, former Pennsylvania Gov. Richard Thornburgh, Keating testified.

Keating was asked by Sen. Howell Heflin, D-Ala., could be done to improve morale at the Justice Department.

Keating replied that it is important for the Senate to confirm nominees to positions in the Justice Department. Keating is serving in an acting capacity in the job in the department while Harold Christensen is serving as acting deputy attorney general.

Edward Dennis is the acting attorney general in charge of the criminal division. The judicial committee is holding a confirmation hearing on Dennis today; a hearing for Christensen is scheduled for Thursday.

U.S. eats too much fat, salt, booze

WASHINGTON (AP)—Millions of Americans are waddling their way to early graves by consuming too much fat, too much salt and washing it all down with too much booze, the U.S. surgeon general reported on Wednesday.

"Diseases of dietary excess and imbalance" are among the leading causes of death in the United States, said the report issued by C. Everett Koop. "Overconsumption...is now a major concern for Americans."

The study said that of 2.1 million Americans who died last year, nearly 1.5 million succumbed to diseases associated with diet.

"What we eat may affect our risk for several of the leading causes of death for Americans, notably coronary heart disease, stroke, atherosclerosis, diabetes and some types of cancer," the report said. "These disorders together now account for more than two-thirds of all deaths in the United States."

The study said that many Americans are too fat, while others fail to get required nutrients such as calcium and iron. And the report repeatedly emphasized the need to cut down on consumption of animal products and replace them with a greater variety of foods, particularly fruits, vegetables and whole grains.

Nutrition experts praised the report, predicting that it may have an important impact on how Americans regard their diet and on products sold by the food industry.

Though the report acknowledges that malnutrition remains a problem in some parts of the world and for certain Americans, it says that "for most of us the more likely problem is becoming one of overeating many calories for our actual levels and an imbalance in the nutrients consumed along with them."

McDaniel gets first, is last to know

By REBECCA GAMBILL
Campus Editor

Everyone knew except Mary McDaniel that she had won the Hemingway Days Festival short story contest, but two days after the official announcement the Eastern English instructor finally heard the news.

McDaniel is an English instructor at Eastern and was on vacation in Orlando, Fla. when the announcement of the winner was made in Key West, Fla. She said that her being in Florida had nothing to do with the contest and that it was simply a coincidence that she was in Florida on the weekend of the contest.

McDaniel's short story "The Dance of Three" was chosen over 579 other entries, and earned her $1,000. All manuscripts were anonymous, and the stories were narrowed down twice before a final winner was named.

McDaniel explained that the story focuses on an old woman, a former dancer, who has lost one family when she was young. She was in love with a male dancer and became pregnant. Her father banished the man and got rid of the baby.

When she is older she lives across the street from a mother and her daughter who live in a new house which has a big window in the front. This house is McDaniel's house, and she says that anyone who knows her reads the story will recognize it.

The idea for the story came to her when she was in front of her window with her daughter, McDaniel explained. As she stood in front of the window she wondered if anyone might be watching her sometimes.

The old woman in the story realizes the mistakes she had made in raising her own daughter as she watches the mother and daughter across the street.

McDaniel has won two other major contests with her short stories. About three years ago, she placed first in a contest put on by the Illinois Times newspaper. The story was about a little boy who had congenital ingeneosis and was being used by his father to make money. The idea for this story came from a collection can which had a picture of a boy with that disease.

The other was the L. Ron Hubbard short story contest about two years ago.

Robin touts "greatest good" standard

By SUSAN THOMAS
Campus Editor

Do businesses behave unethically and away with it? The answer is yes, according to Dr. Donald P. Robin, professor of management and marketing at Louisiana Tech University who spoke as part of Eastern's summer lecture series.

The big thing that customers look for when buying a product is a name they can trust," Robin said. "Corporations are very much aware of this, and they misuse our trust," he explained in his Tuesday night lecture titled, "Incorporating Ethics into Business Decision Making."

Just think if you had to make a moral decision about everything that you put into the shopping cart before you buy it," Robin pointed out. "I'm talking about everyday products."

Using flouride toothpaste as an example, he pointed to his teeth saying, "Everyone knows that flouride fights cavities. It does this by building a hard layer on the surface of your teeth."

What they don't tell you is that it also causes your teeth to turn yellow, Robin noted.

Brighteners and whiteners on the other hand, scrape away that protective coating.

When the public hears this type of hidden information, it is usually the company who suffers a loss of profits and customer trust. "It's like they're playing Russian roulette," Robin said.

Robin argues, "The best long term profits come from companies that behave, not misbehave." These are companies that are "open, honest, and fair."

Because a company, like the makers of Tylenol, may spend a lot of money on advertising, that does not make it more ethical nor does it make Tylenol a better product than Datril, Robin explained. They both contain the same ingredients.

