FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FINKEL GRADUATES

CHARLESTON, IL--Leslie Finkel, daughter of James and Jeri Finkel of Chicago Heights, was among 857 students who were awarded degrees at the recent fall commencement ceremony at Eastern Illinois University.

Finkel was awarded a Bachelor of Science in Business degree with a major in administrative information systems. She is a 1989 graduate of Bloom High School in Chicago Heights.

At Eastern, Finkel was active in Delta Sigma Pi, co-ed professional business fraternity, serving as its senior vice president. She also was the recipient of the fraternity's 1991 Outstanding Pledge Award. In addition, she was a founding father of Eastern's chapter of the Administrative Information Systems Association.

Before graduating, Finkel completed an internship in Eastern's media relations office, assisting with the distribution of media releases, including those recognizing student achievement.

Eastern is a residential university with an enrollment of
