SANKOFA: African Art from Public and Private Collections, Jan. 29 through Feb. 28

Sankofa, literally translated, means "turn back and fetch it." In a contextual sense, Sankofa represents the tradition of many African peoples to learn from the lessons of the past and to honor their ancestors. This idea is symbolized by an image of a bird with its head turned backwards which occurs in various forms of African visual arts. Sankofa features objects associated with many aspects of sub-Saharan African life. The exhibition is organized by the use of the objects: religious/ritual use; political or prestige objects; household use; occupational objects; and personal use. Included are masks, furniture, staffs, figures, textiles, goldweights, pottery, currency, weaponry, food service articles, games, clothing, basketry and body adornment. Lecture on African Visual Arts by Martha Ehrlich, guest curator -- 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 3.
