NEWS RELEASE

November 3, 1980

Charleston, Ill. --The Eastern Illinois University Foundation has announced plans for remodeling and construction work at the home occupied by President Daniel E. Marvin, Jr., 1112 Williamsburg Drive in Charleston. The home is owned by the EIU Foundation.

Sam Owen, Mattoon, President of the Foundation, said the work will involve remodeling of the existing garage into interior rooms, the addition of a new garage and driveway, and miscellaneous interior changes.

"While some of the work planned is just to keep the house in good shape, the major changes will provide a design more suitable for the extensive business and social purposes for which it is used," said Owen.
