FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

RUSH AND NAWA HONORED

CHARLESTON, IL.--Two Charleston residents have been honored at Eastern Illinois University. William K. Rush has been selected as supervisor of the quarter and Carol Nawa is the employee of the month.

Rush works as a Building Service Supervisor. He is in charge of 70 service workers in the residence halls and food service. He has been on the EIU staff since 1963.

"I've really enjoyed it here," explained Rush. "Eastern's been a good place to work and the atmosphere has always been good to work in." He and his wife Opal, also an Eastern employee, have two daughters, Cheryl and Brenda.

As a secretary in the Foreign Language Department since 1985, Mrs. Nawa has a wide range of duties. These include managing a budget and supervising various office activities.

"The job is challenging and you meet a lot of fine people," she said. "It's an interesting job and I enjoy working with our personnel," she added. Her husband Paul is a French teacher at Charleston High School.
