FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEMBERS OF DELTA SIGMA PI

CHARLESTON -- Seven members of Eastern Illinois University's Epsilon Omega Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi have recently been named to leadership positions in the co-ed professional business fraternity.

Delta Sigma Pi promotes the study of business, encourages scholarship and supports a closer affiliation between the commercial world and the students of commerce. Membership into Delta Sigma Pi is by invitation only through a local chapter whose members have approved the candidacy.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.

Listed below are those students in Delta Sigma Pi:

ASHKUM--Jill Montalta, daughter of Steve and Lana Seibring of Ashkum; sophomore accounting major; 1994 graduate of Central High School in Clifton; elected treasurer.
