FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FINAL OPPORTUNITY TO CONTRIBUTE RELIGIOUS INFORMATION

CHARLESTON, IL--The Historical Administration program at Eastern Illinois University is calling upon Coles County churches and religious organizations to help them and the Coles County Historical Society prepare a spring exhibit on religion in Coles County.

The exhibit is titled, "The Substance of Things Hoped For, The Evidence of Things Not Seen."

Individuals, churches or religious organizations who have not responded to the original request for information this past fall may still do so.

Persons or institutions with information, collections or photographs of their religious past should write Jennie Morgan, c/o the History Department, Eastern Illinois University, 600 Lincoln Avenue, Charleston, IL 61920, or call the department at 581-3310. A student representative will follow-up with prospective lenders and arrange a meeting if appropriate.

The deadline for submitting materials is Jan. 31. While all materials will be helpful for research, each item will be considered on an individual basis for exhibit purposes.
