STRASBURG

WELCOME!

TO THE TWELFTH SEASON

Although Vivian Vance starring in The Marriage-Go-Round on May 25th marks the first show of the 1968 spring-summer-fall season at The Little Theatre-On The Square, this production will be the ninth opening for producer Guy S. Little, Jr. this year. Immediately after presenting Rosemary Prinz in A Girl Could Get Lucky in December-January in Sullivan, Mr. Little left for Phoenix, Arizona where he was engaged as producer for the 21st season at the famous Sombbrero Playhouse. While in Phoenix, Mr. Little presented Howard Keel, Ray Walston, Kathryn Crosby, Mildred Natwick, Cornelia Otis Skinner and other greats of American show business in addition to Ann Sothorn, Robert Cummings and Vivian Vance. . . all who will appear in Sullivan this season. Mr. Little returned to Sullivan in time to remodel the balcony of the theatre, removing the old projection booth and elevating the seats; and installing a new curved stage curtain—all to celebrate the opening of the 12th season in Sullivan.

Long before Mr. Little opened the Grand Theatre back in 1957, he hoped and planned that someday he would have a theatre where musicals and plays could be presented. He got his first job in professional theatre as an apprentice at the Keene, New Hampshire Summer Theatre in 1951 and worked the two following summers at the Gateway Musical Playhouse near Atlantic City.

After graduation from the University of Miami, Mr. Little took graduate courses at Columbia University and The American Theatre Wing before returning to central Illinois in the spring of 1957 to look for a theatre location.

Not having success locating a suitable theatre in any of the larger cities in downstate Illinois, Mr. Little decided to lease the movie house in his native Sullivan. Since the opening of Brigadoon on July 3, 1957, Mr. Little has presented 112 major productions—both plays and musicals—featuring many outstanding stars and supporting casts from Broadway, Hollywood, TV and Opera. The first season ran nine weeks and had an attendance of 8,000. The Little Theatre-On The Square was open for twenty-four weeks last year and had an attendance of 80,000. . . a most gratifying increase! The Little Theatre-On The Square also has a Children's Theatre which presents productions for young audiences on Saturdays during late June, July and August. Mr. Little strongly believes that stock should be a proving-ground and workshop for young talent to develop as actors-singers-dancers and technicians. Thirty outstanding apprentices are accepted each year from over 100 applicants; these young students who have come from most every state in the country, learn every phase of theatre operation while they are working towards membership in Equity, the actor's union. After experience in Sullivan, many have gone on to successful careers on Broadway and TV.

In addition to his productions in Sullivan, Mr. Little managed the Piccolo Playhouse in Joliet and has had touring productions that have played leading theatres in Michigan, Ohio, Colorado, Connecticut and New York. Mr. Little works year around booking outstanding stars such as June Allyson, Dennis Weaver, John Payne, Margaret O'Brien, Julia Meade, Linda Darnell, Marie Wilson, Eddie Bracken, Joe E. Brown, Margaret Truman, Cesar Romero, Mercedes McCambridge, Andy Devine, Gardner McKay, Alan Young and Carl Betz.

Mr. Little has directed many of the productions, designed and built the scenery, and has appeared in many of the shows. His favorite roles include Mr. Snow in Carousel, Lt. Cable in South Pacific and Kenneth in Call Me Madam.

Guy met his wife, Jerili, when they were both studying theatre at the University of Miami. Jerili has starred in many productions in Sullivan and on tour and has established a following wherever she has performed. The Littles have been married fourteen years and have two children, Vanessa, age twelve and Sean, age six. Both children have been active in the Sullivan productions.

The operation of a star theatre for twelve years in a town with a population of less than 4,000 has been called "the miracle of Sullivan" by theatre historians. Guy S. Little, Jr. gratefully salutes the faithful central Illinois audiences who have patronized The Little Theatre-On The Square since 1957.

MEMBER AMERICAN GEM SOCIETY

Trust

When buying precious gems and fine jewelry, you must place yourself in the hands of a trusted jeweler, for few outside of the profession either know or understand the fine nuances of gemology or gem value. How to find him? Since 1934, membership in the American Gem Society has been symbolic of fine, trusted jewelers throughout the United States and Canada. This firm, like only some 900 others, is proud to claim this distinction. May we welcome you soon?

Who's Who in the Cast . . .

PARTICIA MORISON (Lilli Vanessi), lovely star of stage, screen and TV, is recreating her original Broadway role in Kiss Me, Kate in which she co-starred opposite Alfred Drake. Miss Morison made her Broadway debut in a Victorian styled operetta, The Two Bouquets. She was primarily known as an actress-dancer until Kate gave her her first chance to show off her beautiful voice and won her acclaim as a star of the American musical theatre. Since Kate she has starred on Broadway with Yul Brynner in The King And I and has starred in Song Of Norway, The Merry Widow, Milk And Honey, Camelot and Kismet in theatres across the country. Her non-musical roles have included appearances in Bell, Book And Candle, The Fourposter, Separate Tables and Beckman Place.

