FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

GMAT REVIEW COURSE OFFERED

CHARLESTON--The Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) Review Course will be offered by Eastern Illinois University's Business and Technology Institute starting Feb. 18.

The GMAT Review Course provides approximately 25 hours of intense study to assist in obtaining the needed score for entrance to graduate school and has been shown to improve test scores by an average of about 60 points.

Participants will receive a pre-test, post-test and instruction in six modules: data sufficiency, problem solving, writing ability, analytical writing assessment, reading comprehension and critical thinking. Participants will also receive the Official Guide for GMAT Review, with actual test questions, along with mini-math refreshers and grammar reviews.

The instructors for the GMAT Review Course will be Mike and Nancy Wilson. Mike has taught quantitative methods courses and the GMAT Review Course for more than 10 years. He is currently the MBA coordinator for the Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.
