CHARLESTON, IL.--Toledo's Jeffery Decker, a 1987 graduate of Cumberland High School, has been named the latest recipient of the Neil R. Cutright Memorial Fund. Decker follows the footsteps of Rocky Lewis, a 1986 graduate of Cumberland High School, who was last year's winner.

The Neil Cutright Memorial Fund was established by George and Dorothy Cutright in memory of their son who was an alumnus of Eastern. The award, which pays full tuition and fees, is presented annually to an incoming freshman student, with preference being given to graduates of Cumberland High School.