In addition to her work in legitimate theatre, Miss Morison has played leading roles in over twenty-seven films and appeared on many major television shows including The Jackie Gleason Show, The Tonight Show, The Mike Douglas Show, Lux Theatre, The Kraft Music Hall, Hallmark Hall of Fame, and The Today Show. Miss Morison was with the very first USO troupe to go overseas during World War II. This troupe included Al Jolson, Merle Oberon, Frank McHugh and Allan Jenkins.

Miss Morison has also performed in most of the leading supper clubs in the country, including the Coconut Grove, the Fairmont, the Sherman House, and has given concerts at the Hollywood Bowl and the Lewisohn Stadium.

Before beginning her career on the stage, Miss Morison was an art student and as a teenager she very nearly went to Paris to study art. She still paints as a hobby and is preparing to present a one-woman show of her work. One day she hopes to retire to Mexico and spend the rest of her life painting, but for the present, her popularity has made this an "impossible dream."

RONALD ROGERS (Fred Graham) comes to Sullivan this season after recently appearing in Kiss Me, Kate, South Pacific and Can-Can in Michigan. Prior to these productions, Mr. Rogers has been touring his one-man concert program, A Cavalcade of Musical Comedy, at colleges and universities and embarks on a third national tour this fall, covering some fifty cities.

Ronald established his popularity with Sullivan audiences when he appeared as Tommy in the first production, Brigadoon, at the old Grand Theatre twelve years ago. Since then, he has been featured in Wonderful Town, Guys And Dolls, Show Boat, Kismet, Bloomer Girl with Margaret Hamilton and last season's South Pacific. He is extremely popular as a singer in England where he was voted "Voice of the Year" by the Gramophone Record Review after an extended tour there. Ronald co-starred with Dorothy Lamour in DuBarry Was A Lady on tour and has been seen in New York in The Rules Of The Game and Livin' The Life.

JOHN KELSO (Bill Calhoun) directed Robert Horton in Picnic, Ann Sothern in Glad Tidings, Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Brien in What Did We Do Wrong? and next week will be directing Peter Marshall in The Little Theatre-On The Square's next production, No Time For Sergeants. This season Mr. Kelso was featured as Hubert in The Student Prince with Peter Palmer, as Nathan Detroit in Guys and Dolls opposite Jane Kean, and most recently as Will Parker in Oklahoma!

John starred as Pseudolus in Guy Little's touring production of A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum and received rave reviews throughout the country. Barbra Streisand and the Smothers Brothers were among his associates when he appeared at St. Louis Crystal Palace. This past winter John appeared at Pheasant Run Playhouse in The Odd Couple with Dan Dailey and in Voice Of The Turtle with Terry Moore.

DEBORAH WOOD (Lois Lane) a native of Louisville, Kentucky, joined the company of The Little Theatre-On The Square this season as lead dancer and assistant to the choreographer. Last week she danced "Laurey" in the Oklahoma! ballet as well as choreographed the entire show.

While in high school, Miss Wood was a member of the Wandering Minstrels, and the Louisville Civic Ballet Company directed by Fernand Nault, now the head director of Les Grandes Ballets Canadiens.

Last year Deborah studied ballet at Harkness in New York as well as attending Barnard College. Debbie has appeared as a dancer and singer in The Stephen Foster Story in Bardonia, Kentucky, site of "My Old Kentucky Home."

ROBERT GWALTNEY (First Man) delighted Sullivan audiences last week in the comic role of the Persian peddler, Ali Hakim. His long list of theatrical credits includes appearances with Bert Lahr in Burlesque, Burl Ives in The Man Who Came To Dinner, Edward Everett Horton in Miss Pell Is Missing, Joe E. Brown in Harvey and Margaret Truman in Late Love.

BILL HADDAD (Second Man) has established himself as a favorite with audiences at The Little Theatre-On The Square. He appeared earlier this season as Ruder in The Student Prince, Nicely-Nicely Johnson in Guys And Dolls with Jane Kean, Max Detweiler in The Sound Of Music.

Last season Bill was featured with Will Hutchins in Sweet Charity and as Luther Billis with Betty Ann Grove in South Pacific.

RALPH FOODY (Harrison) returned to The Little Theatre-On The Square after a year's absence to appear as Lt. Brannigan in Guys And Dolls. Mr. Foody will be remembered for such roles as Ben in The World of Suzie Wong with Robert Reed, the Captain in Mister Roberts with Tab Hunter, as Johnny in Lullaby with Rosemary Prinz and as Dr. Lyman in Bus Stop with Ed Byrnes.
