FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

INITIATED INTO KAPPA DELTA PI

CHARLESTON, IL--Eighteen students have been initiated into the Beta Psi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi at Eastern Illinois University.

Kappa Delta Pi is an international honor society in education which recognizes excellence in education. Individuals are selected for membership by their local chapters based on their high academic achievement, a commitment to education as a career and a professional attitude which assures their steady growth in the field of education.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic support services.
