Course Description:

In this course we will examine some of the main events in the development of literature and language, its conception, production, and reception. More than simply an introduction to the key cultural movements and genres in British and American literary history, this course will ask you not just to accept but also to think critically about literary history and tradition. In addition to familiarizing you with the history of orality, literacy, and print technology in textual production from the Anglo-Saxon period to the beginning of the 18th century, this core course of the English major will prepare you to enter your concentration with a foundation in critical issues surrounding the lives and afterlives of texts, genres, and traditions. Specifically, in this course we will think about how the use of language changes our sense of self, our sense of others, and our consciousness altogether.

Required Texts:

- Abrams, ed. Norton Anthology of English Literature, vol. 1, 7th edition (NAEL)
- Baym, ed. Norton Anthology of American Literature, vol. A, 8th edition (NAAL)
- Shakespeare, As You Like It
- D2L Course Library (listed as D2L below) and other online readings

Course Learning Goals:

In this course, we will work on achieving the following goals:

1. Read and analyze a variety of Transatlantic texts that represent important moments of intersection between literature and relevant cultural, social, and/or historical events from the oral tradition to the rise of the novel
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the primary characteristics of Transatlantic literary periods and relationships between them
3. Demonstrate an understanding of the impact of key moments in the history of print, literacy, and information technology
4. Devise an intellectual framework applicable to their course of study and/or intended career path
5. Analyze texts, genre, and literary technique in their intertextual context (i.e. in relation to prior and/or subsequent texts)

Figure 10

6. Advance their research skills and their understanding of literary history and the discipline of English studies through the use of appropriate digital archives and databases

Attendance and Class Participation:

My attendance policy is simple: I expect you to attend every class. By attend, I mean not merely showing up as a warm body, but being intellectually present in the class. Bring your book; take notes; come with something to say and/or be prepared to respond thoughtfully to the matters that we discuss in class. After your 4th absence, I will lower your final grade by 1/3 (a "+" or "-") a letter grade for each subsequent absence. If there is a reason why you must miss class for an extended period of time, you should consult with me early about your absences. I reserve the right to count you absent for behavior inappropriate and unbecoming a college classroom, including but not limited to texting, chatting, or any irrelevant use of technology in class; reading materials irrelevant to class; repeated tardiness, sleeping, or any other behavior that is disrespectful to myself and your peers.

If you miss class on the day of the midterm or final exam, you will not be permitted to make up the exam unless you can document an excused absence.

Smartphone/Social Media Policy:

To protect the safety of the classroom and the privacy of the students, usage of cell phones or smartphones during class to videotape, to text, and to access social media sites or apps (e.g., Twitter, Facebook, Tumblr, YouTube, etc.) is strictly forbidden. Smartphone or cell phone use during class will only be permitted with the prior approval of the instructor.

- . Midterm Exam: 10%

Grading Scale:

- A = 94-100
- A- = 90-93
- B+ = 87-89
- B = 84-86
- B- = 80-83
- C+ = 77-79
- C = 74-76
- C- = 70-73
- D = 60-69
- F = below 60

Most assignments will receive letter grades. For shorter assignments, the following check-mark system may be used:

- √+ = Excellent work that is strongly engaged, on-topic, and very well written.
- √ = Satisfactory work that is on-topic and cleanly written.
- √- = Below average work that shows little engagement, is off-topic, and is hurriedly and poorly written.

Turning in Assignments & Feedback:

Assignments turned in via D2L Dropbox must be in Microsoft Word format. Instructor feedback will be embedded in graded writing. Be sure to review and save your graded essays. One of your most important tools for improvement will be the comments and corrections I make in or suggest to your writing. If you wish to see your writing improve and your grade rise as the semester progresses, you must carefully refer back to these written comments as you write subsequent essays.

Guidelines for Specific Assignments:

All written work should be formatted thus:

- Use Microsoft Word
- Use Double-spaced, 12-point Times New Roman or Cambria font
- Use 1" (top/bottom) and 1.25" (left/right) margins
- Include your name, course name, professor's name, and date on the front page
- Include a title for your essays
- Place your name and page numbers in the headers of your essays
- Turn in all written work electronically via D2L Dropbox

A Note about Plagiarism:
