For Immediate Release:

STUDENTS RECEIVE EIU SPECIAL EDUCATION TELEFUND AWARDS

CHARLESTON -- Four students recently were awarded a Telefund Award through Eastern Illinois University's Department of Special Education.

Recipients included Shannon Kuempel Kazmierczak of Charleston, Tamara Engnell of Frankfort, Virginia Robins of Newton and Donna J. Williams of Kansas.

The Telefund Award is awarded annually to an individual(s) who wishes to attend a professional education meeting, who has received a Special Education Recognition Award and who has applied for the award.

Kazmierczak, the wife of Joseph Kazmierczak of Charleston and the daughter of Sharon Cannata of Hoffman Estates, and Engnell, the daughter of Harry and Marilyn Engnell of Frankfort, are EIU undergraduates. Robins, who is the wife of Jim Robins of Newton, and Williams, the wife of Jerry Williams of Kansas, are graduate students at EIU.