As consumers, "We don't have time or knowledge so we place our trust in companies," Robin said.

He suggest that companies should be run in an ethical way similar to an ethical individual, a person who has strong correct values and tries to live by them.

If companies begin to follow a strong set of moral values then they would gain more trust from customers and employees as well.

"Just imagine if businesses cared about customers and employees. It would lead to a surge of trust. What a nice five letter word," Robin said.

Robin addressed a solution to the problem of company ethics saying, "What I propose is not an easy task. It is the difference between the garbage man that spills half the garbage in the truck and leaves the rest on the street and the garbage man who spills half of the garbage in the street but takes time to pick it up."

Robin suggested that "The greatest (total) good for the greatest number" is a standard that should be followed. If the good outweighs the bad, then the company should follow those moral standards that will benefit the largest number of people.

BOG to act on budget requests

By CRAIG EDWARDS
Managing editor

In addition to discussing a variety of budget matters, the Board of Governors will act on several expenditure requests from Eastern President Stan Rives at Thursday's 9 a.m. meeting in the Union Old Ballroom.

In his report to the BOG, Rives is requesting $65,867 to upgrade the existing parking lot on Ninth Street just north of the Ninth Street residence hall.

Rives said the bid from NE-CO Asphalt Co. Inc. in Charleston includes resurfacing the existing crushed rock lot with a new bituminous concrete surface.

"We would like to have that project completed by the opening of the fall semester," Rives said, adding that although the lot is not that heavily used right now, the resurfacing would improve the conditions and increase usage.

The BOG approved a $68,554 expenditure request in June to expand the parking lot on Fourth Street across from Lawson Hall. NE-CO Asphalt also presented the lowest bid for that project, but has not yet started the expansion which will create an additional 120 parking spaces for students, faculty and staff.

"The Fourth Street lot is our highest priority since it is much more heavily used," Rives said.

Rives will also present a $95,838 bid to the board for professional architectural services for the Greek Court project. The bid, from Upchurch & Associates in Mattoon, includes preparation of drawings, on-site observation during construction and confirmation of construction specifications.

The Greek Court project, which will provide housing for fraternities and sororities, was approved by the BOG as a non-instructional capital improvement last September.

Rives said although the sitework preparations for the project have already begun, approval of bids must be obtained from the board for each phase of the project.

In other business, the board will act on a $10,000 request from Rives for repairs and remodeling of the University House, 1112 Williamsburg Dr., which is used as the official residence of the university president.

With board approval, the university purchased the house and property in 1987 as recommended by the Illinois Board of Higher Education. Since the residence is now state property, an annual appropriated budget of $10,000 has been established to provide for repair and remodeling costs.

"My obligation is to keep that house in good shape for the next president," Rives said.

Funds for Coleman Annex to be released in September

By REBECCA GAMBILL
Campus Editor

Samplin College of Business expects the September releasing of state funds for the annex to Coleman Hall, which the Capital Development Board released on July 21.

The project was part of a Senate bill and Governor James Thompson was expected to propose some amendatory changes, explained Rep. Micheal Weaver, R-Charleston. He said that the CDB got permission from the governor to proceed with the projects that were not under consideration for amendatory vetoes, and the Coleman Hall Annex was one of those projects.

Once the state funds are received, Weaver said, bidding will take place. He said this should take about a month.

There are many requirements in choosing a company besides just the lowest bid. Weaver explained that flexibility must be made for company quality, women and minority requirements, and preference is given to area and Illinois companies.

Weaver said that groundbreaking is scheduled for November but could take place in October due to the additional funding by Eastern. This would allow construction to begin in November.

The target date for completion is November 1990, which would make the building available for classes in the spring semester of 1991. However, Weaver said, "I would like to see them moved in and operating in the building by the fall semester of 1990."

The four-story building, which will house Eastern's School of Business under one roof for the first time, will be located between Coleman and Klehm Halls. It will be connected to Klehm Hall with a ground breezeway and to Coleman Hall by a second story enclosed walkway.

Presently, business classes are held in six different buildings on campus. Ted Ivarie, dean of the college of business, said that having classes spread out over the campus causes many inconveniences for both students and faculty, especially during the winter months.

It will house many needed additional classrooms, auditoriums, case study rooms, computer labs, faculty offices, and faculty and staff lounges. But most important, when a visitor or prospective student asks, "Where is your business school?", there will be only one answer.

BOG must find alternatives to tuition hikes

So, the Board of Governors is meeting at Eastern this time around. Too bad its not under better circumstances.

The BOG, the governing board of Chicago State University, Governors State University, Northeastern Illinois University, Western Illinois University and Eastern, will listen today to Chancellor Thomas Layzell's fiscal '89 budget report and his expected discussion of a spring semester tuition hike for students.

