Deadline for absentee ballots nears

by Mike Dominick

Students who want to vote absentee in their home county for the upcoming general election must submit an application for an absentee ballot by Oct. 28.

Students may obtain applications by either writing a letter to their hometown county clerk or by going to the Coles County clerk's office located in the courthouse on the Charleston square, Coles County Clerk Jackie Bacon said.

To complete the application, students need to know the precinct in which their family residence is located. "If the precinct number is not known, that information can be obtained from the hometown clerk," she added.

Energy secretary to speak in Union

James Edwards, secretary of energy for the Reagan administration, will be speaking on behalf of State Senator Max Coffey (R-Charleston) at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Union Grand Ballroom.

Edwards will be speaking at the conclusion of a fundraising dinner for Coffey that will begin at 6 p.m. in the Ballroom.

Coffey is a Republican incumbent of the 53rd District, running for his third term as

The Coles County clerk's office has a listing of all county clerk's offices and addresses for Illinois counties. "If you live out of state you can obtain this information by writing your home state," she added.

"In most cases students can use the applications we have available in our office," Bacon said.

When a student's hometown county clerk's office receives the application, that office will send an absentee ballot to the student.

"Students must return these ballots to their county clerk's office before election day Nov. 2 or their vote will not be counted," Bacon said.

state senator.

Edwards was nominated by Reagan as secretary of energy in December 1980 and was confirmed by the U.S. Senate in January 1981. As secretary of energy, Edwards has promoted the use of nuclear energy.

Edwards was governor of South Carolina from 1975-1979, chairman of the Subcommittee of Nuclear Energy and a member of the Southern Governors' Conference.

ISSC votes to raise amount of awards

by Dana Eastridge

A recent decision by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission to adjust this year's award amounts to reflect tuition increases could affect between 1,200 and 1,500 Eastern students, a Financial Aids official said Tuesday.

And that figure is a "wild guess," John Flynn, associate director of financial aids, said.

ISSC Director Larry Matejka said Tuesday this year's awards were calculated before many colleges increased tuition, and therefore may be inaccurate, causing the recalculation.

"The staff recommended the adjustment in awards because they (the awards) were based on last year's tuitions," Matejka said.

He added the ISSC had "anticipated we'd want to do this."

The decision was made at an ISSC meeting Sept. 29 and 30, Matejka said.

Flynn said the recalculations should mostly affect partial award recipients.

"All the partial ISSC awards will have to be increased a minimum of $120," he said. "It will also open up some (students) who, prior to the decision, were ineligible."

Flynn said the list would include students who just missed being eligible under the old calculations, although he had "no idea how many."

Flynn expressed concern at the ISSC decision. "My reaction is I think the action was a little premature. No school has submitted their fall billing (to the ISSC), and the ISSC doesn't know how many (students) are out there actually in school," he said.

"They could conceivably now go through this fall and increase partials but then come back in the spring and run out of money and decrease (awards). I'd rather they'd waited 'til December or January and base (the recalculations) on payouts they'd made," Flynn added.

Matejka said other business at the meeting included approval of the Fiscal Year 1982 ISSC monetary award budget of $119 million.

A base amount of $98.6 million is included in the total and will be used for year-round processing of applications, he said.

This request increases the base amount $3.6 million over FY 83's base of $95 million.

Matejka said $10.6 million of the request has been allotted to pay awards that cover only tuition and fees.

The requested budget includes $6.3 million to pay recipients of maximum awards.

The ISSC is recommending $2,300 as next year's maximum award amount—an increase of $300 from this year's maximum awards, Matejka said.

He added that $3.5 million is budgeted for state scholars, who will be exempt from the "rationing mechanism" that applies to regular applicants.

"This is the amount we're going to request from the General Assembly," Matejka said.

The total budget will be sent to the General Assembly for approval as an appropriations bill, then to the governor for final approval.

Campus alarm system still malfunctioning

by Carl Pugliese

A malfunction in the fire alarm system on campus that was to be repaired last week has not yet been corrected, a housing official said Tuesday.

A fire alarm sounded again Tuesday morning in Stevenson Hall, although the system was thought to have been repaired last week after fire alarms sounded repeatedly in both Stevenson and Andrews halls, Housing Director Lou Hencken said.

Hencken said last week the fire alarms were probably triggered by electronic signals which originated from a master clock that controls the synchronization of all the wall clocks on campus.

Mark Shaklee, assistant housing director, said repairmen from Simplex, the company which makes and services the clocks on campus, serviced the clock and thought it was fixed.

The master clock was then turned back on and it later activated the Stevenson fire alarm, Shaklee said.

Shaklee said although only one residence hall fire alarm has sounded since the system was serviced last week, the malfunction could affect Andrews, Carman and Lawson halls.

Shaklee said he was uncertain how soon the alarms would be repaired. "It's more or less in the lap of the Simplex people."

News Round-up

Japan's prime minister resigns

TOKYO—Prime Minister Zenko Suzuki launched a new round of wheeling and dealing among the leaders of Japan's conservative political factions Tuesday with the surprise announcement that he is quitting next month after two years in office.

However, no change is expected in the government's pro-Western foreign policy. Nor is any change expected in the long-term economic policy of promoting exports and restricting imports without incurring retaliatory measures from trading partners.

Italian terrorist returned to Rome

ROME—A platoon of police agents returned from Bolivia Tuesday with one of two Italians wanted for the rightist bombing of the Bologna railway station that killed 85 people and injured 200.

The other wanted man, the founder of Italy's most dangerous neo-fascist terrorist organization, got away.

Airport sources said the captive, Pierluigi Pagliai, 28, was unconscious, with serious wounds in the head and neck inflicted by Bolivian police when they arrested him.

Authorities seek Visine poisoner

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo.—The search for a "copycat" who put hydrochloric acid in bottles of Visine A.C. eye drops concentrated here Tuesday after officials ruled out contamination at the factory.

A hospital patient whose eye was burned by contaminated drops on Monday was reported in good condition.

Thousands of impounded bottles of eye drops from stores in Mesa County were inspected as police sought the "nut" who they think reacted to the publicity about the Chicago Tylenol murders.

Prime rate lowest in two years

NEW YORK—Three of the nation's biggest banks slashed their prime lending rate a full percentage point today to 12 percent, the lowest level for the key business borrowing rate in 25 months.

