LECTURE SERIES

Dr. Theodore Ivarie, Dean of the EIU Lumpkin College of Business will present "University Education for Business: Issues and Trends" Feb. 28. Ivarie has served as professor of business education and administrative information systems and business dean since 1979.

"Investigation of Recent Andean Volcanoes in North and South Chile" is the topic of the March 13 lecture given by Dr. Nancy McMillan, assistant professor of geology/geography at Eastern.

"The lecture series have been a tradition at Eastern since 1953 and are noted for attracting quality academicians," said Dr. Kandy Baumgardner, a representative of the EIU Chapter of AAUP.

The lectures are open to the public and admission is free.
