"EIU HIGHLIGHTS"

February 9 - February 15

NOTE: The Maki Mandela lecture originally scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 13, has been cancelled due to illness.

9 Dinner. A dinner and concert will begin at 5 p.m. Sunday in the University Union Grand Ballroom as part of Eastern's African American Heritage Celebration. The Unity Gospel Choir, composed of Eastern students, will perform at 7 p.m. For more information, call Tina Leonard at 581-5983.

Concert. Members of the Eastern music faculty will perform "Chamber Music Concert: EIU Faculty Ensembles" at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Tarble Arts Center. Performing will be a trio of David Hobbs on piano, Diane Boyd on flute and Sam Fagaly on saxophone, and a woodwind trio with Boyd on flute, Bernard Borah on bassoon and Richard Barta on clarinet. Two duets will feature Marilyn Coles singing, paired with pianists Karen Sanders and Mark Maegdlin. Maegdlin is also in a trio with Fagaly on saxophone and John McLean on guitar. Completing the program will be a brass quintet. Tickets are available at the door or in advance from the music department. The cost is $4.50 for adults, $2.50 for students and senior citizens. For more information, call 581-3010.

- 10 Presentation. Rosalyn Gresens will present "Employment: What to Expect During the First Year" at 4 p.m. Monday in the University Union Effingham Room. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, call Career Services at 581-2412.

Workshop. Melanie Burns, Family and Consumer Sciences, will present "Slim Hope" at 7 p.m. Monday in the University Union Kansas Room. The workshop will focus on issues such as the media's role in shaping society's ideal body, eating disorders and foods used in advertising. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, call the Counseling Center at 581-3413.

- 11 Pianist. The only pianist to win all three of the highest prizes in The Stravinsky Awards will present a free recital at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Dvorak Concert Hall. Gottlieb Wallisch of Vienna, Austria, will perform music by Beethoven, Ravel and Brahms. The talented 18-year-old is in the United States for a series of recitals and concerto appearances, including his Carnegie Hall debut. He has toured throughout the world since the age of 14. Recent performances include solo recitals in Vienna's major concert halls, including a memorable performance of Beethoven's Emperor Concerto with Yehudi Menuhin conducting. For more information, call Karen Larvick Sanders at 581-2317.

- 12 Open House. Eastern's Office of Admissions will host an Open House Day on Wednesday (Lincoln's Birthday) for prospective students and their families. Registration begins at 9 a.m. in the University Union Grand Ballroom. For more information, call Dale Wolf at 581-2223.

Artist's Lecture. John Siblik will lecture on his work at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Tarble Arts Center. His work is a representation of the dual nature of self; the internal-external bifurcation of mind/body made manifest through the inner voice and unconscious revelations. His work, part of "Order/Disorder: Perceptions of Reality," is one of three solo exhibitions on display through Feb. 23 at the Tarble Arts Center.

TARBLE ARTS CENTER

The Tarble Arts Center will present posters, flyers, magazines, books and other pieces of printed materials selected for the American Center for Design's 18th Annual 100 Show, through March 9. The 100 Show recognizes work representing significant trends in communication design. Each year the American Center for Design sponsors a juried competition to identify the best in contemporary graphic design. The works range from the MTV: Music Television Video Music Awards Program Guide to the Nike New York City Trash Talk billboard designs. The exhibition is free and open to the public. For more information, call 581-2787.