The move followed earlier sharp declines in interest rates and amid growing expectations of further relief, which have contributed to a rally in the stock market.

Morgan Guaranty Trust, the nation's fifth largest bank, announced its cut at the start of business today.

Polish workers fight riot police; Solidarity ban protest continues

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Angry workers fought riot police in Gdansk and marched on Communist Party headquarters in the Baltic port Tuesday after an estimated 10,000 shipyard workers struck for the second day to protest the ban on Solidarity, witnesses said.

The Communist government militarized the giant Lenin Shipyards, the birthplace of the outlawed independent union, making strikers liable to stiff summary penalties for not working, officials said.

Some workers leaving the shipyard told reporters they had been fired for striking. Others said some strikers had received notices to report to army enlistment boards.

Witnesses said police dispersed about 1,000 people who had rallied outside the shipyard, then fired tear gas, water canon and smoke bombs when the crowd regrouped and surged toward the party headquarters. It was the second night of rioting in Gdansk.

Authorities said 148 people had been arrested in Poland's worst violence since riots and protests swept Gdansk and scores of cities on Aug. 31, the second anniversary of the founding of Solidarity.

Some workers leaving the shipyard told reporters nearly all workers had joined the strike.

About 8,000 workers struck in Gdansk and 2,000 struck in the nearby Baltic port of Gdynia for the second day and militants called for a general strike throughout the region to protest the ban on Solidarity, witnesses said.

Tylenol competitors' sales rise

NEW YORK (AP)—In the week after seven people died from taking cyanide-laced Tylenol capsules, sales of other over-the-counter pain relievers jumped 10 percent. And for many consumers, an aspirin-free product was hard to find.

"There's a lot of empty space on the shelves," says Howard Diener of Rite Aid Corp., which has 1,020 drug stores in eighteen states. Until 12 days ago, one of every three dollars spent on non-prescription pain relievers went to Tylenol.

American Home Products Corp. is one company rushing to fill the void left by the withdrawal of Tylenol capsules from the market. It has boosted production of Anacin 3, an aspirin-free pain reliever that had been a distant second to Tylenol in sales. Plants in New Jersey and Indiana that normally operate two shifts are now working around the clock, the company says, to meet an "unprecedented" demand.

The potential for Anacin 3 to claim a larger share of the market for over-the-counter pain relievers has not escaped notice on Wall Street. From Sept. 29—a day before it became known that Extra-Strength Tylenol capsules had been contaminated with cyanide—until Monday, the stock of American Home Products climbed 13.8 percent to a one-year high of 47 and three-eighths.

Sweden's sub search continues

BERGA NAVAL BASE, Sweden (AP)—The Swedish navy's flagging 12-day-old sub hunt in the Stockholm archipelago picked up new life Tuesday following a mine explosion that the navy said was set off after indication of a possible submarine.

An overnight search by divers of the minefield area in Mysingen Bay yielded "no concrete results," said Capt. Sven Carlsson, the navy's chief spokesman.

However, he said the search command was still getting various "observations" that were being analyzed. He indicated a large-scale investigation, including diving operations, would continue in the area off Malsten island, southeast of Nynashamn and about 35 miles south of Stockholm.

Carlsson said it was increasingly likely that one or two submarine intruders were in Mysingen Bay and Hors Bay to the north, where the navy has been hunting a foreign submarine.

Square dancers swing in Buzzard

by Deann Leatherwood

On Monday nights in Buzzard Gym, the voice of Bob Hussey and the tap of his toe can be heard as he calls dance steps to a square dancing club for "swing-ing" people.

The club, known as the Square Folks, is in its 10th year on campus, Hussey, club founder, said.

Hussey said he decided to form the club when he discovered he "had a vast amount of time and need-ed something to do."

The club began with 12 members and has grown to about 20, he said. Members include students, faculty and area residents.

Senior Vicki Dubbins, club president, stressed that experience is not required to join the club.

"I had never square danced before I took it as a class," Dubbins said.

Beginners are taught the steps with patience by Hussey and other experienced dancers such as Dub-bins. An occasional giggle may be heard when a mistake is made, but the overall atmosphere is relaxed.

One club member, Mary Ann Hardman, said she recently joined the club and is impressed with Hussey's style of teaching.

"What I enjoy most is that Bob Hussey stresses helping each other. And when I make a mistake, I don't feel stupid," Hardman said.

Junior Marsha Perry agreed. "I like the people and it's good exercise. Sometimes I like to just watch everyone dancing," she said.

Hussey teaches members Western-style square dancing and said his goal for this semester is to teach the dancers about 100 square dance calls.

The club, which has a membership fee of $2.50 per semester, meets at 7 p.m. every Monday in Buzzard Gym, Hussey said.

Joan Mondale talks at TAC reception

Joan Mondale, the wife of former vice presi-dent Walter Mondale, will speak at a reception scheduled for 2 p.m. Wednesday in the main gallery of the Tarble Arts Center.

Mondale will be in Charleston to speak in behalf of Democrat John Gwinn, candidate for Congressional representative in the 19th district.

Mondale will meet and answer questions for those attending the informal reception, Al Moldroski of the art department said.

The TAC was chosen as a location for Mon-dale to speak because of her involvement with the National Endowment for the Arts, he added.

"Although she (Mondale) will be here for political purposes, I'm hoping she will address herself to the arts and make a statement about the TAC," he said.

Moldroski added that Mondale seems willing to discuss her interest in the arts as well as the TAC.

Dairy Queen to open

by Lisa Albarran

Students who have a weakness for sweets will soon be able to take advantage of an extra treat on Lincoln Avenue.

A Dairy Queen Brazier restaurant will be open by next Wednesday at the corner of Lincoln Avenue and Third Street.

Scott Brooks, owner and manager of Charleston's original Dairy Queen at 20 State St., will also own and manage the new restaurant.

"There is a community of 10,000 people around Lincoln Avenue and some students don't have the transportation to get to the Dairy Queen on State Street," Brooks said.

Brooks said he had hoped to open the new store before Eastern's Homecoming this weekend, but was unable to do so.

The new restaurant will feature the same ice-cream menu as the other Dairy Queen, but there will be no grill or friers at the Lincoln Avenue location, he said.

"We will have hotdogs, polish sausage and barbecue sandwiches— just no fried foods," Brooks added.