Eastern President Stan Rives has already warned students to anticipate a spring increase in tuition relative to Gov. James R. Thompson's approval of the budget, which provides a 5.7 percent increase in faculty salaries.

"If he (Thompson) approves the budget, we'll probably see a modest increase in the spring. But if he doesn't approve the budget, the chances of a hefty increase are pretty good," Rives was quoted as saying in the July 21 Daily Eastern News.

Rives is concerned that the increase will not keep pace with inflation after last year's funding cuts, resulting in additional "faculty flight" at Eastern if educators do not receive higher salaries, and rightly so.

But burdening the students with a mid-year tuition hike after last year's spring increase of $96 per semester, which brought tuition rates for undergrads to $1,236 a semester for lower division coursework and $1,260 for upper division classes, is not the answer.

Instead of "passing the buck" to students because Thompson's tax increase failed to pass the General Assembly, BOG representatives should be brainstorming for ideas to deal with the situation themselves.

Not only should the board be concerned about faculty flight, they should also consider that raising tuition each year will eventually outpace Eastern and the rest of the BOG schools, resulting in "student flight."

Two things are essential in the classroom: teachers and students!

Letter policy

The Daily Eastern News welcomes letters to the editor from any reader addressing issues relating to the campus community.

The name and telephone number of a least one author must be submitted with each letter to the editor. Letters must be 250 words or less.

Only the first three names from letters containing more than three authors will be published unless further specified.

Parking policy will burden everyone

As fall of 1988 approaches, I am looking forward to buying a parking sticker for my car. Yes, it is that time again, ready for the long line hoping that I can get a parking sticker. If I remember correctly, the parking permit line last year was a few blocks long, and started around 4 a.m. It should be a rerun of last year, right? Wrong!!!

This year we have a policy change. Now enforcement will be 24 hours a day, seven days a week. I am writing this to share with you the problem that the new parking policy presents to me, and see if we have any similar problems.

First, money for a student is already tight, right? Try this: I have to buy two parking stickers due to policy change. You-see, I live 30 miles away, which means I will have two cars I can use, my car and the family car. Before I wouldn't of had to buy a sticker for the family car because I only use it on the weekends, but now I will because of the policy.

Secondly, I have friends that come to visit me during the year; afterall, doesn't everybody? One friend has a truck he drives. We all can't fit in the cab of the truck and ride comfortably, so we always get in my car and leave his truck (without a permit). Before its has always been okay because he gets here around 7:00 p.m. and usually leaves around 9:30 p.m. This has always worked perfectly until now. He only visits three or four times a year, so we normally didn't get a permit for to park two hours. I guess we will now, or we will get with a $10 fine.

Thirdly, my parents, like most parents, will want to come to see me this year. They are like most parents who don't understand parking regulations and don't know the campus will ask me where to park. I explain to them to go park on a street six blocks away since most streets around campus say no parking after 6 p.m., and I will follow you and pick you up. I can see my parents now as they say, "You want us to do what?!"

