COURSE DESCRIPTION: ENG 1001G. College Composition I: Critical Reading & Source-Based Writing focuses on informative, analytical, evaluative, and persuasive writing and introduces students to college-level research. The course challenges students to develop sound writing processes, produce cogent writing, strengthen analytical reading skills, and work with sources. Prerequisites: Passing grade ("C" or better) in ENG 1000 or direct placement into ENG 1001G. Students who have either a minimum high school GPA of 3.00 or a minimum ACT-English score of 18/SAT-Writing score of 430 will be placed into ENG 1001G. Students who have both a high school GPA below 3.00 and a 17 or below on ACT-English (420 or below on SAT-Writing) will be placed into ENG 1000. If you are not sure of your status, consult with the Director of Composition.

OBJECTIVES: Students will demonstrate the ability to:

- Develop effective writing processes for producing documents
- Produce informative, analytical, evaluative and persuasive prose
- Implement reading processes to evaluate sources
- Adapt written texts to suit the text's purpose, audience, genre, rhetorical situation, and discourse community
- Recognize how to transfer their writing processes, understanding of rhetorical principles, and genre awareness to other writing situations
- Find appropriate sources through secondary research, including the use of academic databases
- Integrate sources ethically and appropriately using at least one recognized citation style
- Use effective language and delivery skills through speaking opportunities
- Present work in Edited American English

MINIMUM WRITING REQUIREMENT OF ENGLISH 1002G: Writing Centered course whereby the quality of the students' writing is the principal determinant of the course grade. The minimum writing requirement is 5,000 words (roughly equivalent to 20 double-spaced pages) of polished, revised prose in addition to informal writing such as invention work, peer critiques, discussion statements, self-assessments, drafts, etc.

REQUIRED TEXTS and INSTRUCTION: OBTAIN ASAP!

Braziller and Kleinfeld "The Bedford Book of Genres: A Guide and Reader" 2nd ed.

Holdstein and Aquiline Who Says?: The Writer's Research, 2nd ed.

Wysocki and Lynch. The Little DK Handbook. 3rd ed.

D2L Student Orientation – Obtain Basic and Veteran Badges before or during the first week of class.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS OVERVIEW: You will be required to write often, to read selections from the texts, to participate actively in discussion and group exercises, to complete all module activities, and to complete all formal essay writings. You are also required to participate in conferences if scheduled. Keep track of all of your work—and SAVE OFTEN! I will respond critically to students' writing and address both strengths and weaknesses in written comments and/or in conference.

SPECIFIC ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

Home Group: D2L will randomly group you with 2-3 class members. Throughout the course, when discussions and group activities occur, these will be “your people”. They’re there to help you stay on track, to help you understand material, to provide feedback on your drafts, and such. If, at any time, you have problems within the group, contact me privately to set up an appointment via CUB. Specific activities will be specified throughout the course. These activities must be completed on time, or you forfeit the points for the activity.

Lectures and Readings: Each module will contain multiple Lectures (PowerPoint or Kaltura) and Readings (from textbook, documents, or URL links). You will be expected to complete these in a timely manner to facilitate a complete understanding of the module’s required writing tasks.

Discussion Boards and other Interactive Activities: Within each module, students will be expected to actively participate on discussion board posts and in various group activities via CUB. Further instructions will be provided. These activities must be completed on time, or you forfeit the points.

Peer Review Exercises: When designated on the course outline, you will become a peer reviewer. Home group members will complete a “peer review” activity for each other, mark up each other’s texts, and meet in CUB for discussion. Specific directions for these peer activities will be given later.

If you do not participate and complete the activities on time, then you forfeit your Peer Review points.

Self- Assessment Exercises: When designated on the course outline, and during the final stage of revision for an assignment, you will go through your polished draft one last time before submission. This activity helps you evaluate the content, structure, and editing items prior to submission. Specific directions for these self-assessment exercises will be given later. These activities must be completed on time, or you forfeit the points.