Probation plan should be adopted

Editorial

The Council on Academic Affairs' latest attempt to revise Eastern's academic probation policy should be implemented because it specifies many details which are unclear in Eastern's current policy.

For example, Eastern's current policy on academic probation states that a student is placed on probation if his grade point average is below 2.00 "but not so low as to warrant academic dismissal." The policy never states how low a student's GPA must drop to be dismissed.

CAA member Pat Wright's proposal outlines a graduated scale which specifies the minimum semester GPA a student on probation must attain to remain in school.

Under the scale, the lower a student's cumulative GPA is, the higher his next semester's GPA must be. Students who do not achieve the required GPA are dismissed.

The plan places a large burden on students with extremely low GPAs, but those students should be required to work hard to demonstrate that they really want to remain in school.

Wright's proposal leaves no question in anyone's mind about the GPA students must achieve in order to avoid academic dismissal.

The CAA amended Wright's proposal to allow students only one semester on probation. During that semester, students must raise their GPAs to be in good academic standing or demonstrate sufficient progress toward the 2.00 level. The graduated scale outlines the GPAs required to demonstrate progress.

The single-semester probation period should aid Eastern in raising its academic standards. By decreasing the length of time students may remain on probation with substandard grades, the new plan eliminates students who are not seriously pursuing their educations.

The probation part of the proposal also demands that students on probation take no more than 16 hours a semester. This clause is beneficial because the fewer hours probationary students take, the more time they can spend raising their GPAs.

Wright's proposal also makes dismissed students automatically eligible for reinstatement. A student will re-enter with the cumulative GPA he had upon dismissal and will be subject to the academic probation policy.

Precautions should be taken, however, to make sure that "automatically eligible" does not become "automatically readmitted."

Students who are dismissed again after having been reinstated may not be readmitted a second time unless approved by the Committee on Admissions.

This section allows students one more chance to achieve while eliminating those who have repeatedly failed and who are not serious about achieving.

Eastern's administration should approve the plan so it can be implemented in time for inclusion in Eastern's new catalogue.

Your turn

Ad familiar 'come-on'

Editor:

On Oct. 4 the News printed an ad for a Canadian "research" firm which offers to sell term papers, typed and ready for submission, an "A" (plus or minus, your choice) guaranteed or your money cheerfully refunded.

In seven days, they will deliver in plain brown wrapper any of 15,000 catalogued papers—no two ever sent to the same university. A customized and personalized paper tailored to your specific assignment will take an extra week, same brown wrapper.

The guarantee is a familiar come-on (perhaps it is covered in Techniques of Successful Ad-Writing, 77743, 6 pp. $36). Grow hair in 90 days, double your mileage with water in the tank, get an "A" painlessly—or we return your money.

Don't, however, try collecting on this one. No American court will enforce an illegal contract (hence the Canadian base) and few universities would ignore the publicity and leave unpunished the poor customer who didn't get his "A."

Nevertheless, the News is to be congratulated on its initiative in these hard times, having opened up an entirely new clientele for its advertising space.

Busy art majors, no doubt, will flock to buy pre-painted still-lives (no Picasso ever sent twice to the same university). And music students too busy to practice will welcome player-piano rolls for a truly innovative senior recital.

This might be considered non-traditional by some, but there's a lot of that going around lately. The News has supported the notion that attendance should be optional. Perhaps the ad was intended to further this position, providing as it does a non-traditional way of satisfying class requirements.

If as a lark you played the investigative journalist, you might commission a paper on Ethics in Advertising from our Canadian friends. Selected portions of such a work might be cited on the editorial page for our delectation (signed or unsigned, your choice, an "A" editorial guaranteed).

Appalled by paper ad

Editor:

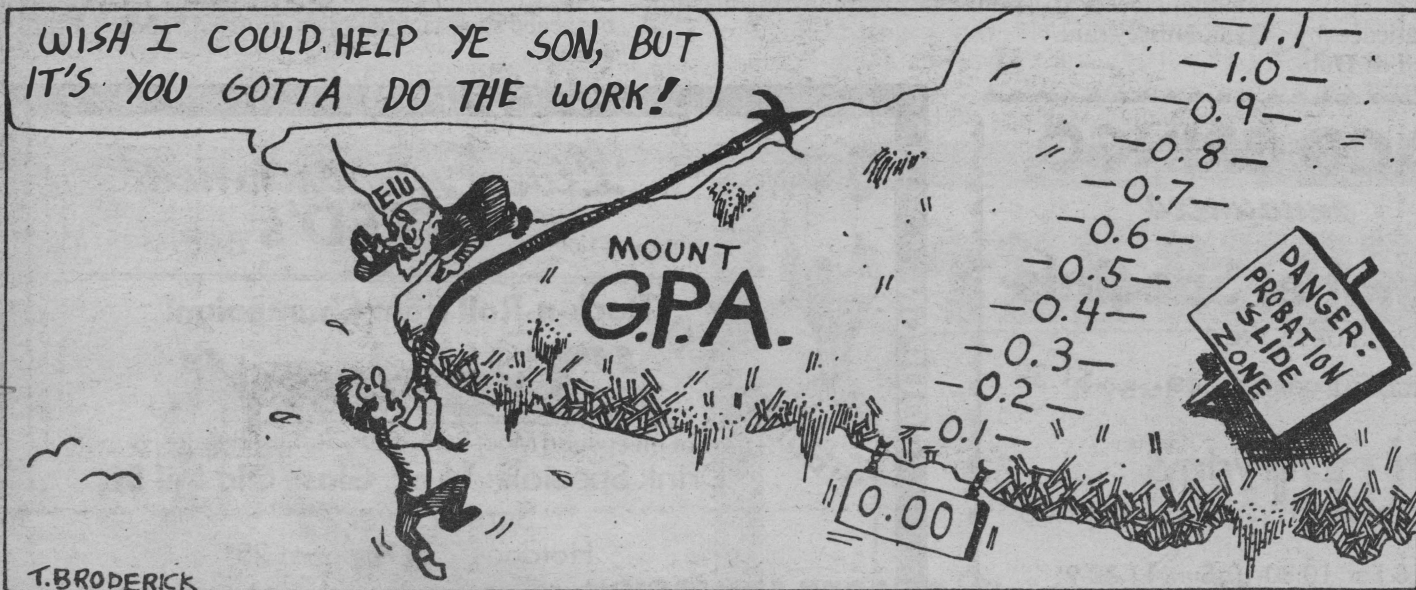

We are appalled to see the reappearance of the advertisement selling pre-written term papers that appeared in The Daily Eastern News Oct. 11. The first appearance of the ad could be passed off as an editorial oversight, but a second appearance cannot be an error.