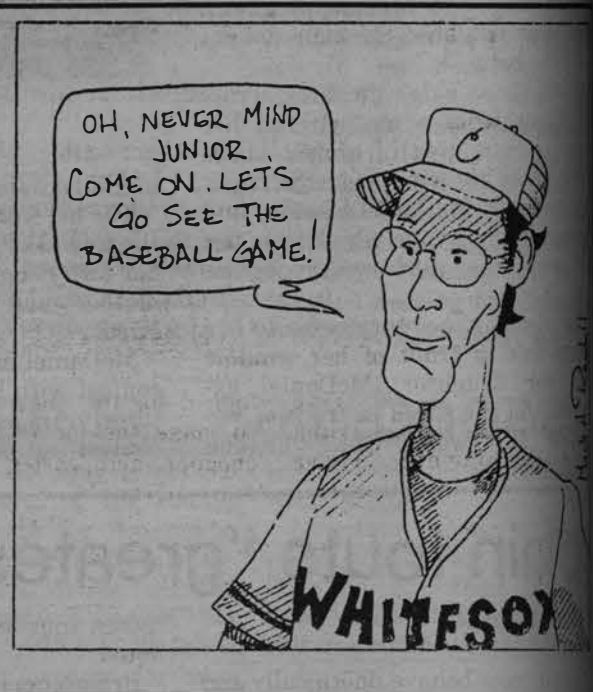

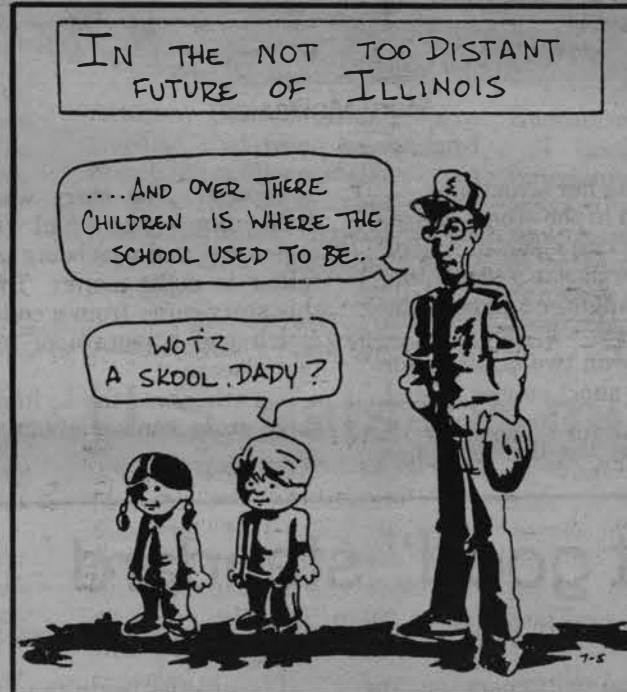

My parents will probably think I am playing some college prank on them. Anyway, I will talk them into going to buy a temporary permit so they can visit me an hour. If they have to pay 50 cents to park for a hour I would expect a parking garage.

And finally, I feel sorry for the citizens of Chicago and the surrounding area. There are times after 5 p.m. when commuters come back to do extra work or classes. If they bring a car back without a permit they could risk getting ticketed.

And how about the Tarble Arts Center and Douglas Fine Arts Center? With no close parking for people to come to the concerts and plays given during the year we should realize that this gives a bad impression of Eastern. Afterall, a university should be involved in the community and not discourage attendance at plays or concerts.

In my opinion, the new parking policy will burden Eastern more than it will help, how do you feel?

—Curtis Keltz is a guest columnist for the summer edition of The Daily Eastern News.

Lawmakers fail education in Illinois

Here we go again. Another outrageous tuition hike, the second in less than a year, as students are again forced to pay for the state's failure to adequately support higher education.

The elected leaders of the state of Illinois must take the blame for the current dire straits of higher education. The state of Illinois has a fundamental responsibility to provide for higher education, whether it be through a tax hike or any other means. The Illinois Constitution contains a clause declaring that, "A fundamental goal of the people of the state is the educational development of all persons to the limits of their capacities."

Apparently, however, the politicians have concluded that the most effective way to obtain this objective is to restrict students' "capacities" to the point where the "limits" can be reached more easily.

For instance, if my financial capacity becomes so restricted that I can attend the University for only three years, then, by attending the University for three years and withdrawing because I can no longer afford the ridiculous tuition hikes, I have effectively reached the limits of my capacities. The state has accomplished its goal.

Why stop there? It would be even easier to attain the limits of my capacities if tuition were so exorbitantly over-priced that I couldn't afford even a semester. If all state-subsidized colleges and universities had their funding squeezed to the point that only a few very wealthy students could afford to attend them, then the state will see their "fundamental goal" realized each and every time a student simply graduates high school.

Let us assume, though, that the constitution was referring to the limits of people's mental, not financial, capacities. The state, then, is committed to providing an opportunity for affordable, quality higher education for all its citizens. In this respect, the state of Illinois has been grossly negligent.

How about the fact that the Illinois Board of Higher Education recommends that tuition cover one-third of a student's educational cost at a public university, with the state covering the rest. University students will now be paying approximately 50 percent more than that level.

Crossview

The Daily Illinois
University of Illinois

Then of course there was the state's recent "extra-top priority" during the last legislative session: a new stadium for the Chicago White Sox. The state's politicians deemed it necessary to provide millions in funding for a new stadium so the White Sox wouldn't flee to Florida. Deadlines were waived in order for the deal to be worked out, but, thankfully, the urgent matter was resolved. Everyone can rejoice because a private corporations extorted $150 million from the state for a new structure in which to play a game.

Gov. Thompson wants us to know that no "existing" tax money will be used for the new stadium. He tells us of the clever plan to tax hotel and motel guests in Chicago, which will provide the $150 million. "It will be the tourists who finance the whole thing!" beams Thompson proudly, although he tells of no special exemption for Illinois citizens who happen to be staying in Chicago hotels.

Why did the state provide seven times more extra funding for the White Sox than for its "flagship" of public higher education, the University of Illinois? Even more to the point, why did the state drop the whole education-funding problem two days before the end of the session and then concentrate on creating some scheme to bail out the White Sox? Why couldn't someone have devised a similar plan for education?

The politicians of this state have shirked their responsibility to education. Some, most notably Comptroller Roland Burris and House Speaker Michael Madigan, claim there is plenty of money in the budget to go around. I ask these people, where is education's share of that money?

PLEASE MAKE ALL HOUSING PAYMENTS
AT THE CASHIERS OFFICE, OLD MAIN

SUE ORATOR / Staff photographer

Joan Mathews, a clerk typist in the housing Services building. The office will be moved to the University Union this fall.