Mandatory Formal Assignments: Each Module contains at least one capstone project: a formal, mandatory writing and/or presentation. These are designated with an asterisk  in “Evaluation” below. They vary in genre, purpose, complexity, length, and point value. YOU MAY NOT USE WORK PREVIOUSLY DONE IN ENG 1001 OR ANY OTHER COURSE! These assignments may undergo an extensive writing process and much revision. Further instructions will be given for these particular formal assignments throughout the semester. If you do not submit any one of the mandatory formal assignments, you forfeit the points. Thus, even if the assignment receives a numerical value of 0, you MUST still submit it in order to receive credit for the course.

DUE DATES and LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY:

As you may have assumed from the above bolded statements, submitting items on time is absolutely to your advantage! All due dates are noted on the course calendar. You are responsible to make sure that your assignments are turned on time. If you miss the due date or the close of a “Part/Module” then you can no longer submit items for that assignment/part/module. You forfeit the points. LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED! DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE DEADLINE TO SUBMIT! Submit assignments early to allow for any issues that might arise. Technology issues are not a valid excuse unless the D2L server is officially inaccessible. You need to have a backup technology plan for issues that may arise on your end.

REVISION: Items assigned that are expected to have been fully revised before submission must evidence those changes. Items cannot be further revised after submission. NOTE: Deep Revision, not just surface editing, is expected. Lack of revisions will result in a failing grade.

EVALUATION:

By the end of the course, a student must be writing at a “C” level (or a 70%) and possess the skills competent enough to advance from ENG1002. If there is an extreme discrepancy between in-class and out of class work, I reserve the right to base a student’s grade on in-class work alone. Keep track of your points. These are NOT found on D2L or online.

ACADEMIC HONESTY AND PLAGIARISM

Students are expected to maintain principles of academic integrity and conduct as defined in EIU's Code of Conduct <https://www.eiu.edu/judicial/studentconductcode.php#s1>. Violations will be reported to the Office of Student Accountability and Supports. To honor and protect their own work and that of others, all students must give credit to proprietary sources that are used for course work. It is assumed that any information that is not documented is either common knowledge in that field or the original work of that student.

Academic honesty:

- Documenting all proprietary information that is received from outside sources, including books, articles, websites, lectures, interviews, television, radio, etc.
- Putting quotation marks around the words that were written or spoken by someone other than oneself.
- Applying this standard to all assignments (papers, take home exams, presentations, etc.).

Plagiarism:

To present someone else's work or ideas as one's own is plagiarism. A student commits plagiarism by

- copying, word for word, someone else's writing without putting that passage in quotation marks and identifying the source.
- taking someone else's writing, changing some of the words, and not identifying the source;
- taking someone else's ideas or organization of ideas, putting them into his/her own words and not identifying the source;
- having someone else change the student's writing—a tutor, friend, or relative, for instance—and creating the impression that this is the student's own work; or
- purchasing or downloading papers or passages from the Web.

The English Department's statement concerning plagiarism is this: Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work" (Random house Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the assignment and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Office of Student Standards. Respect for the work of others should encompass all formats, including print, electronic, and oral sources.

Eastern Illinois University is committed to the learning process and academic integrity that is defined in the Student Conduct Code (1.1). To encourage original and authentic written work, any written assignment created in this course may be submitted for review to Turnitin.com and will become a searchable document with the Turnitin-protected and restricted use database. Each formal essay submitted to drop box will be automatically ran through Turnitin.

EWP—ELECTRONIC WRITING PORTFOLIO

IMPORTANT FOR GRADUATION: EIU students MAY submit an essay from ENG 1002, a "writing centered" course, for inclusion in a university-required electronic portfolio. The deadline for submitting the essay to the EWP for this section of 1002 is NO LATER THAN WEDNESDAY OF FINALS WEEK by 5pm. See me or your academic advisor if you have questions. Submission forms, as well as other information about the Electronic Writing Portfolio, are available at <http://www.eiu.edu/~assess>

RESOURCES

INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Office of Disability Services at 581-6583 as soon as possible.

WRITING CENTER: I encourage you to use EIU's Writing Center located at 3110 Coleman Hall. This free service provides one-to-one conferences with writing center consultants who can help you with brainstorming, organizing, developing support, documenting your papers, and working with sentence-level concerns. The writing center is open to help any student from any major at any stage of his or her writing process, and its system of one-to-one conferences demonstrates value and respect for individual writers, all of whom can benefit from feedback about their works in progress.