The ad is without doubt an open invitation to plagiarize. As such it totally opposes the ideals upon which education is based.

If the News is to be a part of the educational system at Eastern, then the editors have to exercise judgment and not accept advertising that is so contrary to the values of the educational community.

Fourth Street offers new vacation route

Insight/Outlook

Denise Skowron

Rules: Start with 24 hours.

Take seven for sleep.

Take three for classes.

Take nine for homework (a student should spend three hours out of class for every hour spent in class).

Take one and a half for meals.

Take half to run to Union (cash check, Hardee's, check rideboard).

Take three for miscellaneous—work, socialize, laundry.

Take two to participate in extra-curricular activity, attend lecture, or sleep extra.

Take three for the stuff that adds up (walking to and from classes, short conversations with friends, making a call, waiting for someone).

Take an extra two to study for midterms.

Objective: Budget time effectively and retain sanity.

Sound impossible? It's not if you make the time to get away. There's a road I'd like to show you; it's in my hometown: Lake Shore Drive is the name, and it'll take you up or down.

Well, Charleston has a road I'd like to show you. It's not as hectic as LSD, but Fourth Street does offer a few extra benefits—not only as an avenue of transportation, but also as an avenue of escape.

Right around midterms, students begin to get itchy for a road trip. And if Champaign is not feasible, Fourth Street can take care of that itch.

Jump on a bike, throw on the jogging shoes or borrow a dog and head south on Fourth Street past Lawson Hall. Keep going. In no time you will be passing horses, chickens, geese, an occasional cow and corn fields—lots of them.

Take a deep breath and look around. The colors are changing differently than they do on campus. The trees which change colors on campus are rudely interrupted by buildings and masses of people while those along Fourth Street are surrounded by more trees.

Take an hour; it's there somewhere in your schedule, and travel by bike or on foot down Fourth Street. Forget about school—who needs it anyway? And while you're there, say hello to the cow for me.

Pemberton honored

Hall gains historic status

by James Talley

Eastern received notice recently that Pemberton Hall, the first women's dormitory in Illinois, was added to the National Register of Historic Places.

Graduate students in Historical Administration Renee Dancu Henry and Jan Luth are responsible for the nomination.

In the spring of 1980 Henry prepared and sent a nomination for Pemberton to the Illinois Historic Sites Commission.

Approval was delayed because the IHSC did not believe that Pemberton Hall was the first women's dormitory at a public institution of higher learning in Illinois. History Department Chairman Robert Hennings wrote in a brief letter to an Eastern administrator.

In the spring of 1982 Luth gathered historical data and prepared a second nomination and both were sent to the IHSC. The residence hall was then placed on the register after all necessary proof was received.

A segment of the nomination form reads: "From the time he assumed office as President of Eastern Illinois Normal School in 1899, Livingston C. Lord began his fight to obtain a women's dormitory. Students were living in off-campus boardinghouses and apartments. Many parents were concerned over the lack of supervision."

Pemberton Hall and gymnasium, named after Sen. Stanton C. Pemberton of Oakland, opened January 4, 1909, with a commemorative dinner.

Teele to discuss syllabus library

by Michael Kuo

Student Body President Terry Teele will address the Student Senate Wednesday on the proposed class syllabus library.

Teele said the Summer Senate recommended a class syllabus library be established for student and faculty reference.

The class syllabus library will compile instructors' course plans so students will know "what they are getting into" before they enroll in a class, Teele said.

Each syllabus will explain how individual instructors evaluate students, such as through term papers, tests or pop quizzes, Teele said.

He added a class syllabus library will help students in choosing class instructors and sections.

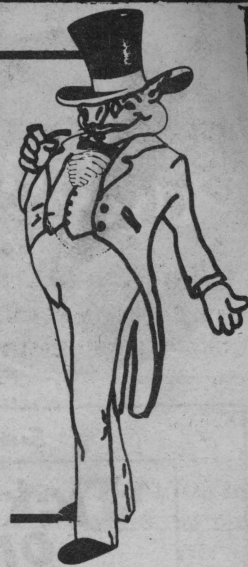

Earlier, Teele said if the class syllabus library was established it would be located in Booth Library.

Dee McNutt, library staff clerk, said the class syllabus library would probably be in the library's reserve room.

In other business, the Student Senate will present a special resolution to Coles County Clerk Jackie Bacon for her help in Eastern's Voter Registration Drive, Teele said.

The Student Senate will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Union addition Arcola-Tuscola Room.

Senators plan on attending RHA councils

Members of the Student Senate Housing Committee will be attending residence hall council meetings in an effort to improve communication between those involved in student government and the residence halls.

Housing Committee Chairman Glenn Good said seven or eight student senators each will attend two or three council meetings because "the committee feels there is a communication gap between the Student Senate and the residence halls."

"An example of the plan is if Thomas Hall holds a council meeting every Monday at 6 p.m. We will have senators go to the various meetings and give us (the Student Senate) their reports," he said.

Housing committee members will report weekly at the Student Senate meetings about what was discussed at the residence hall council meetings, Senator Jerri Goodman said.

Business education curriculum revised

by Mary Holland

The Council on Teacher Education approved revisions Tuesday in the business education curriculum in the department of business education and administrative office management.

The changes include the addition of three business education and administrative office management courses and the removal of two course offerings in the business education major.

Department Chairman Robert Sullivan said the curriculum was revised to emphasize microcomputers and word processing skills in business education courses.

"We know that there are already several high schools that already have microcomputers," Sullivan said. "It's necessary that we update our curriculum to prepare our students to teach in those two areas."

Business Education 2500, "Microcomputer Operations;" Business Education 3500, "Word Processing;" and Business Education 4800, "Electronic Information Processes," were added to the business education curriculum.

Business Education 2250, "Executive Secretarial Procedures," and Business Education 3220, "Office Machine Computation," were dropped from the business education major course offerings.

In other business, the COTE heard a report on the upcoming accreditation visit by the National Council on Accreditation of Teacher Education.