Housing office to get new home

MIKE BROWN

As fall when you go to the union to spend your money on food and junkfood that you saved to pay your living fees, you'll have reason to think twice.

According to Louis Hencken, director of housing at Eastern, the housing offices... "hope to move before Thanksgiving, when we (housing offices) have a full before Spring semester begins."

The Housing offices, now located in the student services building, will be moving into the Union Station. Hencken had three reasons for the move: the offices are presently cramped for space, the union is accessible to handicapped students and the move will provide computer services more room for lab space in the student services building.

The original idea was for the computer services to move into the vending lounge at the union. However, Joan Gossett, Union director, was opposed to the idea. Hencken then suggested to Vice President Williams that it would be more logical for the housing offices to make the move. It is also cheaper and easier than to move all the P.C.'s.

Both the Union and the housing office are funded by bond revenues, whereas the computer services are under general revenues.

Gossett said very little remodeling would actually be needed. "Any cost will be covered by funds generated by extra camp fees from this summer, so there should be no actual cost to the university."

Both Hencken and Gossett stated that the move would create more traffic in the Union which would be good for all operations of the Union.

"The Union Station had very little traffic anyway and if the students need another place to study we may make arrangements to have more space available for studying."

Michelle Michals, speaker for the summer Student Senate, stated that student government had no input into the decision however, they would do anything they could to cooperate with the housing office to give them what they need. "It should be a good thing for everybody and we haven't had any complaints yet."

Former EIU student exhibits at CITYART

By DEB FLORER
Staff writer

Still life artist David I. Dooley, a former Charleston resident and Eastern student, is this month's feature at CITYART '88, located at 520 Jackson Ave., Charleston.

In addition to working on his art pieces, Dooley, who currently resides in Lawrenceville, Ill., is a teacher in the commercial art department at Vincennes University in Vincennes, Ind.

Born in Richland County, Dooley spent his early youth in Greenup and moved to Charleston during his teenage years. He pursued his interest in art as an Eastern student, and it was then that Dooley began experimenting with light, shadows, and distortions in his paintings; an influence that helped him develop the style he has today.

Besides Eastern, Dooley also attended the University of Illinois and the American Academy of Art in Chicago.

He won the 1987 "Realism Today" $1500 award for his work "Still Life with Fish Cutting Board," which was presented at the Museum of Arts and Science in Evansville, Ind.

Other awards that Dooley has received include a first place award at the 1979 Northwest Territory Show in Vincennes, Ind., and a $750 purchase award in 1984.

CITYART features artists for a period of one month, and Dooley's art works, which consist of 15 still life paintings, will remain on display through July 31. Old friends from Dooley's high school years will be able to enjoy Dooley's paintings when they meet for their 30th class reunion on July 30 and 31 in Charleston.

Coles County Fair opens Sunday, runs through Aug. 6

Black and blue cotton candy sticks. Animals strutting in front of the judges. Junksters crashing into another. Sleek trotters racing for the finish line. It's exciting; it's here!

The 1988 Coles County Fair runs July 31 and ends Aug. 6 at the Fairgrounds.

The 4-H Extension Center will open to the public Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. According to Carol Baker, former assistant at the Cooperative Extension Service, projects will be judged on Friday so that ribbons can be displayed alongside them. Champions will be named in each category with some projects being chosen to compete at the Illinois State Fair.

A wide range of projects will be on exhibit, including arts and crafts, woodworking, photography, childcare, vegetable and flower gardening, citizenship and leadership among others.

A Grand Champion 4-H Showmanship competition among all of the winners in the separate animal shows will be held at the Show and Sale Arena at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Several other 4-H events will be held throughout the week, but the highlight for many will be the Livestock Auctions on Friday.

Baker says anyone may bid to purchase an animal at the auction, which last year sold eight poultry, 40 steers, 25 rabbits, 22 lamb, four goats and 43 barrows.

But all of the excitement isn't at the pole barns. Grandstand events get underway on Sunday and run through Saturday. Admission tickets are $2 during the day and $3 at night for ages six and over.

Sunday night is Family Night at the Grandstand. Several country and western bands will perform beginning at 7:30 p.m.; no admission will be charged.

Monday night's Horse and Pony Show begins at 6:30 p.m. and again admission to the Grandstand is free.

The Class AA Tractor/Truck/Antique Pull is slated for 7:00 p.m. Tuesday.

The Coles County Queen Pageant begins at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, with 8:00 p.m. also the scheduled starting time for Thursday's WEIC Talent Show and Ugly Dog Contest. Admission to the Grandstand Thursday night will be only $2.

Another Tractor Pull will be held at 7:00 p.m. Friday, with a Demolition Derby closing out the Fair's Grandstand events on Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Ray Sweaver Amusements will be on the midway all week. A "kids day" in which children can buy tickets at discount prices will begin at noon on Tuesday, with another discount day likely to be named later.

