FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--"Europe Between the Superpowers: Tensions within the Western Alliance" is the topic for the final lecture of the year sponsored by the Eastern Illinois University chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

Dr. Wolfgang T. Schlauch, Professor of History, will speak on Sunday, March 6 at 2 p.m. in the Booth Library Lecture Hall. There is no admission charge.

Schlauch, a native of Germany, has recently presented papers analyzing the Western Alliance at the European Studies Conference, the Association for German Studies, and the Midwest International Studies Association.

Chairman of the History Department from 1970 to 1974, Schlauch came to Eastern in 1969. He received his academic training in political science and history at the universities of Munich and Freiburg, Germany.

Purpose of Sunday's lecture, a spokesman for the lecture series said, is to focus on differences among the western allies which specifically pertain to East-West relations. The spokesman said the question would be raised as to what extent the Alliance can be "revitalized and confidence among the partners restored."