Leathers added, "The accreditation carries with it all the logical and beneficial advantages that go along with it."

The accreditation team will visit Eastern on Nov. 8, 9 and 10 to do research in the teacher education program at Eastern.

Mona, I've finally decided where I'd like to make my career: State Farm!

State Farm? Great Plowshares! You're going to be a soil tiller. Living an agrarian lifestyle!

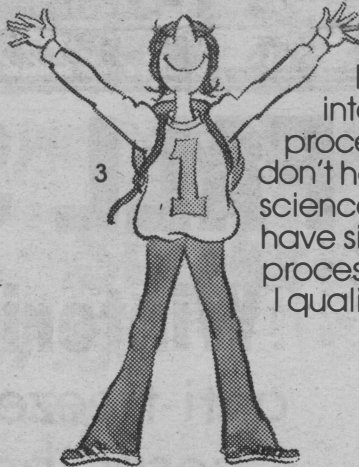

Come on now! State Farm is an insurance company.

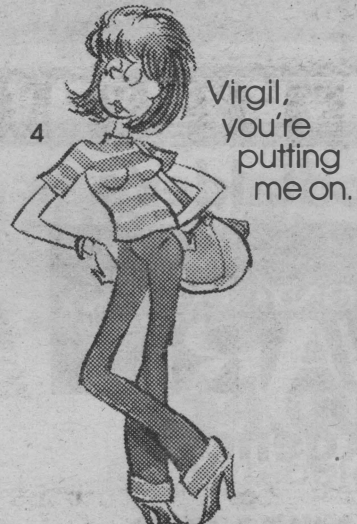

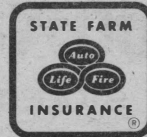

Virgil, you're going to be a salesman? How could you? Even if they'd have you...

Mona, there's more to insurance than selling policies. Insurance is opportunity. State Farm is looking for people interested in a data processing career. I don't have a computer science degree but I do have six hours of data processing courses. So I qualify!

Virgil, you're putting me on.

No way, Mona. State Farm is looking for men and women with any degree and six to nine hours of data processing courses. Of course, you've got to be interested in a data processing career.

Good grief! They're omnivorous.

No, but they're also interested in people in mathematics, accounting, law and actuarial sciences.

Incidentally, the pay is great!

Uh, Virgil, wear a clean pair of jeans to the interview.

Instructor says faculties reject BOG proposal

by Keith Clark

A Council of Faculties representative said Tuesday he believes Faculty Senate members at the other four Board of Governors schools object to the proposed BOG Distinguished Service Professors amendment.

"If you look into it, I think you'll find they all have the same stand as Eastern," Cary Knoop, Eastern art instructor and Council of Faculties representative, said.

The Council of Faculties serves as an intermediary between the BOG and the Faculty Senates at the five BOG schools.

The BOG has proposed a Distinguished Service Professors designation which would provide positions on campus for university presidents and executive directors after they step down from their positions. The BOG requested faculty input on the proposal.

Eastern's Faculty Senate last week said it opposes the amendment and is sending a letter to the BOG expressing its disapproval of the amendment.

The letter, drafted and presented to the senate by Chairman Jeffrey Lynch, states that Eastern's Faculty Senate finds the proposal "inappropriate to the missions and goals of a university."

The letter also states that the senate thinks appointments to universities should not be based on the person but the curricular needs of the university and the professional qualifications of the person.

The senate has also questioned the funding of the positions since the "university cannot meet even minimally its present curricular needs."

The senate will be sending its revised copy of the amendment with the letter.

Knoop also told the senate he thinks the BOG will adopt the amendment despite objection from the five Faculty Senates.

"In my opinion," Knoop said, "it will pass as it stands."

Knoop said the Council of Faculties also opposes the amendment.

He said council members will go before the BOG to express their objections, which he said are basically the same as those held by Eastern's Faculty Senate.

Talk scheduled on test anxiety

by Becky Lawson

"A necessary evil" that plagues all students will be the topic addressed Wednesday at a seminar sponsored by the Counseling Center, Director Bud Sanders said.

"Test Anxiety," the sixth in a series of Life Skills seminars, will be offered to all students who want to learn how to cope with the problems associated with taking tests.

The problems to be discussed range from being mentally affected by a bad test experience, not being properly prepared for a test and even determining the atmosphere in which to study for a test.

"Test Anxiety," under the direction of Sanders, will be offered at noon Wednesday in the Union addition Charleston-Mattoon and Greenup rooms.

Honors given for donating blood

Four Eastern groups will have their organization names engraved on a permanent plaque in Old Main for the groups that had the highest donor percentage in the fall blood drive last month, drive chairman May Pionek said.

Blood drive officials each year give the awards to the fraternity, sorority, men's or women's residence hall that have the highest percentage of members donate blood, she added.

This year, the winning groups include Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity, with 86.2 percent of its members participating in the drive; Kappa Delta sorority, with 42.9 percent of its members donating; McKinney Hall residents, with 28.8 percent; and Ford Hall residents, with 28.4 percent giving blood, she said.

In past years, blood drive officials have sponsored a reception to announce and honor the winners but since attendance at the receptions usually has been low, the event was canceled this year, Pionek said.

Pionek added that 434 new donors gave blood this fall. This semester's blood drive surpassed its goal of 1,735 pints by 35, bringing the total to 1,770 pints donated.

Steel company president to talk

The Junior Alliance of Managers and Marketers will sponsor a lecture Wednesday by the president of Keystone Steel Inc. of Peoria, a JAMM official said.

Todd Carrier, JAMM president, said Nick Owens, president of Keystone, will speak to JAMM members at 6 p.m. in Coleman Hall Room 120.

Owens' 30-minute speech will be followed by a question and answer period on career opportunities in management, marketing, energy management, industrial technology, data processing and advertising, Carrier said.

He also will speak about his personal success story on how to become a president of a major company, Carrier added.

Hamilton Jordan:

The Last Year of the Carter Presidency

by Darlene Geis

Interested in knowing why Carter's last year in presidency was one of great anguish, conflict and controversy? Thanks to the University Board Lecture Committee you too can hear the story from a true insider as chief political advisor, Hamilton Jordan chronicles the former President's final year in office on Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 8:00 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom.

