EIU STUDENTS RECEIVE GRANT-IN-AID AWARDS FOR LEADERSHIP, CONTRIBUTIONS

CHARLESTON – The Office of Student Life at Eastern Illinois University recently awarded several students with Grant-in-Aid awards for their leadership and contributions to their respective organizations.

Specifically, the students were honored for past leadership accomplishments and in support of future contributions to campus life.

These students included:

- ▶ Jessica Gendron, a senior art/graphic design major. Gendron, the daughter of Tom Gendron of Marquette Heights and Carole Gendron of Metamora, is a 1999 graduate of Metamora High School. Her award was based on her involvement with the National Panhellenic Council.
- ▶ Kamesa Harold, a junior speech communication major. Harold, the daughter of Melody Harold of Chicago, is a 2000 graduate of Von Steuben High School. Her award was based on her involvement with Eastern's University Board, the campus entertainment programming committee.
- ▶ Jessica Jarrett, a junior speech communication major. Jarrett, the daughter of Joseph and Pamm Becker of Burbank, is a 2000 graduate of Reavis High School. Her award was based on her involvement with Eastern's Student Government.
- ▶ Carrie Jordan, a senior health studies major. Jordan, the daughter of Robert and Mary Jordan of Oakland, is a 1999 graduate of Oakland High School. Her award was based on her involvement with the National Panhellenic Council.
- ▶ Heidi Oettel, a senior psychology/family and consumer sciences major. Oettel, the daughter of Debbie Darrow of Heyworth and Tom Oettel of Greeley, Colo., is a 1999 graduate of Clinton High School. Her award was based on her involvement with the National Panhellenic Council.
- ▶ Amanda Sartore, a junior political science major. Sartore, the daughter of Karen Sartore of Pana, is a 2001 graduate of Pana High School. Her award was based on her involvement with Eastern's Student Government.
- ▶ Andrew Zalon, a senior industrial technology major. Zalon, the son of Arnold and Lynn Zalon of Chicago, is a 1999 graduate of Niles West High School in Skokie. His award was based on his involvement with Eastern's Interfraternity Council and Greek Week activities.