To schedule an appointment, you can drop by the center (3110 Coleman Hall) or you can call 581-5929. The writing center is open Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. On Friday hours of operation are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

THE STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER: Students who are having difficulty achieving their academic goals are encouraged to contact the Student Success Center (<http://www.eiu.edu/~success>) for assistance with time management, text taking, note taking, avoiding procrastination, setting goals, and other skills to support academic achievement. The Student Success Center provides individualized consultations. To make an appointment, call 217-581-6696, or go to 9th Street Hall, Room 1302.

EARLY ALERT SYSTEM: EIU maintains an Early Alert System (EAS) to help students know when they are not performing up to academic standards. Alerts may be given for poor attendance, not turning work in on time, or doing poorly on an assignment or test. EAS staff will contact you to help you find resources to help you be a successful student. Resources may include time management, study skills, test-taking, finding tutors, or other resources related to academic issues. I will use the EAS if I believe you could benefit from talking to a success coach about these issues.

ADDITIONAL IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Class Conduct and Netiquette: BE RESPECTFUL TO ME AND TO OTHER CLASS MEMBERS AT ALL TIMES. Cursing, intimidation, lying, and harassment are behaviors that I do not tolerate in my course. Such behavior will receive immediate course dismissal as well as documentation with the university's Office of Student Accountability and Support.

Interaction with one another and with me is a critical element to succeeding with this online course. Like a traditional course, there are certain rules of etiquette that are expected and that contribute to more enjoyable and productive communication. The following are tips for interacting online via email, discussion board messages, or synchronous group work activities:

- Remember that the person receiving your message is someone like you, deserving and appreciating courtesy and respect
- Be brief; succinct, thoughtful messages have the greatest effect.
- Your messages reflect on you personally; take time to make sure that you are proud of their form and content.
- Use descriptive subject headings in your emails.
- Think about your audience and the relevance of your messages.
- Be careful when you use humor and sarcasm; absent the voice inflections and body language that aid face-to-face communication, Internet messages are easy to misinterpret.

Organization: Maintain an organized system of your electronic copies. I suggest creating electronic folders for each module. Make sure that you save your work often and in more than one place to prevent loss of material. Losing material is not an adequate excuse for late submissions. Do not save over previous drafts. Rename them and KEEP EVERY DRAFT !!

- When making follow-up comments, summarize the parts of the message to which you are responding.
- Avoiding repeating what has already been said; needless repetition is ineffective communication.
- Cite appropriate references whenever using someone else's ideas, thoughts, or words.
- Before you email me or any professors, read Michael Leddy's "How to Email a Professor" and follow these guidelines: <http://mleddy.blogspot.com/2005/01/how-to-e-mail-professor.html>
- NOTE: PLEASE CHECK THIS COURSE IN D2L EVERY DAY (if D2L is down, CHECK CAMPUS MAIL) in case I send important announcements. If you have a question that is not easily and quickly addressed in an email to me, your FIRST line of communication is to set up an appointment or visit me during office hours via CUB. I plan to check emails every day during the week and will respond within 24 hours. And will try to do so on weekends as well, but I won't guarantee my response time will be 24 hours during the weekend. It may be Monday morning before you will hear back.

Extra Credit (OPTIONAL): All 3 of these Extra Credit options can be turned into DROPBOX throughout the course, but they MUST be submitted NO LATER than TUESDAY OF FINALS WEEK by 9am. There may be other extra credit opportunities that I make available throughout the course with different due dates. At no time can a student request additional extra credit.

- B. Read me the objectives of the meeting. – what did you set out to share, learn, do or accomplish?
- C. Summarize the outcomes/accomplishments of the meeting - what DID you learn, share, do or accomplish?

2. PURDUE OWL

Visit Purdue Writing Lab online individually. Spend at least one hour studying some aspect of writing. Then add to drop box the following:

- A. What were your objectives for visiting Purdue OWL?
- B. What were the outcomes? What did you learn?

3. EIU WRITING CENTER

Have a virtual online tutorial with EIU’s Writing Center over anything writing related. Once complete, do a write up that provides me with the date, time, and topic of discussion. Also, let me know if it was a valuable session or not and provide your reasoning. Submit to Drop Box.