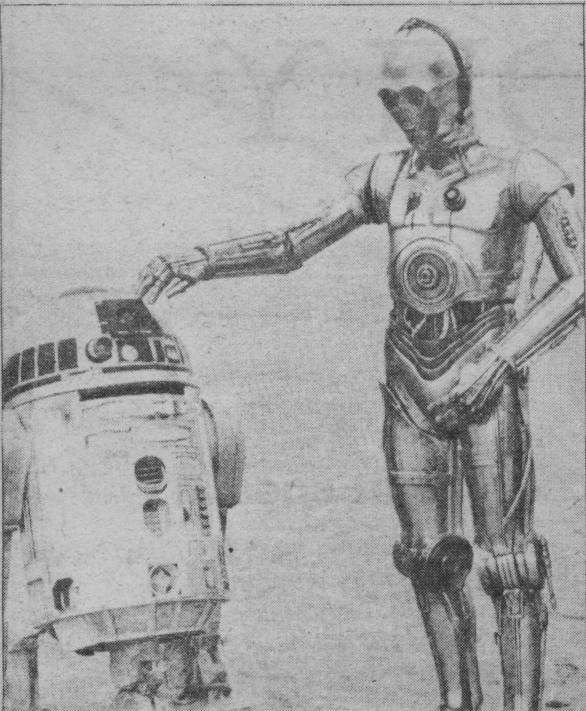

Jordan will describe how the Carter White House was dominated and finally demoralized by the Iranian crisis with the immediacy and emotion that only an insider can provide. In his newly published 431 page book entitled Crisis, Jordan portrays Jimmy Carter as the ultimate hostage of that dark year, who ironically gained his freedom when he had relinquished the presidency on the very day the hostages were finally released from Iran.

In addition to Jordan's belief that failure to win release of the American hostages in Iran played a decisive role in Carter's loss to Ronald Reagan, Jordan cites several other handicaps of major interests. Highlighting these, Jordan states that "Carter lacked a unifying political philosophy thus making it difficult to marshal wide support for his ideas."

Furthermore Jordan adds, "Dissension among high Carter aides was widespread," as Jordan recalls how disgusted he was with Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance for opposing Carter's effort to rescue the hostages.

Jordan's views won't be the last from the Carter camp. The ex-President himself soon will publish his memoirs, along with his wife Rosalynn and former Press Secretary Jody Powell, who are also writing their own accounts.

Jordan has lectured at major universities nationwide. "Hamilton Jordan was without a doubt the most interesting and informative speaker we have had this year on campus. On stage, Jordan was superb. Off stage, he was personable, polite, and refreshing. He did far more than we could rightly have asked of him." — Marquette University.

The Exorcist

by Toya A. Teat

The Exorcist reveals the fear and the anguish surrounding demonic possession while exploring the fundamental nature of evil and its irrational, violent, presistant infestation of man.

This film is based on the 1949 case in which a Jesuit priest cast a demon from a 14 year old child in Maryland.

Blues & Boogie Erwin Helfer & Friends

by Tina D. Dvorak

Anyone who has a passing interest in Chicago's rich piano blues world should be alerted to the fact that the University Board's Performing Arts Committee will be sponsoring blues and boogie pianist Erwin Helfer and Friends. They will appear in the Union Bridge Lounge on Tuesday, Oct. 19 at noon.

For over a quarter of a century, Erwin Helfer has performed at the blues and jazz clubs of Chicago and New Orleans. And now is your chance to see him here at Eastern. His friends include: Clark Dean, Odie Payne Jr., and Kansas Fields.

Helfer and Friends play the blues in a deep and subtly emotional style but in recent years they have explored other musical forms like ballads and ragtime pieces. This great combination of belting classic blues, down home Chicago sound, and beautiful jazz riffs have received rave reviews from blues and jazz critics around the United States. Emily Friedman of Chicago Magazine states, "He has been a fixture in many of our great blues clubs, playing his eclectic boogie woogie, jazz and bluesy piano."

Helfer is truly a blues great. In addition to giving private lessons, he has produced several albums and has accompanied such greats as Jimmy Walker and Willie Mabon. Besides this, he squeezes in time for composing and of course he plays. But these days he lets the jobs come to him.

According to the Chattanooga Times, "This is real club jazz, hard to come by and well worth the cost." But as an added incentive to you this event is free. So, there is no reason to miss out ... mark your calendars and get ready to boogie woogie with Erwin Helfer and Friends!

by Missy Cook

Burt Reynolds and Hal Needham team up once again for the hilarious comedy The Cannonball Run. The University Board Movie Committee will present Cannonball Run Friday, Oct. 15, in the Grand Ballroom at 6:30 and 9:00 p.m.

Reynolds and Needham follow up the Smokey and the Bandit films and Hooper with the aide of a star-studded cast. Roger Moore, Farrah Fawcett, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr., Peter Fonda and Dom DeLuise all join in the fun.

Based on the actual, unsanctioned, illegal cross-country race — Cannonball Sea-to-Shining-Sea Memorial Trophy Dash — mechanical meymen reigns supreme in The Cannonball Run.

"A goofy variety show combining Laugh-In and That's Incredible. The Cannonball Run is more souped-up than Campbell's!" — Carrie Rickey, Village Voice.

Tickets are available now at the Union Box Office and at the door for $1.25.

Brewers swamp Forsch 10-0 in World Series opener

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Paul Molitor rapped a record five hits and Mike Caldwell pitched a three-hitter as the powerful Milwaukee Brewers used singles to build a 17-hit attack and beat the St. Louis Cardinals 10-0 in the first game of the World Series Tuesday Night.

The Brewers rapped playoff hero Bob Forsch for all their runs and 10 hits, to find themselves in an extremely unfamiliar position—in the lead for once. They finished with 13 singles.

The Cardinals went down meekly, as Caldwell, a junkball left-hander, got 10 of his first 15 outs on ground balls. He gave up a second-inning double to St. Louis catcher Darrell Porter and eighth-inning singles to Porter and Oberkfell.

Caldwell's control, a problem in his last two outings, was impeccable. He did not walk a batter until two were out in the sixth inning.

Not since 1946 in the World Series between St. Louis and Boston had any player got as many as four hits in a game and that was done by four players. Robin Yount also had four hits on this night for the Brewers.

Ted Simmons, the catcher traded to the Brewers from the Cardinals before last season, added a fifth-inning home run.

