FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's student body president, Joe Butler, a senior from Flossmoor, was removed from office in a Student Senate impeachment vote Wednesday night.

Senate Speaker Ron Wesel said the action was based on a combination of charges including failure to appoint replacements to the senate's Supreme Court and Student/Faculty boards;

Conduct which has impeded the Senate's progress and "demeaned the Senate's integrity";

And, "violating his duty for failing to properly represent the student body."

Wesel, of Watseka, said the last two charges stemmed from an incident during a weekend Senate retreat in Terre Haute, Ind.

Butler was automatically succeeded by Angelynn Richardson, a junior of Springfield, the executive vice president.
