Guests: Bill Gibbs (Media Services), Bob Saltmarsh (EDG), Chuck Eberle (EDG), Mahmood Butt (SED/EDF), Ken Sutton (SED/EDF)

Minutes: Minutes from March 8, 1995, were approved as amended in Item 95-4. Replace "New Course Proposal" with "Course Revision" in the title. In the same Item 95-4, reference to PED 5900 should read "PED 5000."

Item 95-10--New Course Proposal--EDG 5780--The College Environment and Student Development.

Dr. Saltmarsh explained that this course is necessary to meet requirements for Council of Standards and for accreditation. Wording regarding community college transfer credit will read as follows: "Community college courses will not be accepted equivalent to Eastern's 4000-level courses."

Rawlins/Nunn moved for approval. Vote was unanimous approval for this course.

Item 95-11--New Course Proposal--EDG 5790--The Modern American College

Dr. Saltmarsh explained that this course is necessary to meet requirements for Council of Standards and for accreditation. Wording regarding community college transfer credit will read as follows: "Community college courses will not be accepted equivalent to Eastern's 4000-level courses."

Doyle/Rawlins moved for approval. Vote was unanimous approval for this course.

Item 95-12--New Course Proposal--EDG 5800--Governance and Finance in Higher Education

Dr. Saltmarsh explained that this course is necessary to meet requirements for Council of Standards and for accreditation. He further explained that an additional position has been approved and will be used for this course as well as resources within the department. Wording regarding community college transfer credit will read as follows:

"Community college courses will not be accepted equivalent to Eastern's 4000-level courses."

Nunn/Doyle moved for approval. Vote was unanimous approval for this course.

Item 95-8--Proposed M.S. in Secondary Education
New Courses Proposed were presented individually for discussion and vote.

·SED 5330--New Course Proposal-- Advanced Instructional Strategies for Secondary Schools

Smith/Rawlins moved for approval. Dr. Dudzinski asked if there is overlap in SED 5330 and SED 5335. Dr. Butt explained that there is very little overlap. Dr. Nunn asked if additional resources were needed. Dr. Butt explained that $94,700 was requested to write and implement the proposal and that additional C.U.'s have been requested. Vote was unanimous approval for this course.

·SED 5335--New Course Proposal--Integrating Instructional Technology in Secondary Schools

Rawlins/Smith moved for approval. Dr. Butt explained that the renovation in Buzzard Building will help in the delivery of this course. Vote was unanimous approval for this course.

·SED 5339,5439,5539--New Course Proposal--Topics in Secondary Education

Dudzinski/Smith moved for approval for these courses as an umbrella to cover several courses as special topics. SED 5339--Cooperative Learning is one of the courses in the umbrella. Dr. Butt explained that this allows the department to maintain a level of "currentness." Vote was unanimous approval for the umbrella Special Topics courses.

·SED 5339--New Course Proposal--Cooperative Learning

Sheley/Smith moved for approval of this course. Vote was unanimous approval for the course.

·SPE 5500--Curriculum Development and Adaptation for the Individual with Disabilities in General Education (k-12) Settings

Smith/Dudzinski moved for approval of this course. Dr. Dudzinski explained that this is an expansion of a one-hour workshop which is well-received by public school teachers. Vote was unanimous approval for the course.

·Entire Master's Proposal for Secondary Education was approved.

A question regarding requiring EDG 5940 (Introduction to Research) was asked. Dr. Butt explained that EDG 5940 is the proposed required course for the SED Master's Degree. However, since other departments tend to substitute research courses from other departments in their Master's programs, reciprocity for substituting other department's research courses will be considered.
