FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU STUDENTS ELECTED TO SIGMA PHI EPSILON OFFICES AND GIVEN HONORS

CHARLESTON – Several Eastern Illinois University students recently were elected as officers for the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. In addition, honors were awarded to others.

Sigma Phi Epsilon is the nation's largest undergraduate college fraternity, having more members than any other. The Illinois Nu chapter is one of the premier chapters within the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity after just winning its third Buchanan Cup. The Buchanan Cup goes to the most outstanding chapters every two years as far as academics, man-power and active involvement in the community and on campus.

Those elected/honored include:

BELLEVILLE – Dean Lugge, son of Edward and Peggy Lugge of Belleville, was elected as chaplain of the Illinois Nu chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon at Eastern. He is a 2000 graduate of Belleville East High School and a sophomore accounting major.

COLLINSVILLE – Joe Mark, son of Richard and Melissa Mark of Collinsville, was elected as president of the Illinois Nu chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon at Eastern. He is a 2000 graduate of Althoff Catholic