In this clash of the two beer towns, of two Midwestern cities with little or no World Series experience, the Brewers set aside their normal tendency toward power and settled for a game of singles—going for one run at a time—to beat the Cardinals.

They scored twice in the first inning off Forsch, betrayed by the normally excellent glove of first baseman Keith Hernandez, whose error on a ground ball by Ben Oglivie made both runs unearned.

The Brewers made it 3-0 in the fourth with Molitor driving in the run on a broken-bat single. Simmons' homer in the fifth inning boosted the lead to 4-0.

The Brewers finally ended Forsch's evening with two more runs in the sixth inning. Forsch had pitched a three-hit shutout in the opener of St. Louis' three-game sweep over Atlanta in the National League Championship Series, but on this night he could do nothing right.

In contrast, Caldwell had been bombed in his two previous outings. He gave up seven runs on 13 hits in a 7-1 loss to Baltimore in the final days of the season, then lasted only three innings in Game 1 of the American League Championship Series, giving up five earned runs on seven hits to the California Angels.

This time, with everything on the line, Caldwell was nearly flawless.

The double he gave up to Porter in the second inning probably would have been a single if the Brewers had been playing at home.

Eastern quarterback Jeff Christensen (left) and defensive tackle Greg Duncan (right) both recieved Mid-Continent Conference "Player of the Week"

honors for their performances Saturday, MCC officials announced Tuesday. (News file photos)

Christensen, Duncan gain awards, while Panthers rank 20th in nation

by John Humenik

Eastern football Panthers Jeff Christensen and Greg Duncan Tuesday were named Mid-Continent Conference offensive and defensive "Players of the Week" respectively.

In addition, the Panthers were ranked 20th in the nation for Division I-AA schools in the National Collegiate Athletic Association's weekly rankings released Tuesday.

Eastern head coach Darrell Mudra said, "We're really pleased with the ranking and the individual awards. However, I don't really think the ranking makes a whole heck of a difference."

The Panthers (5-0-1) are one of six I-AA teams ranked with undefeated records this season, while four other teams have won five games this season. Eastern Kentucky is touted as the best NCAA I-AA team this season.

"I just hope the people who do the rankings also perceive us as one of the teams to go to the playoffs later in the season," Mudra added. "I thought we should have been higher in the rankings, but we still have to concentrate on the season."

The last time the Panthers received a post-season bid was in 1980, when Eastern lost 21-13 in the Division II championship game to Cal Poly/San Luis Obispo.

Eastern's 18-0 non-conference victory over Akron Saturday proved Christensen, who received his second "Player of the Week" award and Duncan are having top seasons in leading the Panthers.

Christensen threw for two touchdowns Saturday, 58 yards to Jerry Wright and three yards to Dirk Androff. In addition, the senior standout completed 11 of 20 tosses for 162 yards and rushed for 21 yards on eight carries.

Christensen continues to rank as the MCC's best quarterback statistically, averaging 165 yards passing per game. The Panther quarterback has completed 75 of 153 passes this season.

Duncan posted five quarterback sacks—a season high—for a total loss of 45 yards Saturday against Akron and registered one fumble recovery which eventually set up Christensen's touchdown pass to Androff in the second quarter.

"I think Duncan had a really great performance Saturday," Mudra said. "And hopefully the offensive award will give Jeff (Christensen) a boost."

Panther Notes... Eastern now turns its attention to Saturday's contest with Indiana State, the first of two road dates this month...With Northern Iowa having clinched at least a tie for the MCC title, the Panthers must win their remaining road games against Western Illinois Oct. 23 and Southwest Missouri Nov. 6.

Mental errors hurt spikers in loss to ISU

by Susan McCann

Eastern's volleyball squad dropped a three-game match to Illinois State Tuesday, but the defeat may ultimately prove to be a boost for the Lady Panthers.

"Perhaps the loss was just what we needed to wake up and realize we need to do a little more work," Lady Panther coach Carol Gruber said.

"We can definitely play better than we did tonight," the second-year coach said after the defeat dropped Eastern's record to 24-8.

Illinois State, 15-10, began dominating the match in the early going, jumping ahead 9-1 and taking the first game by a 15-8 score. The Redbirds soon grabbed a two-game to none advantage by notching the second-game victory by a 15-6 margin.

In the deciding game, the Lady Panthers charged to a 7-0 lead and held a 10-3 advantage when the Redbirds began to rally. Illinois State roared back to lead 14-13, and secured the victory on a service ace, one of ISU's eight aces in the match, by sophomore Julie Mueller.

"We had a tough time passing the ball off the serve, even though I don't think the serves were that tough," Gruber said.

"Most of the time we just set high and outside and were not able to use our middle attack. When we did attack the middle, it usually worked," she added.

Illinois State's attack was paced by 5-foot-8 Cindy Harris, who scored an outstanding 16 kills in 25 attempts without an error. ISU's 5-foot-10 Cathy Olson led her squad with 17 unreturnable hits, but she committed 10 errors in 36 tries.

Junior Stacy Cook led the Lady Panthers with 11 kills in 34 attempts, but committed four attack errors and three service miscues.

Mary Ann Seiwert scored seven kills in only 14 attempts, with one service and one attack error.

"The (team's) physical errors were just the result of not being mentally in the match," Gruber said. She attributed the mental lapses to the spikers having too many other things on their minds, particularly finishing class work missed during the Panthers' trips to Chicago and East Lansing, Mich. last week.

"The fact that we've been on the road so much and have had no chance to have a good, hard practice" adversely affected the spikers' performance, Gruber added.

The Lady Panthers will have two days to prepare for Friday and Saturday action at the EIU Invitational. Gruber said she plans to run two hard practices in an effort to give her team the practice it lacked last week.

The invitational will feature several Illinois teams, including Lewis, the University of Chicago, Loyola and Western.

Out-of-state representatives slated to appear include Wisconsin-Parkside, Wisconsin-Milwaukee and the University of Evansville.

Kagel named to mediate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Negotiators in the pro football strike were to meet with a mediator for the first time Tuesday night just hours after the National Football League announced a fourth weekend of the season had fallen victim to the 22-day walkout.

Tuesday morning, the NFL announced that the games of Oct. 17-18 would not be played as a result of the strike.

"With four weekends of games not played, and in a view of previous announcements that a maximum of two weekends of games could possibly be made up, at least two weekends of games have now been lost for the season," NFL spokesman Jim Hefferman said.