Food and fun planned for Bagelfest

editor

Food and some entertainment will be a lot of food. Well, Mattoon Bagelfest is the place for it.

Bagelfest, now in its third year, is an annual event that is held every summer on Broadway avenue between 15th and 17th streets.

Bagelfest began when Kraft started production in Mattoon and with cooperation of the Mattoon City of Commerce planned the fest to produce native residents to a new product.

From then, Bagelfest has become an anticipated event of live entertainment and a variety of bagels for everyone.

Entertainment Saturday begins with the opening ceremonies on 15th and Broadway where Kraft, assistant John Craig and Mayor Lender the man responsible for nationwide Cinnamon Twists mania.

Other planned events include a bagel breakfast, a Bagelfest beauty pageant and an entertainment of singers and live bands.

Other fests in the area include the Jewett Homecoming celebration on July 30 and 31. The two-day event will begin Friday at 9 a.m. at Jewett Park.

The 1980s dance and costume contest is planned for 7 p.m. followed by the "Midwest Country Express", a country band group.

Events Sunday will then include a parade beginning at 10 a.m. later followed by the Mark Allen and Gospel choir.

There is no charge for any of the entertainment planned.

In addition to being elected to the state House of Representatives in 1964, Mr. Connelly has served as a member of the Democratic State Central Committee, Charleston Town Board, chairman of the Coles County Democratic Party. He has also served as a delegate to two Democratic national conventions.

"Being married to Joe, I'm obviously involved with the Democratic party," she said. But her roots in politics run even deeper in her family.

"Politics has always played an important role in my family," Connelly recalled.

Although political involvement does run in her family, affiliation with the Democratic party isn't as hereditary. "My grandfather was a Republican, but my father decided that wasn't the way to go," Connelly said.

She said her father voted for Harry S. Truman and Adlai Stevenson because he thought they would help the farmers. Connelly grew up on a farm north of the Fox River near Millington, 60 miles southwest of Chicago in DeKalb County.

After graduating from high school, she majored in theater arts at Illinois Wesleyan College in Bloomington. Even that had an influence on her political involvement because she says "politics is like theater with a cause."

But Connelly dropped out of college in 1966 when she married her first husband and moved to Charleston. Since then, she has completed her bachelor's degree in education at Eastern, taught art in Newman and Charleston elementary schools and completed a master's degree in guidance and counseling; all the time remaining politically active.

Connelly's position with the Charleston school system was cut in 1987, forcing her into an early retirement. But she doesn't mind, because that gives her even more time for politics.

This fall she will need that time to register voters, "democratic voters," she points out, and make sure they make it to the polls.

"I think Dukakis' chances of winning are very good," she said, adding that she wants to make sure all of the area Democrats get out and vote.

Connelly also hopes that people not affiliated with either party will get out and vote for Dukakis. "There are a lot of individuals that aren't involved with politics because they are too busy working, but they do vote," she said, adding that they will hopefully decide to give the Democrats a chance in the White House.

"We've had eight years of Ronald Reagan and the rich have gotten richer and the poor have gotten poorer, she said, adding that even though the Reagan administration brags that unemployment is at an all time low, many people are working at dead end jobs for minimum wage.

Connelly believes Dukakis can change all of that. "Dukakis stands for all of the right things. He cares about education, medical costs, the elderly and the working class," Connelly said. "He has the pizzazz that Walter Mondale unfortunately was never able to show the American people," she added.

years in a row," Beaulieu said.

She said several Eastern faculty members from University Professional Illinois Local 4100 will participate in the rally as a show of support for the service employees.

Beaulieu said informational flyers will be circulated at the rally and signs with brief messages will be displayed.

Pam Meyer, BOG spokesperson, was on campus early Wednesday to prepare for Thursday meeting and reacted to the rally plans. "It's a legal way for them to express their concerns," Meyer said, adding that the BOG is already aware of the financial crisis and will be addressing those problems at the meeting.

tuition increase of $96 per semester was approved for the 1988 spring semester.

That increase brought tuition for undergraduate students up to $1,236 per academic year for lower division coursework and $1,260 per academic year for upper division coursework. Graduate students currently pay $1,344 per year for tuition.

Rives said although last year's tuition increase didn't effect enrollment, further increases in tuition could limit the ability of some students to attain higher education.

"This university (Eastern) has a unique situation because more students want to attend classes here than we have room for," Rives said. "That's probably because it has been so affordable," he added.

"But with further increases in tuition and decreasing financial aid for students, fewer of them are going to be able to afford it," Rives said.

He said even though he thinks a tuition increase is likely, he may not support one. "If we approve another tuition increase, that simply tells the legislature that they don't have to increase funding because we will make up for it with a tuition increase," Rives said.

