Health Fair to Offer Information, Games, Door Prizes; Public Invited

Mar-02-2010

A wealth of health information, games and door prizes will be available at Eastern Illinois University's "Back to the Health Fair" on Wednesday, March 10.

The annual health fair, sponsored by the EIU Health Service and Health Education Resource Center, will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Recreation Center in the Lantz Building. The event is free, and the community is invited.

More than 70 organizations are scheduled to provide information, including the American Cancer Society, the Arthritis Foundation, Illinois Department of Public Health, Crisis Pregnancy Center and area nursing programs. A complete list of participants is available at <http://www.eiu.edu/~herc/programs/HealthFair2010.php>.

This year's event, named after the popular 1980s movie "Back to the Future," will have an '80s theme.
