FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SCHOENBAUM RECIPIENT OF HUBBARD SCHOLARSHIP

CHARLESTON -- Anne Schoenbaum, daughter of Ed and Sarah Schoenbaum of Springfield, recently received the Eileen F. Hubbard Scholarship at Eastern Illinois University.

The scholarship award, covering one semester of tuition, is given annually to a junior or senior student in home economics who has demonstrated service, leadership and scholarship.

It was established by the family of Eileen F. Hubbard, who was forced to withdraw from college for financial reasons during the depression. She retained strong interests in education and because of this, the scholarship was deemed an appropriate way of recognizing this.

A 1991 graduate of Lutheran High School in Springfield, Schoenbaum is a senior home economics and dietetics major at Eastern.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.