All-Pro Manley suspended after test reveals drug use

NEW YORK (AP) — Dexter Manley of the Washington Redskins was suspended for 30 days by Commissioner Pete Rozelle Wednesday for failing the NFL's substance abuse test. The league did not characterize the move as a suspension, league spokesman Joe Browne said that Manley had been notified that he had voluntarily been placed on the team's football injury list for 30 days. Manley has been instructed by the Redskins to report to the team's training camp on Aug. 26. Rozelle said in a statement issued through Browne, "I would make Manley eligible to play in the Super Bowl champions' pre-season opener Sept. 5 against the New York Giants.

Manley, who in 1987 underwent treatment for alcohol abuse at the Hazelden Institute in Minnesota, met with Rozelle last Friday after reports that an illegal substance turned up in a drug test.

Browne, asked if Rozelle's ruling involved new treatment, had no comment. Both Coach Joe Gibbs and general manager Bobby Beathard of the Redskins also professed ignorance of whether Manley was undergoing treatment, although Gibbs said:

"I feel good about the fact that Dexter is in good hands. There are people working with him to help him with his problem."

her players in the games. Jerry and Brenda did really well in the jobs and Perkes had an outstanding tournament." Hilke was also happy with the play of Geri Steele, a 6'2" freshman from the Northern Scholastic team. "It was a very good experience for me to play at that level of competition," said Hilke. In the Men's Basketball, Barry Johnson, an incoming freshman, was the Scholastic's leading scorer including a game of 55 points, believed to be a record for the Games. Other incoming freshman, Ed Olson, helped to lead his team to a second place finish. Olson scored 35 points in one game and had 27 in the gold medal game including five 3-pointers in a row. In the Men's Open Basketball, Eastern senior David Johnson was on the fourth place team, the Pioneers, and was fourth leading scorer with 14 points in the four games. Representing the Panther's men's volleyball team was incoming freshman Jenny Aggert who played on the West team that won the National Medal in the Scholastic division. According to Eastern's volleyball Coach Ralston, Aggert started the match and was "blocking well." Stover, a returning player, had planned to play but was out because of an injury.

Kelly Stouffer, said Tuesday that he would consider trading one of the picks for a cornerback.

The Cardinals have been talking to San Francisco about holdout cornerback Tim McKyer, a two-year starter. But those talks are said to be on hold until after the 49er's play a pre-season game Sunday against the Miami Dolphins.

Wilson said Tuesday that talks also have been held with the Pittsburgh Steelers, but would not say which player was discussed. The Steelers have been shopping veteran cornerback Dwayne Woodruff, 31, who lost his starting job to rookie Rod Woodson in 1987.

Wilson said he has no immediate interest in 22-year-old free safety Nolan Cromwell, released Monday by the Los Angeles Rams. And he said he would not pursue holdout cornerbacks Bobby Butler of Atlanta and Barry Wilburn of Washington unless their teams give him permission.

The free agents waived Wednesday included former University of Arizona quarterback Alfred Jenkins, who was attempting to make the team as a tight end, and Scott Johnson, a linebacker from Northern Arizona.

Also waived were defensive end Larry Mathis of Texas Tech and punter Mark Royals of Appalachian State.

Soccer team nets third place; Noffert excels

By MIKE BROWN
Staff writer

Last weeks Prairie State Games in Champaign, provided several Eastern athletes with a showcase to display their talents.

Cizo Mosnia, Eastern's head soccer coach, led the BlueGray team to a third place finish in their division with a 1 - 1 - 1 record.

Although Coach Mosnia's team included 6 Eastern players, the team, overall, didn't get the chance to practice.

"You just can't put a bunch together and expect them to play real well," said Mosnia, who made his Prairie State Games coaching debut. "We had a rough time at the beginning but we got better as we kept playing. It was a good experience."

Playing for the BlueGray team from Eastern were Mike Barclay, sophomore, Ryszard Drozdowski, freshman, Brian Henn, senior, Gary Laidlaw, junior, Mario Mihalic, sophomore, and Mark Noffert, senior. Noffert was also the team's leading scorer.

Two other players from Eastern, Greg Muhr, a junior, and the captain of the Panthers' soccer team, and Ken Rogan, a senior, both played in the championship game for the North Shore team.

Representing Eastern's Women's Basketball program at the Games were Sheri Bonsett, senior, and Brenda Webb, senior, for the BlueGray team and Barb Perkes, junior, and Stacy Friedlich, sophomore, who both played for the Southern region.

Perkes was the second leading scorer in the Open Division behind Jonnell Pugh, who was the Big Ten Player of the year. Perkes also had the most points in a single game (35) for the tournament.

The BlueGray team took home a gold medal for their efforts and the Southern team won the bronze.

