- A committee of three will determine screening of these students. The concern was that this committee will make the determination for other departments. Dr. Butt said the committee will present information to the department(s) concerned and receive approval from the department(s) in the screening process.
- "The military mindset is different from civilian mindset." Dr. Gholson cited an article in the September issue of Phi Delta Kappan, "Who Will Speak for the Teachers?" which addresses concerns about alternative certification programs.

Luft/Summers moved to table a vote of the Troops to Teachers Proposal. The purpose would be to review proposal in its entirety and allow discussions with other departments. Each CEPS Curriculum Committee member will receive a copy of the full proposal. Any department wanting more information should contact A. Edwards or M. Butt (both in Secondary Education Department). Motion passed unanimously to table.

Election of CEPS Curriculum Committee Officers for 1994-95:

Chair: Melanie Rawlins (nominated by Dudzinski/Summers; Luft/Summers moved to close nominations, and Rawlins was selected by unanimous vote).

Vice-Chair: Ron Gholson (nominated by Summers/Findley; Luft/Summers moved to close nominations, and Gholson was selected by unanimous vote).

Secretary: Bev Findley (nominated by Gholson/Summers; Luft/Summers moved to close nominations, and Findley was selected by unanimous vote.)

Student Representatives: Need to be selected by the following departments: Undergraduate students by Special Education, Leisure Studies, and Physical Education; a graduate student by Educational Psychology and Guidance.

Next Meeting: Tentatively scheduled for October 11 at 12:00. At that time, discussion will be held concerning the possibility of having a standard meeting time.

Meeting adjourned: At 1:20 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Beverly Findley
