FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

KIRCHHERR RECIPIENT OF PRICE SCHOLARSHIP

CHARLESTON -- Kimberly Kirchherr, daughter of William and Patricia Rae Kirchherr, Jr. of Grayslake, recently received the John E. and Mary J. Price Scholarship at Eastern Illinois University.

The scholarship was established in 1994 by Margaret Price Weber and her brother, Gary E. Price, in honor of their parents. It is awarded to a student in the School of Home Economics and the Department of Speech in alternating years. Weber, associate dean for graduate study at Oklahoma State University, presented the first scholarship to Kirchherr.

A 1990 graduate of Wauconda High School, Kirchherr is a senior home economics major.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.
