FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

KOZLOWSKI FINALIST IN MUSIC COMPETITION

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University music major Adam Kozlowski was a finalist in the Junior Men's Division at the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) District Auditions held recently at the University of Illinois at Urbana.

Kozlowski, the son of Gene and Marsha Kozlowski of Macomb, was among some 260 students from 23 colleges and universities in Illinois and northern Indiana who participated in the auditions which included preliminary, semi-final and final rounds of competition in different divisions. Finalists were featured in an afternoon concert and received certificates and cash awards.

This was the fifth consecutive district competition in which Eastern had multiple winners. Kozlowski, a 1990 graduate of Macomb High School, studies under Jerry Daniels, associate professor of music at Eastern and governor of NATS' Illinois District.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic support services.