Barbara Hilke, Eastern's Women's Basketball coach, was very pleased with the play of her team. (See EIU, p. 11)

Anderson takes Payton's place on Bear's line

PLATTEVILLE (AP) — Chicago Bears running back Neal Anderson has a tough act to follow this season, but he shows no signs of stage fright.

He's replacing Walter Payton who retired after setting the National Football League rushing record of 16,726 yards.

But Anderson doesn't see himself as Payton's heir apparent.

"The fans and media look at it that way, but I don't," he said. "All I can do is go out there and do what Neal Anderson can do."

When Payton first started climbing to stardom, he was compared to Chicago Bears great Gale Sayers, who retired in 1971 after five Pro Bowl selections, 23 team records and seven NFL records.

"Sayers was Sayers," Payton would say, "I am Walter Payton." As it turned out, Sayers was an explosive runner without the durability of the hard-hitting Payton. And Payton never had the elusiveness of Sayers.

"If I had to use the two as examples, my style would be somewhere in the middle," said the 5'11", 210 pound Anderson. "I have speed and power, but I am a slashing-type runner."

Although he played out of position at fullback last year so Coach Mike Ditka could have him and Payton in the same backfield, Anderson led the Bears in rushing with 586 yards and also caught 47 passes for 467 yards.

He was the first Bear besides Payton to lead the team in rushing since 1974.

Anderson will be back at his normal position of tailback this season.

"Last year was tough on me," he said. "I ran for four yards instead of eight. A fullback runs through a hole and if it's not there, you make your own hole. A halfback runs to daylight."

But because of the shift, Anderson said, "I became a better blocker and helped me understand our offensive scheme better, the total picture."

Ditka ranks him among the most talented players in the league.

"I think this kid can be a great football player, a great running back from the tailback position," the coach said. "He'll be better at tailback than fullback, and he wasn't bad at all as a fullback."

Ditka inducted into Hall of Fame

PLATTEVILLE (AP) — Coach Mike Ditka, who leaves the Chicago Bears training camp this week to be inducted into pro football's Hall of Fame, says he doesn't consider it an individual honor.

Reminiscing a bit Wednesday, he said the late George Halas, owner and coach of the Bears, had much to do with the early success of a young tight end named Mike Ditka.

"I had a coach who designed an offense that threw the ball to the tight end and changed the look of pro football in the early 1960's," Ditka said. "I just played the position as good as I could, the way Mr. Halas designed it."

Ditka was the Bear's first-round draft pick in 1961, when he went on to capture NFL Rookie of the Year honors. He played six seasons with the Bears and made the Pro Bowl five times, then spent two years with the Philadelphia Eagles before finishing his playing career with the Dallas Cowboys over four seasons.

In 1964, Ditka caught 75 passes, a record for tight ends that stood until 1980 when the NFL went from 14 to 16 games.

Ditka will be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Saturday in Canton, Ohio, along with Fred Biletnikoff, Alan Page and Jack Ham.

"I've had a lot of thoughts about it, but nothing to belabor," he said.

"It's great for my family and friends, and it's a great tribute to the Bears, the team that started me and the Dallas Cowboys, the team I finished with."

Among his greatest thrills as a player, Ditka said, were the 1963 NFL championship with the Bears and the 1971 Super Bowl title with Dallas, in which he scored the clinching touchdown.

The Bears defeated the highly-respected Green Bay Packers twice enroute to their 1963 title and one of Ditka's fondest memories is the team effort that made it happen.

"In the 1960's, the Green Bay Packers were still the cream of the crop, an exceptional team," he recalled.

"It was a tremendous team effort. We were sort of out of it (the race) early and then we ran off an undefeated streak where we won a lot of crucial games to win it."

Ditka will be joined by his immediate family.

Cardinals' search for a cornerback continues

FLAGSTAFF (AP) — The Phoenix Cardinals held a brief workout at their Northern Arizona University training camp Wednesday, then packed up for a trip to Greeley, Colo., and three days of workouts with the Denver Broncos.

The Cardinals waived four free agents Wednesday, reducing their roster to 87 players, and pro personnel director Larry Wilson acknowledged that he might be willing to trade a high draft pick for help at cornerback.

During their stay at the Broncos' training camp at Northern Colorado University, the Cardinals will participate in up to three scrimmages featuring rookies, free agents and others whose jobs might be on the line.

"I'd like to scrimmage 30 minutes a day if (Denver coach) Dan Reeves wants," said Cardinals coach Gene Stallins. "There is a lot to gain (by scrimmaging). You get twice as much work. You see how your people stack up against other people. This (Denver) is a Super Bowl team."

The Cardinals are to return from Colorado on Saturday.

Wilson, noting that the Cardinals have their own first-round draft pick in 1989 plus Seattle's No. 1 pick, which they obtained for the rights to quarterback (See CARDS, p. 11)
