FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's lady Panther basketball team, No. 2 in the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference, will challenge league leading Southern Illinois University, Saturday (Feb. 4) at 5:15 in Lantz Gym.

EIU, 12-6 overall, is 6-2 in the GCAC and has second place all to itself. The visiting Salukis are 14-3 overall and have rolled to a perfect 8-0 conference mark.

The lady Panthers retained their second place hold even after splitting GCAC games last week, losing 63-61 to Wichita State but beating Southwest Missouri, 75-65, Saturday night. That win was Coach Barbara Hilke's 100th collegiate victory.

If comparative scores mean anything, SIU downed Wichita State, 81-44, Friday therefore the Panthers will be definite underdogs even though its a home game.

Hilke expects to go with a lineup of 6-0 junior Toni Collins (Lincoln-Jamaica/Sidell) and 5-10 sophomore Chris Aldridge (Taylorville) at forwards, 5-6 junior Lori Conine (Paris-Kansas) and 5-6 sophomore Melanie Hatfield (Lawrenceburg, IN) at the guards and either 6-2 sophomore center Sue Hynd (Ottawa) or 5-8 junior Stacy Cook (Lincoln-Illinois Central CC) at center. Cook started the two conference games against Wichita and Southwest Missouri but then Hynd was in for the tip-off in Monday's non-conference victory at Illinois-Chicago.

"In order to win we're going to have to shoot a little better than we have been," said Hilke. "We also must pressure them into making mistakes and then take advantage of those mistakes. They're one of the best teams in the country and should be ranked . . . but if we play a good game we can beat them."

SIU downed Eastern, 69-60, back in December on a neutral court in the Memphis State tournament. "That was only the third game of the year and Stacy (Cook) didn't play for us then . . . she hadn't reported after volleyball yet," said Hilke.

EIU and SIU are also the GCAC's two best defensive teams. The Salukis are only allowing 56 points a game while EIU is just under 60.

EIU is No. 2 in the conference in team scoring with an even 73 point average and leads the league in scoring margin by averaging 13 points more than opponents.

Collins still dominates most statistical categories with a 13.8 scoring average and 6.5 rebounds followed by Aldridge at 11.6 and 6.3. Hynd is the best shooter at 56.3% from the field and 71.7% from the free throw line.
