Description and Guidelines: English 1001G is a writing course that involves the reading and writing and critiquing of both professional and student essays. These sections of 1001G are computer-assisted, which simply means that students may become familiar with and do some writing and peer evaluating on the computers in the classroom. No part of any grade will be affected in any way by a student's performance on the classroom computers; however, computer problems outside the classroom do not serve as valid excuses for late or missing assignments. Throughout the semester, we switch rooms every week: 3120 this first week, 3130 next week, and onward. NOTE: Students who have ACT scores in English of 14 or below, or who have no test scores on file with the university, must pass English 1000 before enrolling in English 1001G.

Attendance: Each student is allowed three unexcused absences; every unexcused absence after three will lower the student's final grade 5%. Students are responsible for all material covered in class, which includes but is not limited to all lectures and any changes made in the syllabus. Quizzes may not be made up; the three lowest quiz grades will be dropped. Exams may be made up with an excused absence and prior arrangement with the instructor.

Late Work: The essays are due at the beginning of class on the assigned dates. Any essay passed in late will be penalized one full grade every day—including Saturday and Sunday—that the essay is late. With an excused absence and prior arrangement with the instructor, an essay may be handed in late without penalty.

Essay Manuscripts: All essays must be typed, double-spaced; pages should be numbered and held together with a paper clip. The student's name, the date, the essay assignment, and the instructor's name should appear single-spaced at the top left of the first page of the essay. All essays will be given a number grade, a letter grade, critical comments, and an explanation of the grade. If a student has five or more major usage errors on any essay, the essay will most likely receive a failing grade. Any essay and/or grade may be discussed at length during office hours or a scheduled appointment.

Plagiarism: Eastern Illinois University English Department's policy on plagiarism: Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.

Students with Disabilities: If you are a student who has a documented disability and wishes to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible.

Cell Phones: Cell phones must be off and out of sight before you enter the classroom and during class. Every time your cell phone makes any kind of noise, you will have five points deducted from your next essay or exam. If your cell phone is seen in the classroom or if you operate your cell phone in the classroom, you will be asked to leave the class and marked absent for the day. No exceptions.

Assignments and Grading System:

Essay #1 (diagnostic)	not graded
