FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL --Robin Trevison, a junior at Eastern Illinois University from Joliet, is the 1983 recipient of the Dr. William B. Tym Scholarship.

The award goes annually to a student enrolled in the pre-dental program "who by reason of scholarship, integrity, and sense of purpose, gives promise of outstanding success in the study and practice of dentistry."

The scholarship, which carries a certificate and cash stipend, was established in memory of Dr. Tym, a dentist in Charleston for 57 years.

Robin is the daughter of Mrs. Shirlee Trevison, a teacher at Dirkson Junior High School, and the late Thomas Trevison, who was a lieutenant in the Joliet police department.
