Catalog course description: College Composition II focuses on argumentation and the critical inquiry and use of sources and arguments. Course work entails analyzing others' arguments and writing a variety of well-researched and ethically responsible arguments. Students gain further practice finding relevant information from a variety of sources and evaluating, synthesizing, and presenting that information.

Course Goals/Outcomes

Students will demonstrate the ability to:

- Identify and apply the principles of argument—claims, reasons, evidence, assumptions, counter-arguments, and counter-argumentation—in written documents (WCR, CT, RC-1, RC-2)
- Produce cogent arguments that consider ideas, issues, problems, and evidence from multiple perspectives (WCR-5, 6, 7, CT-1-6, RC-1, 2)
- Evaluate primary and secondary source evidence, including quantitative data, to determine its credibility, appropriateness, and relevance (WCR-5 -7, CT-4 -6)
- Integrate sources ethically, appropriately, and consistently in written documents (WCR-7, CT-4, RC-2)
- Use data and create graphical elements in their writing (QR-2 -6, RC-2)
- Recognize how to transfer their writing process, understanding of rhetorical principles, genre awareness, understanding of argumentative principles, and the research process to other writing situations (WCR)
- Present work in Edited American English (WCR-4)

Policies

10% is deducted for each day an assignment late.
Papers will not be accepted more than 3 days past the deadline.

No extra credit is available.

If you are dis-satisfied with a grade, you may submit an explanation in writing specifying what you think I have misjudged or over-looked. Subsequently, we will arrange a meeting to discuss your concerns.

Attendance: No make-up is accepted for unexcused absences. An excused absence requires verification.

For a verified medical absence: provide note from a physician directly stating that the student could/should not be in attendance for medical reason or notification from the university registrar's office. Verified official university activity: note on letterhead signed by the faculty or staff member in charge of the activity. Verified emergency work absence (work for a fire department, at a hospital, in the national guard or a comparable field): note on letterhead signed by supervisor. Emergency absence: Harder to make a general rule about verification, but this category includes situations such as an automobile accident or fire in your apartment, or having to care for your sick child. I am skeptical of a vague "family emergency" excuse.

University Policy on Academic Integrity—Students are expected to maintain principles of academic integrity and conduct defined in EIU's Code of Conduct (<http://www.eiu.edu/judicial/studentconductcode.php>). Violations will be reported to the Office of Student Standards.

Departmental Policy on Plagiarism

Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's own original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignments of a grade of F for the assigned essay and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office. Respect for the work of others should encompass all formats, including print, electronic, and oral sources.

University Policy on Writing Portfolios: Students can submit a sample of their writing for the Electronic Writing Portfolio for either English 1001G or 1002G, but not both. Submission forms, as well as other information about the Electronic Writing Portfolio, are at <http://www.eiu.edu/assess/ewpmain.php>.

University Policy on Students with Disabilities: If you are a student with a documented disability in need of accommodations to fully participate in this class, contact the Office of Student Disability Services 217-581-6583.

University Policy on The Student Success Center—Students who are having difficulty achieving their academic goals are encouraged to contact the Student Success Center (www.eiu.edu/~success) for individualized consultations. Call 217-581- 6696 or go to 9th Street Hall, Room 1302.

Early Alert: Students who have a pattern of absences and/or missed assignments will be reported through this system designed to help students get back on track to academic success.

Grade Determination

Class & homework/discussion/quizzes/scaffolding 16% (160 pts.)

Chronic absences, tardiness or leaving class early, and not paying attention during class will adversely affect this portion of your grade.

Arguments 3 @ 28% each 84% (840 pts.)

For the first assignment, you will find your own secondary sources. For the others, you will use articles from your textbook and from folders (provided in D2L modules in the content section), and primary research as sources. Lectures during the scheduled class time and explanatory documents in the D2L modules will provide instructions about requirements and strategies to use.

You must meet the minimum page requirement in order to receive a passing grade.

You will turn in, for each unit: a summary of one source (1- 2 pages worth 40 pts.); a rhetorical analysis of a second source (2 to 3 pages/60 pts.); first draft of your argument (3 pages/80 pts.); final draft of your argument which must include significant changes based on comments (5 pages/100pts.)
