For Immediate Release:

EIU TO SPONSOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON THE TEACHING OF MATHEMATICS

CHARLESTON – The 43rd annual Conference on the Teaching of Mathematics will be held beginning with an 8 a.m. registration on Tuesday, March 7, outside the Eastern Illinois University Union's Grand Ballroom.

This year's conference, "Mathematics: It's In Everyone's Future," will include 40 sessions for teachers of grades kindergarten through college-level. Josiah Johnson, information services specialist with the U.S. Bureau of the Census in Chicago, will speak during the conference's luncheon, focusing on "The Future Through the Eyes of Statistics."

Sessions and exhibits will be held from 9 a.m. to 12:20 p.m., with the conference luncheon to follow from 12:30 to 2 p.m.

Registration is $35 and includes a continental breakfast, the luncheon and all sessions. Advanced registration should be made by noon Wednesday, March 1. EIU students are welcome to attend the conference free-of-charge, but must pay $9 to attend the luncheon.

For information or to register, contact Eastern's School of Adult and Continuing Education, Center for Continuing Professional Development, at 581-5116.