At midday, San Francisco attorney Sam Kagel, 73, was named to mediate the contractual dispute that resulted in the players' association calling its members out on strike Sept. 21.

Kay McMurray, chief of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, made the announcement of Kagel's selection following Monday meetings with Jack Dolan, the owners' chief negotiator, and union chief Ed Garvey.

McMurray said it was obvious early in his conversations with both sides that Kagel's selection was acceptable to both parties.

Invited to participate in the talks Monday night, Kagel was scheduled to be in Baltimore to hold the first meeting between both sides since talks broke off on Oct. 2.

Before this week, Dolan had expressed a desire to seek a federal mediator to help aid negotiations.

Booters looking for lift against Highlanders

by Jim Woodcock

Looking to regain some momentum, Eastern's soccer team returns to Lakeside Field at 2 p.m. Wednesday to face MacMurray College in their first home game in nearly four weeks.

Since their last home game, which ended in a 3-3 tie with Quincy College, the Panthers have been saddled by ties in compiling a 2-1-3 slate while on their extended road trip.

The Panthers are 5-2-4 this season and have not lost at Lakeside Field in two seasons, but that statistic will mean little Wednesday, Eastern head coach Schellas Hyndman said.

"We are playing only as good as who we play, and I am disappointed because I know their capabilities," Hyndman said. "They are going to have to come out on their own and play hard, because I am out of options and there is nothing more I can do."

Although all but one of the Panthers' remaining matches are at home, Hyndman said he is not concerned with the home field advantage, but winning games in general.

"Let's look at this season realistically," Hyndman said. "At this point we can look back and say that we have had only one good game, the one at SIU. Last year at this point, we had only one bad game. They have to start hating to lose."

Last season the Panthers took care of the Division III MacMurray Highlanders with a 4-0 triumph in Jacksonville, but this season Eastern has scored victories against tough competition and suffered losses to weaker teams.

"There is nothing really as far as preparing for MacMurray," Hyndman said. "There is nothing more the coaching staff can do."

"We don't have the bench strength to have internal competition for spots, so we are going to have to go with who we have," he added.

Hyndman pointed out that his weak bench has forced him to play injured starters, adding that the Panthers so far have not been playing up to their capabilities regardless of injuries.

"I can count on two fingers who has played well for us thus far this year, and that's Agyeman (Premeph) and Albert (Adade)," Hyndman said. "Some have played to 75 percent of their ability, but the majority of them have played sub-par."

"And the scary thing about it is that they think they are playing just as well as they did last year," Hyndman added. "They don't know that they aren't, and they have the capability."

The Panthers' offense could be given trouble Wednesday by MacMurray's strong defense, Hyndman said.

Highlander head coach Peter Glon has a bumper crop of Chicago area players and has developed them into a top Division III contender. Sunday's tie with Division II Oakland, makes it important for the Panthers to come out on top over MacMurray, Hyndman said.

"When I called (SIU head coach) Bob Guelker with the report of the tie against Oakland, he asked me what is wrong over here," Hyndman said.

"So against MacMurray we are going to need a gutsy performance and to iron out the little problems that we have," Hyndman added. "It's up to the guys to push themselves. They've showed they can do it against SIU, and they've got to make the commitment that they want to do it."

Soccer Notes... Following their game with MacMurray Wednesday, the Panthers host the EIU Classic Friday and Saturday at Lakeside Field...

Androff welcomes new grid responsibility

by Paul Black

Eastern tight end Dirk Androff's recently-announced move into the backup quarterback spot will help the football Panthers prepare for the future, head coach Darrell Mudra said.

Androff's move came about when backup quarterback Eric Treida was red-shirted. Red-shirting is a means of protecting a player's eligibility due to an injury or circumstances that hinder him from playing.

As a result, Treida, who entered this season behind senior starter Jeff Christensen, will regain this year's eligibility next fall.

"We have to make plans for the future. With Treida out, we felt we needed some experience in that spot," Mudra explained. "Dirk will continue to start at tight end, but we know we can call on him."

The quarterbacking position is not new to Androff, who was a prep quarterback at Eisenhower High School in Decatur. The 6-foot-7 signal caller threw for 1,018 yards and came to Eastern to play in both football and basketball.

Androff made the squad his first year as a backup quarterback, but was moved to tight end last fall. The move to tight end last year was a way for the Panthers to utilize his size and blocking ability, Mudra said.

Last fall, Androff was Eastern's third leading receiver with 38 catches for 472 yards, an average of 12.4

yards. His longest reception was for 30 yards and a touchdown.

"I found out the first year I was here that quarterbacking in college was much different than high school," Androff said. "In high school, you can usually drop back. In college, you have to be able to read defenses and make adjustments."

Androff said his main preparation for the reserve quarterback role has mainly been studying the defense. "The challenge adds some extra pressure, but I mainly put that upon myself," Androff added.

"I've found the best way to deal with the pressure is to study the defense and know my offensive patterns," he continued.

Androff has already shown some promise in his former position, Mudra said, when he piloted the Eastern junior varsity squad to a 34-16 dumping of the University of Illinois.

That performance, along with some top underclassmen, promises to give the Panthers a very bright quarterback picture next fall, Mudra added.

As well as the return of Treida, Mudra said that freshmen Scott Sanderson has developed well and will probably see action next fall, either in the backfield or on defense.

In addition, Mudra cited safety Gary Bridges, who was named junior college All-American at the quarterback slot, as a player who may strengthen the Panthers' quarterbacking next fall.

Liquid Cooling. Excess heat can degrade speaker efficiency and durability. Heat builds up in a speaker's voice coil and, ordinarily, its only escape is through air until reaching the metal parts of the speaker, where it can be easily dissipated. The SoundPrism uses a driver that's different. Its voice coil is surrounded by a special synthetic oil in which ferrite is permanently suspended. Held in place by the speaker's powerful magnetic system, the fluid quickly conducts heat into the metal structure, improving performance and expanding power handling ability.

Automatic Power Control. Altec Lansing has developed a special circuit called Automatic Power Control. It's a speaker protection device, but, unlike traditional fuses and circuit breakers, it doesn't shut the system off. Instead, it automatically lowers the power the speaker receives simultaneously illuminating the words AUTOMATIC POWER CONTROL which are visible through the grille fabric.
